Senator Keating Lauds Magazine

Washington — (NC) — Sen. Kenneth Keating of New York has praised a Catholic magazine's series on the obscenity problem, already lauded in the House of Representatives.
KEATING SAID the articles appearing in the February and March issues of St. Jude magazine, published by the Claretian Fathers, treat the problem "with unprecedented thoroughness." He placed excerpts from the articles in the Congressional Record (Aug. 29).
 The series, written by Bob Brizzolara, was earlier praised in the House by Rep. Thomas J. Lane of Massachusetts.

Appeal Made To Fight Disease

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhard of Holy Redeemer parish, Rochester, with daughters Nancy, 5, and Laura, 3, are spurring the current campaign for funds to fight cystic fibrosis, a lung and pancreas disease which hits infants and children. Medical experts estimate 1 in every 1000 children suffer from the little known disease. Information or contributions—contact the Rochester Cystic Fibrosis Chapter, Box 7174, Rochester 16.

Talk It Over Good Taste
 By ANNE CULKIN

Dear Miss Culkin: In September I'll be a junior. Many of the girls in my class decided that they were going to wear slacks to school. My mother asked me to ask you what you thought about it. Lots of other girls are going to and I don't think it's a bit wrong. Would you answer as soon as possible?
 Dear L.L.: A stomach often becomes empty when it is empty. When it tells you in the presence of others to feed it, don't become embarrassed about it. It is a natural process which you have no control over. Hence, there should be no timidity about saying "excuse me" and then immediately resuming your conversation.
 Dear Reader: Yes it is unbecoming to bend over from the waist to recover something from the floor. The graceful way of stooping is to lower your body by bending the knees. Keep the back erect when doing it.
 As for your question concerning the proper address for a widow — a widow retains her husband's name. She is, therefore, addressed in introduction and correspondence as Mrs. Richard Pierce, not as Mrs. Alice Pierce.

Dear Miss Culkin: This might sound silly but it is a real problem. What do you do if your stomach rolls and makes noise? I become so embarrassed if there are people around. What should you do?
