

Legion Presents Gift To Fr. Bolger

A gift of silver was presented to The Rev. W. Darcy Bolger, by his fellow members of Verkes-Couchman-Kettell Post No. 99 The American Legion after Mass at St. Mary's Church, Rushville, Sunday, commemorating Father Bolger's silver jubilee.

The Legion members, accompanied by their wives and sweethearts made their annual pilgrimage to Father Bolger's church.

Father Bolger was the dinner guest of the group at the Town Pump in Orleans County after the Mass.

Sol Schwartz, past commander of the Legion Post was chairman, assisted by Ray Berghold and Frank Spencer.

15 Cadets Graduate From Nazareth Hall

Fifteen Nazareth Hall Cadets marched under crossed sabres to receive their diplomas from Rev. Cyril B. Carter, C.S.B., school chaplain on Wednesday, June 21.

Speaking for his fellow Cadets, Cadet Lt. Michael DiCroce addressed to parents, teachers and friends words of appreciation for all their assistance and encouragement. Guest speaker was Rev. Joseph L. Hogan of St. Bernard's Seminary.

Father Hogan congratulated both boys and their parents on their accomplishments so far, and stated that the four years ahead are, perhaps, the most important in a child's education. "Careful guidance, much patience and encouragement must be given to your sons during those important years."

Awards were presented to the Cadets by Rev. Robert Klem, C.S.B. and Rev. Edward Doser, C.S.B. as follows:

Nazareth Hall Medal for highest average in final examinations, Cadet Lieut. Col. Thomas James Cocuzzi; Nazareth Hall Parent Club Medal for second highest average, Cadet Major Dennis August Pilato; Thomas W. Finucane Memorial Award for Christian Doctrine, Cadet Capt. Anthony Guy Bernard; Sister Aquinas Memorial Medal for Excellence in English, Cadet 1st Sgt. Francis Victor Ciaclia; Sister Camilla Memorial for excellence in the field of speech and dramatics, Cadet Lieut. Michael DiCroce; medal for excellence in mathematics, Cadet Lieut. Col. Thomas James Cocuzzi and Cadet Major Dennis August Pilato; medal for excellence in French, Cadet Capt. David Beedon.

Religious Art Exhibit

Boston — (RNS) — The wooden statue of St. Joseph was featured in an exhibition of contemporary religious art sponsored by the Boston Archdiocesan League of Catholic Women in connection with the Boston Arts Festival. Admiring the figure are Mary Ann Patch of Ipswich, Mass., and Betty King of Revere, Mass. The statue is the work of sculptor Robert White and was loaned to the exhibit by St. Michael's church, Bedford, Mass. It depicts the saint holding a hammer, representing industry, and a staff with lilies, symbolic of the virtue of chastity.

Italy Pastor To Be Honored

A basket picnic will be held Sunday, July 16, at 12 noon in Seneca Park in honor of the Rev. Roberto Mirano, pastor of Annunciation Church in Pietramelara, Italy.

Father Mirano has been visiting relatives in the area including his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zona of Seneca Falls, who recently marked their 50 wedding anniversary, and his aunt, Mrs. Frank Papell of Rochester.

Planning the picnic are John Izzo, Guido Lombardo, Vincent Leonardo, Carl Lambiasi and Joseph Menditto.
