Aquinas Seeks Fifth Win Against Kingston

By WHIT JOHNSON

Another impressive football rtcord is being established by the Little Irish of Aquinas Institute. With each game providing a formidable foe, Coach Joe Repko's men have posted four wins against one loss, accumulating a total of 133 points to date while dropping 53 points to opponents.

LATEST CONQUEST was at the expense of Hornell High School when the Irish emerged with a wild 39-20 victory over the Red Raiders before 6,358 fans at Aquinas Memorial Stadium last Friday night.

Pete Casartelli, a long-striding halfback, scored two touchdowns for Aquinas after earlier six-pointers had been contributed by quarterback Bill Abel, end Jim Chatterton and fullback Jerry Gears. Jim Mahar crossed the goal line for the final TD on the fourth last play of the game.

Primarily a team that depended on backfield speed and good defense in compiling a 2-1-1 season mark up to Friday night, Hornell found itself chugging laboriously on the ground against Aquinas' sturdy defense.

Late in the first period the Raiders took to the air for the first of 31 passes pitched by quarterback Frank Wyant, which brought the Hornell club back into the game threatening the Little Irish to the final whistle.

Aquinas ground out a 20-7 half-time lead and then had to turn on the steam full blast in the second half to drop Hornell.

COACH REPKO told his post-game well wishers: "Don't tell me it was a great game, tell the boys. They did it all."

The boys didn't quite do it all. Repko was on the sideline encouraging his charges and handing out helpful hints.

Sunday afternoon the Queensmen of West Side Catholic High School of Kingston, Pa., will invade Aquinas Memorial Stadium seeking revenge for a 19-7 defeat at the hands of Aquinas last year.

Set back by a loss to Scranton Tech in the last 30 seconds of play and coming out on the short end of a cliff-hanger in West Pittston, the Kingston squad is determined to get back in the scoring column on Sunday.

The visitors have been a running club so far this season with the attack geared around a junior quarterback, Dick Cronnin, who has gained the eye of several college scouts.

JOHN QUIRIN

Tackle Jim Gerace is the anchor of the Kingston line. An all-city choice last season, he weighs 198 pounds. Guard Bill Sabol, at 190, another veteran, and John Mital, 180, are other line standouts.

Kickoff time is scheduled for 2 p.m.

Rochester Priest's Plea For Brazil Missions

Travelling nearly 10,000 miles through Brazil since Christmastime, the Rev. Thomas Brown, O.M.I., formerly of Rochester, has brought the message of the Oblate Brazilian Seminary to boys throughout "coffeeland."

THE STORY of how Father Brown, son of Mrs. Frank J. Brown and the late Mr. Brown, 315 Lake Front, Rochester, and brother of the Rev. Bernard Brown, also an Oblate missionary but in Saskatchewan, is told in a letter to friends here, this week.

Father's mountain parish of Pocos de Caldas is where he was stationed since arrival in 1957. Taking his jeep and using it as a 'rectory" he has gone through 30 interior towns recruiting boys for his seminary.

He visits homes of the candidates of grammar school age and in the evening provides entertainment for the whole town (2000 to 8000 people) with a 1930 vintage Laurel and Hardy movie with a few Kodak color slides of the new Lady of Hope Seminary slipped in.

After 10 months of this routine, he cites humorous experiences such as "the boy who wanted to start right out studying to be a Bishop (I accepted him); the reactions of a thousand faces when Laurel gets a bucket of water in his face; or the young fellow who wanted to leave for the seminary immediately so 'I won't lose my vocation'."

Difficulties encountered included. "The time my motor fell out on the road after a support bar broke from the vibration of a month on corduroy roads; or the mother who said she didn't have the courage to let her son leave home; or the sensation of a used Gillette blade with cold water at 6 a.m."

FATHER BROWN, an Aquinas Institute graduate, is appealing to his friends not only for any financial assistance possible but for friends of his mission to say the first three Hail Marys "on your rosary for more vocations here in Coffeeland." He suggests that his work could be a Mission Project for a local club or school.

He may be reached as follows: Rev Thomas Brown, O.M.I., Pocos de Caldas Minas Gerais Brazil. S.A. Sao Sebastiao Via Cruz.

Dance Features Autumn Theme

The Senior Class of Nazareth Academy will hold its harvest dance, "Whispering Leaves," at the Collegiate Club Friday evening from 9 p.m. to midnight.

LEN HAWLEY'S orchestra will play. The dance will feature an autumn theme. Title was suggested by Ann Jones who received a free ticket as prize.

Committee heads are: Judith Young, publicity; Barbara Hall, refreshments; Bonita Baker, tickets and bids; Susan Leimberger, decorations; Ceil Kwiatkowski, checking; and Veronica Herne, special arrangements.

Tickets are $2.75.

Harpur Professor

Owego—More than one hundred members of the Rosary and Altar Society attended the Oct. 18 meeting and heard Prof. Otakar Machotka, of Harpur College, Endicott, talk of the "Perils of Communism."

CYO In The News

The C.Y.O. has inaugurated a new series of swimming lessons for adult men wishing to learn the fundamentals of swimming.

THIS SAME series of swim lessons was offered last year, and more than 30 men took advantage of this opportunity and were able to enjoy swimming activities in the open surf or swimming pools through the past summer season.

This series of lessons is under the supervision of Vincent Natale, veteran C.Y.O. Swim Director. He has set the program times so that only beginning swimmers or non-swimmers will be admitted to this class.

Classes will meet each Thursday evening from 8:30 to 10 p.m., with the exception of Thanksgiving, until Thursday, Dec. 28. Men wishing more information about joining this group should contact the C.Y.O. Program Office, BA 5-2707.

News was released this week at C.Y.O. that on Saturday, Oct. 28, a Swim Meet will be held for elementary school boys who attend the Parochial Elementary Schools East of the Genesee River.

THE FOLLOWING Saturday, Nov. 4, a similar meet will be held for boys attending the Parochial Elementary Schools West of the Genesee River. On Saturday, November 11, swimmers placing first and second in each of the two previous meets will come together for a Championship Swim Meet.

These Swim Meets are designed to give boys in our Parochial Elementary Schools an opportunity to partake in supervised competitive swimming. Boys will compete as individuals and awards will be presented on an individual basis, rather than on team scores.

This will give the boys from the smaller schools the same opportunity to compete as boys in larger schools. School awards will be presented on the basis of total number of points earned by participants representing that school.

Any boy wishing to participate is asked to call the C.Y.O Program Office, BA 5-2707, and register.

Forensic Society To Aid Debate At Fisher College

The Forensic Society of St. John Fisher College will be host at a debating tournament on Nov. 3 and 4.

APPROXIMATELY twenty teams, including those from St. Bonaventure, University of Buffalo, University of Rochester, Syracuse University, Canisius, LeMoyne, Niagara and Siena, will participate in five rounds of debating. Trophies will be presented to the first and second place teams and to the outstanding affirmative and negative speakers.

A mixer will follow the first two rounds on Friday. The remainder of the rounds will be held Saturday, to be followed by the presentation of awards by the president of the Fisher society, James Ehrstein. Moderator of the Fisher group is Rev. Arthur Kirn, C.S.B.

Avoca Scout Receives First Religious Award

Avoca — The "Parvuli Dei (Children of God) Cub Scouting award was presented to Mark Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snyder of Avoca by the Rev. Herbert L. Sturmer in St. Pius Church, Cohocton, Sept. 24.

CLINTON McKEOWN, neighborhood commissioner of the Red Jacket Division of Boy Scouts said after the ceremony that this is the first religious award to be offered in any of the Cohocton churches.

Mark is 11 years old and a sixth grade pupil at Avoca Central School. He belongs to the Steuben Area Council and has been a Boy Scout since June, but won the medal of award while a Cub Scout.

The "Parvuli Dei" is a medal of award for special work done in the religious field outlined for boys in his class. The boy has to reach a satisfactory position in Scouting before he can start the special work required to gain this medal.

Mark spent many hours studying and doing research work after which he had to pass the examination, reviewed by the pastor with consent of the Diocesan Director of all Youth Programs.

New Members In Waterloo

Waterloo — St. Mary's Rosary Altar Society held its monthly meeting on Thursday, Oct. 19, at 8 p.m. with Rosary and Benediction in the church.

THIRTY-FOUR new members were received into theorganizing at the altar, were each pretion. The new members, kneelsented with a rose which had been blessed by the moderator, Rev. Geo. E. Gauthier, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church.

Following this, Father Gauthier, addressing the group, outlined the history of the Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary and cited the duties and privileges of members of the Rosary Society.

The regular business meeting and social hour were held in the school hall. Mrs. Roscoe Bartran, president, presided at the meeting and welcomed the new members. Refreshments were served by Band No. 9 with Mrs. George Krenzer as chairman.

Canisius Win Eyed By McQuaid Eleven

By JESS HEWITT

A McQuaid team that finally found itself in last week's 19-19 tie with favored CBA of Syracuse will be out to even its season's record at 2-2-2 this Saturday against a visiting Canisius of Buffalo eleven.

Tackle Bob Michniewicz and end Al Wagner, who missed the CBA thriller because of injuries, will be back in the Knights' cast but otherwise the picture seems to have jelled.

McQuaid used a grinding running attack to score twice against the Syracuse invaders and pulled a long pass out of the hat for its third TD That figures to be the pattern once more, against a Canisius club whose record is 2-2-1.

HIGHLIGHT of the CBA game, one that was filled with breaks on both sides, was an "illegal" touchdown scored by CBA on a play that coaches and officials at the scene don't recall even having seen pulled off in a high school game. The play was an onside kick with CBA leading, 13-12, in the third quarter. Just as the sharply-angled boot was about to go out of bounds untouched on the McQuaid 43, CBA halfback Bob May grabbed it, picked up blockers as he angled across the field, and shook off 3 McQuaid men to go all the way.

The score was allowed but it developed later that, according to the rule book, the ball could not be advanced by the kicking team and should simply have gone into play with CBA in possession on the 43.

THE PLAY, however, will remain as little better than a "might have been" item, for McQuaid, too, had breaks figured in its s[illegible] side gave the Knights a second crack at the game-tying extra point late in the game. A neat handoff to Ralph Camardo netted the all-important point when CBA'S center piled up a decoying Tony Zollo as Camardo scooted off tackle untouched.

Fumbles entered into the picture, too, giving the Knights possession before their first two scoring marches. CBA did some early capitalizing as well, striking for its first score after a short McQuaid punt.

Coach Joe Mancarella wasn't inclined to second-guess the game, though. He had nothing but praise for the defense, spear-headed by tackle. Bill Soehner and center Tom Fuerst, and an offensive line that came to life with a vengeance. "My guards, Henry Cashette and Joe Pilato, did a fine job, and tackle Ted Fink was especially outstanding. Anytime we needed yardage we ran his hole."

In the backfield, Tom McHugh's play-calling and faking, Zollo's tremendous all-around play, Camardo's and Mike DiGregorio's running — all these were noteworthy in the most exciting game played in five years on the McQuaid gridiron.

A sidelight to the activity on the field was the debut of a new, student-built scoreboard behind the east end zone. The McQuaid Booster Club sparked the project, which cost only $65, but kept an overflow crowd posted on score, yardline, and time in almost-professional style.
