Registration Time At Men's College

FISHER FRESHMAN Kirk Brightman of Bristol, Conn. helps his classmate Ted Kelly of Pittsford find the right fit in a college sweater. They are two of 275 freshmen to register at Fisher this week, largest class in the college's history.

A BUSY YEAR AHEAD is indicated for Louis Flament of Malverne, N. Y. as he purchases books from sophomore Michael Lindsay during Freshman Registration this week at St. John Fisher College.

Orientation Program Scheduled At Fisher

A talent show, bonfire rally and two dances will highlight next week's orientation activities at St. John Fisher College. The program will begin Sunday with a 3 to 5 p.m. faculty reception for freshmen and their parents.

Other events scheduled are:

Tuesday (September 19) 10:30 a.m.: a talent show presented by members of the freshman classes of St. John Fisher and Nazareth Colleges will be held in the Fisher college auditorium. Thomas Treveth of Fisher is in charge of the event.

Thursday (September 21): The clubs and special organizations of St. John Fisher will present exhibits demonstrating their scope and purpose throughout the day. The "Activities Day" program will be arranged by Robert Agostinelli.

In the evening at 7:45 p.m. a bonfire rally will be held on the campus followed by a 9 p.m. dance on the Nazareth College tennis courts. Michael Lindsay is chairman for the rally.

Friday (September 22): at 2:30 p.m. field events will be held on the campus followed by the traditional greased pole attack at 3:45 p.m. during which the freshmen and sophomores will vie for a 1965 beanie perched on top of a 14-foot greased pole. Chairman of the activitiy is David Niermeyer.

A Freshman Dance is scheduled in the college auditorium from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. on Friday. Chairman of the dance committee is Eugene Walz.

General chairman of the freshman orientation program is James Garvey.

New Staff At McQuaid

The 270 freshmen who entered McQuaid last week are not the only new faces at the Jesuit school. Six Jesuit priests, eight scholastics, and four laymen have joined the administration and faculty since June, bringing to the Rochester community their varied educational and professional backgrounds.

FIVE ARE Rochesterians, Rev. Eugene A. Gisel, S. J., a Jesuit of 44 years, is the new administrator and vice president. Fr Gisel is a native of St. Boniface parish. He spent 13 years as a chemistry teacher and head of the chemistry department at Ateneo de Manila in the Philippines and was interred by the Japanese during World War II.

On his return to the States he was successively head of the chemistry departments of St. Peter's College, Jersey City, and Fordham University before moving to his most recent post; Lemoyne College, Syracuse in 1953. While in the Philippines, Father Gisel was responsible for the establishment of a College of Technology in Manila to teach Filipinos scientific methods of industrial processing, a foreruner to the foreign aid policy emphasized today.

Mr. Orestes P. Coccia, S. J., a native of Villivallelonga, Italy, was a Rochester resident when he entered the Society in 1951. He holds a bachelor's degree in classics from Fordham University and taught for three years at Canisius High School, Buffalo. At McQuaid, he will teach French and Latin.

The remaining three Rochestarians are lay teachers. Mr. Thomas Cooper, who will teach English, Biology, Health, and Driver Education, attended St. John Fisher College, University of Virginia, and Belmont Abbey, North Carolina, before obtaining his bachelor's degree from the University of Rochester in 1960. Before coming to McQuaid he was a medical representative for Burroughs-Wellcome Co. of Tuckahoe, N. Y.

MR. JOHN JOYCE, a new physics teacher, has his bachelor's degree from Niagara University and is now doing graduate work at the U. of R. Mr. Robert Gullo, who will teach physical science and be assistant to the prefect of discipline, has an A. B. in math from St. John Fisher College and an M. A. from the U. of R. The fourth layman, Mr. Thomas Shields, is the new registrar. He graduated from Holy Cross College in 1952, served with the U. S. Navy for four years and then continued his studies in Rome and at Dunwoodie, New York. Before coming to McQuaid, he was associated with American Airlines in New York City.

Other staff newcomers include: the Rev. Jerome Kleber, student counselor; the Rev. Francis W. Reed, Mr. William Frankhauser, Mr. David White, Mr. Robert McCarty, Mr. Edward Zogby.

New prefect of discipline is the Rev. John C. Connelly and the Rev. Daniel J. Carey is new moderator of athletics.

Also Messers Leo Gafney, Eugene Murray and Raymond Schroth.

Family Honors Sister Laura

More than seventy members of the Temmerman family gathered at the homestead of the late Mary and John Temmerman, 15 Cayuga St., on August 29, to honor Sister M. Laura. The former Pat Turner is the daughter of Ray Turner of Florida and the late Lauretta Temmerman Turner.

THE FESTIVITIES marked a celebration for Sister Laura who has just been named superior at the newly formed parish school in Palmyra dedicated to St. Anne. Sister has been teaching at St. Pius and St. Ann's in Rochester since receiving her habit.

Alice Temmerman, an aunt of Sister Laura, who now resides with her brother Edward, at the Cayuga St. residence, gave a buffet supper. Among those present were Sister's father and step-mother, her brother Bill and his wife, all of her Temmerman aunts and uncles and many cousins with their children.

30th Annual Campaign Launched By CYO Unit

The thirtieth annual membership campaign of the CYO got under way last Tuesday with a preliminary canvass by the Special Gifts Committee under the leadership of Brendan J. Meagher. The men met at the Manger Hotel and began solicitation of sponsored memberships at $10 each.

RECIPIENTS of these memberships may be designated by the sponsor, or assignments to deserving boys and girls are made from a special list supplied by the various local social agencies.

Fred W. Sarkis is chairman of the men's division of the CO Campaign.

"Much of the growing strength of America," says Chairman Meagher "lies in the responsibility of our youth. Guidance and training in the fields of physical fitness and in qualities of leadership will help the citizens of tomorrow to handle the problems which this generation will pass on to them. The CYO has the staff, the facilities and the programs to meet the needs and activities of youth and it offers these services to boys and girls without discrimination as to creed, race or national origin."

The general campaign, under direction of Joseph J. Miller, opens with a dinner meeting at Columbus Civic Center on Sept. 28. Bishop Kearney, honorary chairman, will be the principal speaker.
