Reception, Profession Rites Held In Allegany

Two young women from the Rochester Diocese were clothed in the brown habit of the Franciscan Sisters of Allegany and three made first profession of temporary vows in Investiture and Profession Ceremonies held July 2 and 3 in Saint Elizabeth Motherhouse Chapel, Allegany, N.Y.

SR. MARY JOAN DANIEL

Among the class of thirty-one vested with the habit were:

Sister Francis Gerard MacArthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis MacArthur, St. Margaret Mary Parish, and a 1960 graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Sister Mark Joseph Ras, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ras, St. Margaret Mary Parish, and a 1960 graduate of Nazareth Acadenmy.

On July 3, a group of thirty-seven novices took their first vows and received the black veil of the professed sister. Among the newly professed were:

Sister Mary Joan Daniel, Dawson, daughter of Mrs. Daniel W. Dawson, Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish, and a graduate of Nazareth Academy;

Sister Mary Anita John Caruana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Caruana, St. Margaret Mary Parish, and a 1959 graduate of Mt. Alvernia Academy, Reading, Pa.

Sister Mary Andrew John Spiess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew John Spiess, St. Margaret Mary Parish, and a 1959 graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Reverend Celsus Wheeler, O.F.M., officiated at the two-day ceremonies assisted by Reverend Mother Joan Marie, O.S.F., Mother General of the Sisters, and Sister Regina Francis, Assistant Mistress of Novices.

The newly-professed now enter the juniorate where they will continue spiritual and professional preparation for the varied apostolate of the Allegany Sisters.

Buffet luncheon for families, relatives and friends followed the ceremonies on both days.

The Allegany Franciscan staff St. Helen, St. Margaret Mary and Our Lady of Good Counsel Elementary Schools in Rochester. Besides educational work, they maintain hospitals, homes for the aged, residences for working girls, and catechetical centers along the Eastern seaboard, Jamaica, W.I. and Brazil.

Noted Lawyer G. Skivington Requiem Held

Funeral Mass for George J. Skivington, Sr., distinguished trial lawyer was offered in St. Mary of the Assumption Church, Scottsville, Monday, July 3 by the Rev. Edward H. Hartmann.

Also in the Sanctuary were the Rev. Father Harold W. Riley, C.S.C. of Notre Dame University; George J. Freeman, Gowanda and J. Joseph O'Connell, Livonia Center.

Mr. Skivington, 68, of 7 Rochester St., Scottsville died June 30, 1961 of a heart ailment.

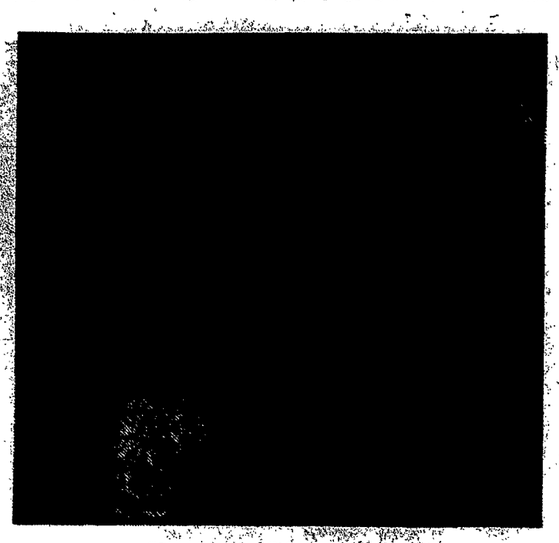
ABOUT 75 JUDGES and lawyers of outstanding prestige in this area paid tribute to their colleague at the Mass. Daniel F. Fitzgerald, Sr., was chairman of the Monroe County Bar Association memorial committee.

Mr. Skivington who received his early training in the law office of James M. E. O'Grady, was highly esteemed because of his colorful manner in the court room and cases well prepared. He had practiced for more than 45 years in the county.

For most of that time he had practiced law in partnership with his brother, the late Francis Skivington.

Mr. Skivington is survived by two daughters, Mrs. James F. Farrell of Manchester, Conn., and Mrs. Eugene M. O'Connell of Camilus, N.Y.; one son, George J. Skivington, Jr. of Scottsville; a sister, Mrs. Joseph Gartland of Mumford; two brothers, Freeman L. Skivington of Cleveland and Paul L. Skivington of Mumford; thirteen grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

FINAL BLESSING at the grave in Holy Angels Cemetery was given by Father Riley assisted by Fathers Hartmann, Freeman and O'Connell. Arangements by B. Leo McIntee Funeral Home.



Dance Planned

Planning for dance are members of Holy Family parish's Young Adults group: Paul Metzger, John Toth, Bob Reber, Phil Hoerieter and Kathy Reber.

St. Francis Rosarians Mark Silver Jubilee

Geneva — St. Anthony Society of St. Francis de Sales Church has reached an important milestone in its history.

The society celebrated its 25th anniversary with a day-long program recently, including Mass and Communion breakfast in St. Francis de Sales Church, and a banquet in Club 86.

THE OBSERVANCE was held on the Feast of St. Anthony, patron saint of the organization. Guest speaker was the Rev. Carlo Del Vecchio of the Most Precious Blood Church, Rochester.

Preceding the Mass marking the opening of the day's program, a procession was formed in the school hall. It wound its way around the block of St. Francis de Sales property and into the front entrance of the church for the anniversary services. In the procession, featuring the banner of St. Anthony, were members of the society, altar boys, the Girls chorus, and members of the choir.

One hundred and twenty-five members attended the breakfast later in the school hall. Mrs. Tony Felice was chairman assisted by Mrs. Grace Oddi and her committee, Miss Marion Moracco, Mrs. Frank Snowney, and Mrs. Laura Di Campli.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward K. Ball, pastor of the church, opened the program and offered grace. The Rev. Anthony Valente, also of St. Francis de Sales, was present for the occasion.

The annual banquet was in Club 86 with Miss Edith Chacchia chairman of arrangements. Mrs. Josephine Pane was co-chairman assisted by a committee. Two hundred and thirty members and guests were present. Music was provided by Dominick DeRosa and son, Nicky, and Nicky Palermo. Mrs. Lucia Prete and Mrs. Adelaide Ciolli were soloists.

MRS. JAMES GIZZI, president of the society, introduced the guest speaker. Other speakers were Monsignor Ball, the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, and Father Valente.

The Sisters of the teaching staff of St. Francis de Sales and De Sales High School were guests.

A Mass for deceased members of the society was also celebrated and an honorary group went to the parish cemetery and placed a wreath on the grave of Mrs. Angela Maria Perry, one of the organizers of the society. The ceremony was in memory of all deceased members.

St. Anthony Society was formed 25 years ago on June 3. The group plans a special program annually on the feast day of St. Anthony. Meetings are held once a month in the school hall.
