Waldert: Recommended by your Eye Physician for 49 years

Bertillon, the Fingerprint Expert

Suggested that the irises of the eyes be used in identifying criminals since no two irises have the same pattern. Ask your Eye Physician about it when you have your complete professional Eye examination. There's no other way to find out for sure how well you see or how much you've been missing.

School Sisters Honored By St. Stephen's Club

Geneva — A parish card party and memorial Mass for deceased members are on the November calendar of the St. Stephen's Club.

THE CLUB held a pantry shower for the Sisters of St. Stephen's School at a meeting recently in the school hall. One hundred members and guests attended.

The moderator of the club, the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, introduced the Sisters of the school faculty.

During the business meeting, Mrs. James Walker reported on the recent rummage sale and members were reminded of the forthcoming annual Bishops' Clothing Drive for the needy overseas. The drive will be conducted during Thanksgiving Week.

Mrs. Frank Lann, a speech specialist, who is assisting on the faculty of De Sales High School, was present for the meeting and gave a reading.

A MASS FOR deceased members will be celebrated at 5:30 p.m. on All Souls Day, Nov. 2, in St. Stephen's Church. Supper will be served later in the school hall.

A parish card party will be held Nov. 15 in the school hall. Mrs. Martin Lawler and Mrs. Alex Riel are co-chairmen of this event.

Committee on arrangements for the meeting included Mrs. Fred Burke, Mrs. Albert Seidel, Miss Margaret Murphy, assisted by a group of Senior Girl Scouts of the parish.
