Subs For Altar Boy

Hyannis Port — (NC) — Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy filed in as altar boy at St. Francis Xavier church last Sunday when the regular altar boy failed to show. Father John Cahill of Ireland offered the Mass.

Talk It Over Mass Cards

Dear Miss Culklin: Is it improper etiquette to give a Mass card to the family of the deceased if they are non-Catholic? As you know, the card only says that a Mass will be offered for the person who died. Several times I have done this very thing. A relative of mine tells me I was wrong. I would appreciate your comment.

Dogpatch In E. Roch.

Al Clapp's worthless village of Dogpatch will spring forth on the East Rochester stage complete with all its hilarious inhabitants when the Broadway musical hit, "Li'l Abner," opens August 7 for a week's engagement at Town and Country Musicals.

Li'l Abner, Daisy Mae Marmy and Pappy Yokum, Maryin Sam, Earthquake McGoon, Stupefyn Jones, Available Jones, Moonbeam McSwine, Evil Eye Fleagle and all the rest of Al Clapp's extraordinary people will descend upon the stage singing and dancing in a real foot-stomping musical which delighted Broadway audiences for 693 performances.

Chester Sommers will have the title role of the hillbilly hero who fears nothing but work and marriage. Within the past year Sommers has played the title role in the off-Broadway production of "Meet Peter Grant" and Sir Harry in the national touring company of "Once Upon A Mattress."

Daisy Mae will be Patricia Northrop, who played the part in the national touring company of "Abner." She has been on the New York stage recently in revivals of "Oklahoma" and "Pal Joey" and "Guys and Dolls."

John Woods, a professional actor and a well-known radio personality will play the part of the rotund Maryin Sam. The Johnny Mercer Gene de Paul musical score is filled with such hits as the sentimental "Namely You," "If I Had My Druthers," and "Love In A Home" — Foot-stompers like "Progress Is The Root Of All Evil," "Oh, Happy Day" and

"The Country's In The Very Best Of Hands" and the show-stopper of all, "Jubilation T. Cornpone."

The Young Danes of the Royal Danish Ballet will make their only appearance in New York state this summer when they open for a week's engagement at the Corning Summer Theatre, Tuesday evening, August 1.

Featuring the youthful buoyancy and technical brilliance that has become the hallmark of the Danish ballet style throughout the world, The Young Danes will present two different programs, evenly distributed among its eight performances, ending Sunday evening August 6th.

THE WORKS to be seen in what promises to be the outstanding cultural event of the summer include diversifications of ballets from more than 200-year-old repertory of the Royal Danish Ballet, a repertory which embraces the romantic, classical and contemporary styles of dance.

Inge Sand, acclaimed ballerina of the Royal Danish Ballet, will lead the troupes as guest soloist and artistic director.

The powerful prize-winning drama, "Five Finger Exercise," the penetrating study of a family relationship characterized by individual isolation and struggle for communication, opens Tuesday evening, August 8, at the Corning Summer Theatre for a week's run. It is an explosive drama with light touches of humor.

The play was the winner of the New York Drama Critics' Circle Award for the best foreign play of the 1959-60 season.
