Schoeps Mark Golden Jubilee

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard C. Schoeps will observe their 50th anniversary at 11 a. m. Mass at Holy Rosary Church, July 22.

THEIR CHILDREN will hold a reception for friends and relatives at their home, 168 Merline Street, at 5:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Schoeps, the former Miss Gertrude Friedman, were married July 20, 1911, at Holy Rosary Church.

They have two sons, George and Bernard, and three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Harrington, Mrs. Howard Amo and Mrs. Charles Beach.

GOODNESS KNOWS, we have no ambitions slanted toward being the envy of the neighborhood.

The package came on an inordinarily warm day in April. "This," we told ourselves cockily, "is going to be an early spring. We can plant the whole deal and be done with it!"

The ground was kind of stiff as we got an inch or so down, but hot water handled that problem.

"All in" pronounced the Head of the House after we had dug several scores of holes, setting the plants in with decreasingly tender loving care.

"All in is right!" I agreed, trying to straighten a stiff back, and singing "be it ever so small," wishing it were still smaller!

Came that "last freeze" after the stretch of warm weather and the dear little plants in their icy cubicles made a sad picture as half of them dropped and gave up the ghost.

AND SO we waited for a few weeks before rolling out the green carpet — the one that "even a child could plant" and that would make us the "envy of the neighborhood" — snob appeal we had to do, the instructor said, was dig up a portion of the lawn, lay the carpet, cover lightly with soil.

Whoops! We dug, rolled, covered, but we didn't for one moment fool our fine feathered friends.

And it's getting hot — and hotter! Weeding becomes difficult, neighborhood rabbits, so cute on Easter Sunday, have a penchant for eating roots, vegetable, everything but the weeds.

There is little to show for last February's dream.

The "velvety green lawn" is as it always has been: kind of weedy but, kept short by the Head of the House and some long-suffering boy friends of the girls, it will pass. After all, who but a horticulturist knows the difference between short weeds and short grass? Or so we tell ourselves.

Now, as the never-green thumb becomes browner, the author of this column is content with flower boxes on the side porch — house plants put out for the summer.

It's too hot to worry! Does this sound like one who hates gardens and nature? One who kicks dogs and beats babies? Pushes old ladies off the curbstones?

Honestly, we do love gardens — other peoples' gardens!

Two St. Joseph Nuns To Study At Oxford

Two Sisters of St. Joseph — one a member of the Nazareth College faculty, the other an instructor at St. Agnes High School — will do graduate research at Oxford University in England this fall.

AS A CANDIDATE for the B. Litt. degree at Oxford, Sister Thomas Marion, Professor of English at Nazareth College, will begin a year's graduate study in Classical Backgrounds of English literature and undertake further research on Matthew Arnold.

Sister Joseph Eileen, a member of the St. Agnes High School History Department, will do graduate research in history. Both are alumnae of Nazareth College.

Sister Thomas Marion received her B.A. from Nazareth College in June, 1954 with a magna cum laude in English literature.

She began graduate study at Nazareth in the summer of 1954 and the following September was admitted to the graduate school of Cornell University where she received both a master's degree and doctorate.

Her doctoral dissertation, "Matthew Arnold's Essays in Criticism: A Critical Edition," is now being prepared for publication by University Publishers, Inc., of New York City.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hector, 418 Hayward Avenue.

Sister Joseph Eileen did her undergraduate and graduate work at Nazareth College. A member of Pi Gamma Mu, she is a candidate for a master's degree in History this summer.

Winners Announced In Angling Contest

Twenty-one year old Laura LaPlante of 468 Maple St., Rochester, won top prize in the Rock Bass division of the June segment of the Louis A. Wehle Fishing contest.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hector, 418 Hayward Avenue.

Seneca Lake produced all winners in the Perch class. Prizes were awarded to Charles Sholl, RD No. 3, Naples; Spencer K. DeVito, 131 Geneva St., Lyons; Ray Baroddy, 77 Maple St., Geneva; and Edward Madia, of Geneva.

Mr. DeVito also won top honors in the Pickering division, with a 2 lb., 5 oz. entry taken from Seneca Lake.

Gene Volpe of 145 Swift St., Auburn, placed third in the Northern Pike classification and Albert Mindnich, 1880 Penfield Rd., Penfield, took a 5 lb., 11 oz. Largemouth Bass from Soda Bay for top prize in that division.

Seton Groups In Action

49th Seton Group of St. Mary's Hospital will meet at the home of Mrs. Lillian Moriarity of 209 Hague St. on Monday, July 24 at 8:15 p.m.

Canada Shrines Bus Pilgrimage

Reservations are still available for the Annual Pilgrimage to Ste. Anne de Beaupre, Our Lady of the Cape and St. Joseph's Oratory, Canada.

THE PILGRIMAGE will begin July 31 to August 5 and is under the auspices of Mrs. Salina DeRycke, 108 Elm St., Newark (Phone DE-13859).

It is important to bring Birth certificate, naturalization certificate or laminated (plastic cover card) alien identification card with photo on back of card (wallet size card).

Newark and area (also Rochester) can write or call Mrs. DeRycke at the above address.

Geneva and area can write or call Miss Mary L. Panetti, 41 Willard Avenue, Geneva, (Phone 8251); Auburn can contact either party.

All reservations and bus fares must be in not later than July 25, preferably earlier than that date.

A JOB FOR YOU? YES, WE'RE LOOKING FOR PEOPLE TO WORK WITH US... but, first, answer these three questions:

Are you a Catholic? Are you mission-minded? Will you work at home without pay?

"Yes" to all three questions? You're the person we're looking for! And, believe me, your help is needed! Souls are not won by preaching alone. They're won by preaching, plus prayers, and sacrifices. That's what you'll be expected to do—to say at least one prayer a day for our Priests, Brothers and Sisters overseas, and to make a daily sacrifice (go without dessert, for instance, a cigarette, the uncharitable word.)

The benefits to you? The spiritual benefits are incalculable. You'll be remembered in the 15,000 Masses offered each year by the priests whom you are helping; in the Masses offered by Pope John, Cardinal Spellman, and all our Bishops and Priests. You'll be able to earn, too, a Plenary Indulgence on the day you enroll, on 51 other days during the year and at the moment of death.

The offering we ask you to make for the missions is almost insignificant—less than 2¢ a week for your own annual membership, about 1¢ a week if you enroll your family. You will help us! Thank you. And we thank God that you are with us!

NAME ADDRESS CITY ZONE STATE ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP (INDIVIDUAL $1) FAMILY ($3) PERPETUAL (INDIVIDUAL $20) ($100) "CUSS BOX"

Dear Monsignor: When I asked a priest how to stop cursing, he told me to fine myself 10¢ every time. The money has been collecting in a tin box on my bureau (my wife calls it my "cuss box.") Here are the proceeds for the missions. By the way, don't expect this much the next time I write. The "fine" system works!

BLANKETS FOR BEDOUINS We have nothing like them in this country—the Bedouins, we mean. The Bedouins (pronounced "bed-oo-ins") are tent-dwellers in East Jordan. Men, women and youngsters, they move from place to place with the seasons, trying to find grass for their shaggy sheep and camels, and trying themselves to keep warm. Last winter thousands of Bedouins nearly froze to death because they didn't have blankets. We don't want that to happen again. So we're counting on you... We've promised to give 15,000 blankets, come October, to needy Bedouins, and the blankets cost $2 each. We haven't the money now, frankly, but we know you won't say No. You won't say No because you wouldn't let a beggar sit on your sidewalk in the cold. Please send us $2 right now, and mark it "Bedouins." We'll see to it, thanks to you, that some Bedouins will not freeze.

"YOUR WILL, A WAY" "Where there's a will, there's a way"—we heard this from the Sister in grammar school when we were struggling with arithmetic. We're struggling with problems now, too—the problems of educating a native clergy, building chapels and churches... and a hundred other things. That's why we suggest you overlook the missions when you make your will. Whatever you leave, whether large or small, will solve many problems, especially if you specify "To be used where it's needed most." Our legal title: CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION.
