

Mass Opens School Year

Auxiliary Bishop Casey celebrated the traditional Mass of the Holy Spirit at the formal opening of the new school term at Aquinas Institute last Wednesday morning.

THE BISHOP offered Mass in the auditorium of the Basil-Fathers' school with the entire students body of nearly 1400 students in attendance. Rev. John Ware, C.S.B., and Rev. John Whitley, C.S.B., assisted the Bishop as chaplains.

In his address to the students, the Bishop welcomed back the upperclassmen and urged the new students to "take their part in that long procession of men who have studied at Aquinas and who have added to the honor of the school by their contributions to the life of the Church and the community."

Rev. Fergus J. Sheehy, C.S.B., Aquinas principal, and members of the student council welcomed Bishop Casey to the school. The Auxiliary Bishop is vice-president of the school's Board of Trustees.

Serving as escorts to the Bishop were student council president Tony Barabato, assisted by John Attinasi, Samuel Buonaugurio, Benjamin Campanelli, Edmund Calvaruso, Peter Casartelli, Daniel Fichter and Robert Helget.

Following Mass the student council escorted the Bishop on a tour of the building.

Dance Listed At Nazareth

Nazareth Academy Dance Committee will sponsor "September Serenade," an informal dance for high school students, Monday, Sept. 18, from 8 to 11 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

THE DECORATIONS will be giantized notebooks, pencils and textbooks. Gala streamers in Nazareth's school colors, gold and blue, will be used to create a "Back to School" spirit.

Committee members are Frances Fortin, chairman; Kathleen Fahr, decorations; and Wendy Wikom, checking.

"Boys attending the dance must wear ties," according to committee regulations.

Price of admission is 50 cents.

Columbia Banking Offers News Map

Columbia Banking, Savings and Loan Association is offering as a public service a copy of Rand McNally's "News Map Of The Changing World."

THE MAP was designed to give users a clearer understanding of the world areas where tensions exist and where news stories are likely to develop.

The "News Map Of The Changing World" furnishes large-scale maps of these critical areas, plus a handsome up-to-date world map that is keyed to 20 active areas, with capsule comments that help the user to keep abreast of the news as it occurs.

Brewery Begins High-Speed Output

Beer is now being canned at a rate of 1,000 cans a minute at the Genesee Brewing Company in Rochester. The high-speed production, which is one of the fastest in the world, was announced today by John L. Wehle, president of the company.

The brewery said that installation of a $250,000 canning line has made it possible to boost output from the former level of 250 cans a minute to the current peak. American Can Company, supplier of the canning equipment, is discharging its duty by providing all new
