

CBA of Syracuse To Open Grid Series Here With McQuaid Eleven

By JESS HEWITT
 McQuaid Jesuit High, on the upgrade after its first win of the season, a 12-0 decision over Livonia last Saturday, will open its home schedule tomorrow afternoon (Saturday, Oct. 21) against what looms as the toughest opponent to be faced all year.

UNDEFEATED AND burly, Christian Brothers Academy of Syracuse will invade the Knights' lair to inaugurate athletic relations between the two schools. Both would like to draw first blood in the series, and CBA will be favored to do just that.

McQuaid, however, will be anything but a docile underdog. With an offense that can put three good runners and a slick passer into the same backfield, the Knights will be out to best the invaders at their own scoring game.

Against Livonia, McQuaid Steve Tisa will be defensive tackle, and Jim Pezzulo, Joe in 40 carries, the trio of Tony Hallett, and either Bruce Zicari or Camardo will handle the key linebacking roles.

DICK SPIES and Dick Burns will be at the twin safeties. The entire defense will be under pressure against a CBA club that does everything well. At least that's the impression of McQuaid's coaches Joe Mancera and Tom Seymour after having watched the Syracuse eleven romp to its fourth victory last week.

But the feeling of McQuaid, where a 1-2-1 record suffers by comparison, is very much on the optimistic side now that the victory column has been achieved.

A large crowd, boosted by a contingent from Syracuse, is expected for the first of the straight home contests at the Elmwood and Clinton fielding Bill Soehner. Furst and Clinton fielding Bill Soehner. Furst and Clinton fielding Bill Soehner.

Little Irish Ready For Hornell Raiders

Hornell High School football team, vastly improved since the start of the season, will invade Aquinas Memorial Stadium tonight (Friday, Oct. 20) intent on upsetting Aquinas Gametime 15-7:30 p.m.

LESS THAN A half dozen boys in the opening kickoff formation for Hornell against Bradford Pa., saw any variety of action last year. Such inexperience cost the Red Raiders a 40-6 opening day defeat.

Since then the picture has changed. The Raiders came back to tie McQuaid 13-13, down Corning Free Academy, 20-7, and blank Batavia High, 30-0. In its first game of the season Aquinas defeated Corning, 14-0, the only mutual foe of the two teams.

Last year, at the first meeting of the two schools, the Little Irish defeated Hornell, 32-19, in a hard fought game at Hornell.

HELMUT REIMANN

The Red Raiders of Coach Lorry Castiglione are a fast, well-drilled club and, after last year's defeat at the hands of Aquinas, they have all the incentive they need to do their best.

Last week Aquinas made it 3-1 by downing Fulton High School, 25-7. The Little Irish unscathed a rambling ground assault that pleased over 8,000 rained-soaked fans.

Getting the jump on almost every scrimmage play, Coach Joe Repko's charges piled up a 11-5 margin in first downs, a 310-168 bulge in yards rushing and a 18-6 edge overhead.

Aquinas' bread-and-butter man, Casartelli, was the key to success as the Bill Abel-quarterbacked Little Irish concentrated its attack on a rugged running game.

Casartelli, 170 pounds of grit and speed, turned in the "hat trick" as the Irish ground out an impressive triumph at Aquinas Memorial Stadium.

Third Order

Meeting of Benedictine Oblates will be held Thursday, Oct. 26 at 7:45 p.m. at Our Lady of Victory Church in the basement hall of school. All Oblates urged to bring with them, others interested in becoming Oblates or in hearing Father Damascus Winters, O.S.B., of Mt. St. Vincent Monastery. Refreshments will be served at 8:15 p.m. at Century-Sweet Shop.

JERRY GEARS, a 165-pound, fullback, gave Casartelli a big hand in controlling the ball for the Irish with an assist from Bill Mahan, left halfback, who bulled over the final score of the game.

When Aquinas tangled with Hornell, Aquinas' backfield was in trouble. But conditions of the season, both Coach Castiglione of the Red Raiders and Joe Repko, Aquinas mentor, reported no regulars on the sick list as they sent their squad through final brushwork.

FRANCISCANS Regular monthly meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis will take place on Sunday, Oct. 22 in St. Patrick's Church, 445 Plymouth Ave. N.

FATHER BONAVENTURE Brown, O.F.M., will be present at 2:30 to instruct postulants and novices and to conduct religious services. Refreshments will be served at the Social Hour which follows.

All are welcome to secure books from the library.
