Cayuga Scout Council Renames Dr. Karpinski

Auburn — By unanimous vote the Cayuga County Boy Scout Council re-elected Dr. Joseph F. Karpinski for a second term as its president, at a meeting of the Council held at Memorial City Hall, on Thursday evening, June 22. Dr. Karpinski has had a successful year with the Council and has formulated plans for the growth of the Council during the next 12 months.

DR. JOSEPH KARPINSKI

He is the first President of the Council who was an Eagle Scout having earned his Eagle in 1938. Dr. Karpinski was active in Scouting for the past 24 years and led the Council's recent delegation to the National Council Meeting held in Detroit. He was a member of the Executive Board of the Council since 1953 and served as Chairman of the Health & Safety Committee. Dr. Karpinski is a parishioner of St. Hyacinth's Church and has long been active in civic affairs. He is a member of the Budget Committee of the United Fund, related to the panel on health.

He is a Rotarian, a member of the Knights of Columbus, the Auburn Chamber of Commerce, Polish Falcons and of the American Legion. He is a recognized leader in his field of oral surgery having graduated from the Indiana University and the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Medicine for Oral Surgeons. He has done post-graduate work at John Hopkins University, the New York University School of Dentistry, Columbia University, and Tufts College School of Dentistry. He belongs to a number of professional organizations.

Other officers elected were as follows: Vice-Presidents: Dr. Paul E. Newman of Cayuga, Fred W. Kinney of Weedsport, Winfield H. Boehler, William E. Bailey, Paul F. Colwell, Maurice I. Schwartz of Auburn; Treasurer: Malcolm H. Reed of Auburn; National Council Representatives: D. Clifford Jones
