Conclave Lists 'Dobie Gillis'

Dwayne Hickman, known to television fans as Dobie Gillis, star of the TV show of the same name, will attend the 6th National Convention of the National Council of Catholic Youth—CYO and young adult sections—which will be held in Buffalo, Nov. 9 to 12.

Hickman will attend the two cotillions on Friday evening, one for the CYO section and the other for the young adult section. He will also attend the Convention breakfast in the 174th Armory on Saturday morning, Nov. 11 and receive an award at the Gold Ticket Banquet also on Saturday at the Armory. He will be honored for his outstanding contributions to the nation's Catholic youth.

Evening of Comedy Listed

THE CHAIRS will be one of three comedies presented by Catholic Theatre on Oct. 20, 21 and 22 at St. John Fisher College Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Ann Piacentini and Jim Mills are shown in a scene from Ionesco's play. Richard Mancini will direct the play. The other two plays, "Love's the Best Doctor" and "The Marriage Proposal" will be directed by Joseph Baranowski.

Waterloo Woman Named OSY Deanery Leader

Geneva — Miss Elizabeth Teller of Waterloo is the new president of the Ontario-Seneca-Yates Deanery Council, National Council of Catholic Women, succeeding Mrs. Julian G. Humiston.

New officers were installed at the First Saturday Communion luncheon in Geneva Country Club.

Miss Teller is a native of Waterloo and was graduated from Cortland State Teachers College. She is now clerk of the Board of Education of Waterloo Central School and past president of the Rosary-Altar Society of St. Mary's Church, Waterloo.

INSTALLATION address was given by the Rev. James F. O'Connell, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Waterloo, moderator of the OSY Deanery. Installation ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. Richard L. Weider, president of Rochester Diocesan Council of the NCCW.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Louis Amish of the Catholic Daughters Penn Yan, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Gleason, St. Mary's Church, Canandaigua, second vice president; Mrs. William O'Brien, St. Patrick's Church, Victor, recording secretary; Miss Theresa McGrain, Catholic Daughters, Seneca Falls, corresponding secretary; Miss Cora Rice, Catholic Daughters, East Bloomfield, treasurer.

Newly appointed committee chairmen are: Mrs. Victor Tischer, Victor, N.Y., Organization and Development; Mrs. Vincent Gratzler, Canandaigua, Ways and Means; Mrs. Julian G. Humiston, Gorham, public relations; Mrs. Edmund Linehan, St. Francis de Sales Church, Geneva, Catholic Daughters representative - at large for the OSY Deanery on the Division board.

THE LUNCHEON program was opened by Mrs. Humiston, past president, who acted as toastmistress. The national anthem was played by Mrs.

George Doebelin of Geneva. The Rev. Raymond P. Nolan of St. Stephen's Church said grace.

During the program, Mrs. Humiston recited the well-known Irish poem, "The Trimmings on the Rosary" composed by Father John O'Connor of Australia, who wrote it as a tribute to his mother in Ireland.

Father O'Connell gave the installation talk on the meaning and duties of the council officers. He said Catholic action is not a matter of choice but to quote a modern phrase "a command performance." He said every Catholic woman should examine her conscience daily on "What have I done today to help the cause of Catholic action."

Father O'Connell presented a gift in the name of the Council to the retiring president, Mrs. Humiston. It was a Botticelli Florentine painting on wood.

MORE THAN 150 members attended the First Saturday Mass which was held at 12:10 p.m. in St. Stephen's Church. The celebrant was the Rev. Edward Golden. The pastor, Father Nolan, delivered the sermon on the meaning of the Feast of the Holy Rosary.

St. Stephen's Rosary Society sponsored the Communion luncheon. Mrs. Harold Brooke was general chairman, Miss Madeline Buckley, president of the Rosary Society, extended greetings to the members of the tri-county Deanery. Mrs. William Atwater was in charge of reservations.

Miss Ana Ezcurrea of Argentine, an exchange student, was a guest of honor of the International Relations committee of the Deanery.

Nuns of the Rochester area are invited to a special showing of the award-winning movie Question 7 at the Regent Theater Saturday morning, Oct. 21. The film begins its showing to the public Friday, Nov. 3.

Top Award Given To Question 7

Assist — (RNS) — Catholics have given their highest film award to "Question Seven," a Lutheran movie.

The 1961 Grand Prix of the International Catholic Film Office went to the Lutheran movie after competition here in which an international jury of Catholic film reviewers spent a week evaluating feature motion pictures.

To be eligible for competition, films must have won prizes at other Catholic festivals or been nominated by national Catholic film offices.

"Question Seven," which was produced in Germany by Louis de Rochemont Associates for Lutheran Film Associates, both of New York, had already won several Catholic awards.

It earned the International Catholic Film Office Prize at the Berlin Film Festival, one of the four top awards at the London Catholic Film Festival, a "special accolade" and A-1 rating from the National Legion of Decency in America, and an endorsement from the Catholic Film Guild of Germany.

The movie, which depicts Communist pressures on a Protestant minister and his son in East Germany, was hailed by film critics in New York for its timeliness and dramatic impact in view of the present Berlin crisis.

At the film festival here, the jury was composed of experts from Canada, France, Germany, Belgium, Italy, Egypt, and Luxembourg.

Besides "Question Seven," the other American films considered in the final judging were "St. Francis of Assisi," "Hoodlum Priest," "Sunrise at Campobello," "Raisin in the Sun," "Pollyanna," and "The Sundowners."

St. Stephen's Club Elects D. F. Driscoll

Geneva — Daniel F. Driscoll Jr. is the new president of the St. Stephen's Club for 1961-62. Election was held at the opening fall dinner meeting of the club in Seneca Lake Country Club. Seventy-two members were present.

Other officers for the coming year are William P. Stolz, vice-president; Mrs. Marjorie Scherer, secretary; and Mrs. Mary Jane Atwater, treasurer.

The Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor of St. Stephen's parish, and moderator of the club, congratulated the retiring and new officers and called on the members for their continued support and cooperation in the promotion of the functions and activities of the club.

FATHER NOLAN pointed out that the club has been in operation for the past 26 years and has been successful "socially, spiritually and intellectually."

The club provides opportunity for Catholic couples to meet other couples and is open to all parishioners of St. Stephen's and St. Francis de Sales parishes. The organization now has a mailing list of 435 as of Sept. 30.

Guests at the dinner were Father Nolan, the Rev. Bernard Carges, and the Rev. Edward Golden.

The annual report was read by the secretary, Mrs. Robert Scherger, treasurer's report by Mrs. William Atwater. Mrs. Kay Mulcahy presented the slate for the coming year.

Declares Dividend

The Board of Directors of the Security Trust Company have declared a dividend of 60 cents per share on its capital stock, to be paid out of undivided profits, Nov. 1, 1961, to stockholders of record Oct. 20, 1961.

Remodeled Theatre To Screen Cinerama

Monroe Theatre will reopen its doors on Wednesday, Oct. 25 to a completely renovated building. The premiere showing of "This is Cinerama" will highlight the reopening. Tickets for this performance are on sale at Red Wing Stadium and the Little White House, with proceeds going to the Community Baseball team.

Completely renovated at a cost of $50,000, the Monroe Theatre is the only theatre in the area equipped to show Cinerama. Ultra-modern plush seats and thick carpeting highlight the renovations.

The large curved screen seems to surround the viewer and three projectors are used to fill the screen. A total of 11 speakers surround the patron with sound as well.

Cinerama will have an exclusive showing at the Monroe Theatre since it is the only theatre in the Central-Western New York area equipped for this film.
