

Latin America
Talks Slated
At Nazareth

"U.S. Foreign Policy in Latin America" will be explored at an all-day district conference of International Relations Clubs to be held on Saturday, Oct. 21, at Nazareth.

REPRESENTATIVES from 14 schools in the district are expected to attend the conference which will feature lectures by Clifford E. Carpenter, editor of the Rochester Democrat & Chronicle and Dr. Enrique H. Miyares, former professor of Law at Villanova University in Cuba. Carpenter will speak at 10:30 a.m. and Dr. Miyares at 1:15 p.m. Both lectures are open to the public.

Carpenter is a University of Rochester graduate and has been a Rochester newspaperman for 22 years. He toured the middle East in 1952 and in the spring of 1958 visited South America on a good will tour. He selected South America because of his belief that "we can best show leadership to the rest of the world if we first create better understanding in our own back yard."

AOH Honors
Father Wood

The Ancient Order of Hibernians and its Ladies Auxiliary sponsored a party in honor of their County Chaplain, Rev. George S. Wood in the newly remodeled clubhouse at 48 Alexander St.

THE OCCASION was the appointment of Father Wood as pastor of Our Mother of Sorrows Church.

A large number of members were in attendance. Walter Anderson, New York State Treasurer, and Patrick J. O'Hara, vice president praised Father Wood for his loyalty and devotion to the A.O.H.

Father Wood was presented with a gift from the membership. County president Rose McMahan made the presentation.

A supper was served by the Ladies Auxiliary under the chairmanship of Mrs. David Shannon, assisted by Mrs. Harry Newton, Mrs. Paul Shannon, Mrs. Timothy Clifford, Mrs. Michael Calman, Mrs. Eugene Dinan and Mrs. Michael Perlick.

Music was furnished for entertainment and dancing by Frank Murphy and Thomas B. Carr.

Speaker Discusses Pluralism Today

Count Michael de la Badoyere, author, editor and educator, discussed "Truth and Love: the Problem of our relations with Non-Catholics" on Thursday, Oct. 19 at Nazareth College.

Count de la Badoyere will be guest speaker on the college's Student Hour program at 7:30 p.m. His talk will explore pluralism in modern society.

A NATIVE OF France, Count Badoyere has taught at Beant College in England and the University of Minnesota. He has been assistant editor of the Dublin Review, the English Catholic quarterly, and founded and edited the Catholic Herald. He has authored nearly 20 books, among them the noteworthy history of the Modernist Harey, "Life of Baron von Hugel."
