If Something Should Happen

Durham, N. C. — (RNS) — A fallout shelter for 300 persons will be built here by the Church of the Immaculate Conception at a cost of $2,000 to $3,000. Civil Defense officials will assist the church in planning the fallout-proofing of two large meeting rooms that are below ground level.

The shelter, according to Father Eugene H. Livelshager, pastor, will be designed principally for the protection of grade-school pupils who attend Immaculate School nearby. "If something should happen during school hours, it would be impossible to get those children home," he said. "Also, if it should be necessary to take cover during church services, the shelter would be readily available to those attending."

Sacred Heart Cathedral of Raleigh and a Charlotte church also undertook shelter construction programs following a call by Bishop Vincent S. Walters of Raleigh for North Carolina's Catholic churches to install shelters wherever possible.

Quake-proof Southeast Asia

Death For Traitors

Atlantic City — (RNS) — Catholic war veterans called here for Congress to enlarge the definition of treason so that traitors would face the death penalty both in time of war and peace.

In a resolution adopted at the 26th national convention of the Catholic War Veterans, some 3,000 delegates asked for a reworking of laws "so that conspiracy to overthrow the government by force shall be treason against the United States and punishable under penalties fixed by Congress, including imprisonment or death."

New Ohio High School Includes Bomb Shelter

Parma — (RNS) — A specially designed bomb shelter — first of its kind in the northeastern part of Ohio — will be included in a new 500-student high school being built here by the St. Josaphat Ukrainian Byzantine Rite Catholic Church.

The shelter will be seven feet below ground and will accommodate all the students in two large rooms of 2,000 square feet each. Space has been provided for food storage. A roof ventilator will eliminate the threat of radioactive air.

Father Andrew Ulicky, pastor of St. Josaphat, said the shelter was planned long before President Kennedy made his recent appeal to step up the civil defense program. Many of the parishioners, he said, are refugees from war-torn countries in Europe and realize the life-saving value of bomb shelters.

Laymen's Plea

End Bias in Parishes

Washington — (RNS) — A statement urging all Catholics to join in ending racial segregation and discrimination in Catholic parishes, social organizations, and educational institutions, was adopted here by more than 500 delegates attending the 46th national convention of the Knights and Ladies of St. Peter Claver, an organization of the Negro Catholic laity.

In their message to fellow Catholics, the delegates said, "As Catholics and members of the True Church of Christ, faithful to Her doctrines, but mindful of our serious obligation to exercise fraternal correction, we call upon our fellow white Catholics to resist and combat every facet of racial discrimination by priest or laity within the Church."

"WE BELIEVE as a matter of doctrine that racial segregation and prejudice are sinful, that the practice of such within the Church is a heresy which denies the basic unity of mankind; and it is contrary to the doctrine of the Mystical Body of Christ."

The statement added that Negro Catholics "feel most keenly about certain racial abuses and segregation as practiced within our Catholic institutions, societies, and organizations" and charged "that such practices are 'totally contrary' to the pronouncement of the Catholic Bishops of the U.S. of Nov. 14, 1958."

practices are "totally contrary" to the pronouncement of the Catholic Bishops of the U.S. of Nov. 14, 1958.

"We speak out against those seeking to divide us from the total human membership of the Church of Christ," the Knights and Ladies of St. Peter Claver declared. "We decry essentially separate racial parishes, societies, and separation on a racial or national basis and pledge our efforts in correcting this condition."

(In the Rochester Diocese, there are no separate Negro parishes. Negro Catholics are enrolled, as Catholics of any other race, in the parish of the area in which they live.)

The Knights and Ladies also expressed their approval of freedom riders who have sought to break down the barriers of racial segregation in the South.

saying that "We support the Freedom Riders because they simply and dramatically express the deep feeling of resentment all true Americans express against racists and bigots."

The resolution said that "We cannot in good conscience acquiesce in the maintenance of the status quo in race relations in the civil society or in our Church."

"We are able to turn the other cheek," they said, "but do not believe that Christ intended we should stand dumbly and mutely by when there is a need for our effort to strengthen the vitality of our Church and our society."

The statement said that the delegates spoke out with "sincere sorrow" because racial segregation degrades the United States in the eyes of the world and lends assistance to the Communist conspiracy.

Pakistan Ayub Khan Asks Islam, Church Tie

Karachi — (RNS) — President Ayub Khan of Pakistan asserted here that Christianity and Islam must find a common answer to combat communism successfully. Speaking at a centenary celebration of St. Patrick's Catholic high school here, one of Pakistan's oldest Christian educational institutions, he warned that unless organized religion learn to meet the challenge of communism, they will be abandoned by the masses.

"Fundamentally," he declared, "the principles of Islam and Christianity — in fact, of all religions — are immutable. They must always remain sacrosanct, but the methods of their application must change with changing circumstances. Unless we learn to separate the two and readjust ourselves, we will be overwhelmed by communism."

During the last 40 years, President Khan said, the Ends In Jail The Cuban government has demanded a 30 year jail term for a Catholic youth leader and 20 year terms for two priests, NCCW reports. The three are among 74 arrested for working against the Castro regime "under the influence of the Church and the (U.S.) Central Intelligence Agency."

Live In Peace

Washington — (NC) — The missionary's most urgent task in Africa today is to teach the peoples of its emerging countries to live together peacefully — free societies where the rights of all are respected.

That is the opinion voiced here by Father Leo Volker, W.F., superior general of the White Fathers, one of the largest mission congregations on that continent. A native of the Netherlands, the veteran missionary came here from his headquarters in Rome to visit White U.S. and Canada.

Temperance Sermons Urged

St. Paul — (RNS) — Alarmed by the abuse of liquor, Archbishop William O. Brady of St. Paul has called on his priests to dust off "the old-fashioned sermons on temperance and even on total abstinence."

"When one sees, as we often do, the tragedies that are played out in families, in business and in clubs, it is more than a pious wish to say that it would be good if every bottle were at the bottom of the sea," the Catholic prelate said.

Writing in his weekly column in the Bulletin, Archbishop Brady observed: "The picking process has become so socially acceptable that far too many are in a state of continual artificial preservation while they are still breathing—heavily." "We priests are going to have to preach temperance a little more. Our societies are going to have to practice it a little more. There's got to be a change. There's got to be a change. There's got to be a change."

Korea Orphans

Washington — (NC) — Support of orphans and foundlings in Catholic institutions in Korea has been undertaken by the National Council of Catholic Women.
