UNDER THE direction of Sister Johanna, the student body will sing the Mass, while the Glee Club offers the proper and the polyphonic offertory "O Gloriosa Virginum."

After Mass, members of Sister Evelyn's Dramatics Class will present Edna St. Vincent Millay's play "The Princess Marries the Page." Included in the cast are Nancy Loss, Suzanne Devereil, Pamela Edd, Margaret Smock, Joann Cocilovia, Joan Arlaukas and Mary Ellen Momano.

The play will be followed by tributes in the name of the entire school offered to Sister Marie Margaret by Kathleen Thane, Student Council President and Elaine Neenan, Senior Class President. With their spoken tributes will go a Spiritual Bouquet, roses, and a special feast day gift.

Completing the honors of the day the girls will see a movie in place of their usual afternoon classes.

India's Nehru Peace Effort

New Delhi — (RNS) — Valerian Cardinal Gracias, Archbishop of Bombay, praised here the efforts of Indian Prime Minister Nehru to achieve world peace at the Belgrade conference of 25 neutral countries.

In a radio broadcast, the cardinal said Mr. Nehru would earn the gratitude of all men of goodwill for lifting the conference from the local and national levels to the most important question of the day — the threat of nuclear holocaust.

McQuaid High Breakfast Set

The annual Father and Son Communion and Breakfast will be held at McQuaid Jesuit High School this Sunday, Oct. 15, as the first activity of the McQuaid Fathers' Club yearly program.

McQUAID RECTOR Rev. Robert J. Boyle, S.J., will celebrate a 9 a.m. Mass in the school gymnasium, and Rev. Jerome Kleber, S.J., new student counselor will be the speaker at the breakfast which follows.

Chairman of the breakfast is Frederick L. Lindsay, 471 Claybourne Rd., Brighton, whose son Chris is a McQuaid sophomore. Assisting him are Neil Duffy, who has a son, Thomas, in freshman year, and Eugene Fuerst, whose sons Thomas and Carl are junior and freshman students. President of the Fathers' Club is Lawrence Mooney, 83 Monroe Pkwy., Brighton.

Catholic Women's Club Members To Be Greeted

The Catholic Women's Club will close its Membership Drive with a reception for all members in honor of those now recently enrolled on Monday, Oct. 16 at 8 p.m. at the Catholic Women's Clubhouse on Alexander St.

FOLLOWING THE introduction of new members, Miss M. Geraldine Moylon, program chairman, has planned a book review by Miss Catherine J. Sullivan, teacher and author and, at present, Consultant for English and Social Studies in the Rochester Public Schools.

Refreshments and a social hour will follow.

Mrs. Ronald J. McDonald, membership chairman, is being assisted in making arrangements for the evening by the Mesdames Fred J. Blum, Thomas J. Craig, Herbert F. Janick, George J. Johaneck, Emmett B. McCorry, John J. McLaughlin, William V. Magovern, Emmett W. Moore, William R. Noonan, Jr., Guido P. Palma, Philip T. Scharf, Robert I. Smith, Cyril J. Statt, George B. Whelehan and Donald J. Hibernians To Honor Father Wood

The Ancient Order of Hibernians and its Ladies Auxiliary will sponsor a party this Sunday Oct. 15 in the clubhouse, 48 Alexander St., beginning at 4 p.m.

THE OCCASION will honor the County Chaplain, Rev. George S. Wood, pastor of Our Mother of Sorrows Church.

Entertainment will be furnished by the Hibernian dancers under the direction of Desmond Fenrose and music by the Hibernians Orchestra.

Lunch will be served by the Ladies Auxiliary under the chairmanship of Mrs. David Shannon, Auxiliary president. Ross McMahon is chairman and Patrick J. O'Hara co-chairman. All members and their friends are invited.

Sister Paulette Set In Oswego

Sister Paulette, chairman of the Sociology Department at Nazareth College, will speak to the Rotary Society of St. Paul's Church, Oswego, on Monday evening, Oct. 16. Sister Paulette will discuss "Religious Formation in the 20th Century—Who, How, Why."

THIS IS A homecoming event for Sister, as St. Paul's is her former parish.

The Sociology department at Nazareth now includes among its students two young men from St. John Fisher College as part of the integrated program of the two schools. They are taking a course in Anthropology.

Five former students of the department are studying on scholarships in graduate schools, three at Fordham, one at Boston College, and one at Syracuse University.

Columbus Day Dinner Readied

Dansville—Annual Columbus Day Dinner will be held at the Old Madrid Restaurant on Saturday, Oct. 14, where a family-style chicken dinner will be served to members of Dansville Council No. 785 and their guests.

DINNER WILL be served at 7 p.m. followed by dancing to music furnished by the "Stardusters." Chairman of the annual affair is Edwin C. Lauffer, III.

The Grand Knight of the council is Edwin C. Lauffer, Jr. Tickets are $2.25 per person and may be purchased from any officer of the organization. All members will be contacted by the ticket committee.

Nigeria Native

Port Harcourt — (RNS) — Bishop Godfrey Oyo, C.S.S.P., of the newly-created diocese of Port Harcourt was consecrated here as head of the See in an outdoor service attended by some 10,000 persons. Bishop Oyo is the fourth native African prelate in Eastern Nigeria.

Announcement was also made that Father Andrea Makarakiza, W.F., editor of the Usumbura Catholic weekly, New Times, was named to head the new diocese of Ngazi in Ruanda-Urundi.

Door Prizes, Raffles Ruled Out

Postal regulations forbid mailing of notices about door prizes, lotteries, raffles, bingo or any other games of chance.

News items from parishes or organizations cannot be accepted for publication in this paper if they contain such notices.

Due to the large volume of news items submitted for publication, occasionally notices contrary to postal regulations have been printed and endangered delivery by mail of the diocesan paper.

The editors request those who submit items for publication to keep this in mind.

Must've Been A Big Statue

Copenhagen — (NC) — A statue of St. Anthony had to be removed from the church dedicated to him here in suburban Copenhagen to accommodate increasing crowds at Mass.

Suburban St. Anthony's was built in 1928 to take care of 200 Catholics. In recent years many Catholic families have moved here from the city so that today the parish has a population of 1,000. About half of Denmark's 26,000 Catholics live in Copenhagen and its suburbs.
