

Campus Dateline

year. Her talk will include information on the Writers Pool, a voluntary group interested in writing who contribute to the magazine.

Sister Marie Catherine, advisor to the Gabriel and secretary to the Empire State Press Association, will speak on "Making the Lead Sparkle" at the Saturday session.

Veronica Herne and Colleen Cleary, Nazareth Academy's representatives to the Rochester Association of the United Nations, will visit the headquarters in New York on Thursday, Nov. 2.

A plane has been chartered by the RAUN for its Junior Council delegates, two from each high school. They will leave early Thursday, reach the United Nations about 9:30 a.m. They will tour the building, have dinner in the delegates dining room and attend a session of the General Assembly or the Security Council.

Take Honors

Two hundred fifty-four students at McQuaid Jesuit High School have received honors for the first marking period.

Sixty-four of that number, including thirty sophomores, were awarded first honors, signifying an average of 90 with no mark below 85. The 190 second honor winners had averages of at least 85 with no mark below 75. In addition, one hundred twenty-three students received honorable mention for achieving averages of at least 80 with no mark below 75.

Leading the senior honors winners was Albert Wagner, 98 Washington Road, Pittsford. The top junior was Jan Yutzky of 56 Danbury Circle So., Brighton. Paul Caccamise of 117 Seventh St. was first in sophomore year, as well as in the entire school, with a 96.5 average. Peter Platt of 123 Milford Road was first in freshman year.

UN Conclave

Two McQuaid students, Aldo Giustiana and David Ripton, were among 40 Rochester high school representatives to attend a United Nations meeting in New York City on Nov. 2. The meeting, a part of United Nations Week, was to familiarize high school students with the functions of the U.N.

The two McQuaid seniors head this year's U.N. committee at McQuaid, which includes Thomas Sear, Patrick Ripton, James Trybalski, Patrick Lancer, and Christopher Rice, under moderator Mr. William Frankhauser, S.J.

Top Debaters

McQuaid debaters for the second consecutive week scored impressive victories in state-wide competition when they took 11 of 12 debates in the annual tournament at Jeffersonville last Saturday.

With 29 schools represented, McQuaid's "A" teams of Thomas Sear-John Valby and Brian Callahan-Wendell Bowerman won 5 of 6 debates to capture the third place trophy behind Xavierian of New York and Brooklyn Prep.

In the "B" division, McQuaid's teams of Thomas Cannon-James Brodman and Gerald Vost-Thomas Maier went undefeated in 6 debates, taking second place behind Canisius

Seton Groups In Action

72ND BRANCH of Seton Workers of St. Mary's Hospital met Nov. 1 at home of Mrs. Thomas Scott, 320 Rockingham St. Plans for participation in annual Seton Sale were formulated. Group will be conducted on a tour of St. Mary's Hospital, Saturday, Nov. 4.

9TH BRANCH members will be entertained by Mrs. Cecyl Schaft, 909 Lake Ave. at home, Wednesday, Nov. 8 at 8:30 p.m. Final plans for Seton Sale will be made and work on cord rosaries for the hospital will be continued.

15TH BRANCH meeting at St. Mary's Hospital, Tuesday, Nov. 7 at 12:30 p.m. Hostesses will be Miss Emma Vayo, Mrs. Leonard Harris and Mrs. Olive Costich.

20TH BRANCH meeting Wednesday evening, Nov. 8 at home of Mrs. Joseph Hudson of Georgian Court Road.

56TH BRANCH meeting Nov. 9 at home of Mrs. Charles Latus, 15 Bradford Road at 8:30 p.m. Work for Seton Sale will be completed.

63RD BRANCH will be entertained at home of Mrs. Eugene Lang, Idlewood Road, Thursday evening, Nov. 9. Final preparation for the Seton Sale will be made.

40TH BRANCH meeting Tuesday, Nov. 7, 8:30 p.m. Mrs. James J. Sullivan, 39 Evendale Road will entertain the group at her home.

7TH BRANCH members will be entertained at a dessert meeting, Monday, Nov. 6 at home of Mrs. William Maxcy of Aberdeen St. Plans for annual Christmas Sale will be completed.

McQuaid's overall 11-1 record was the best compiled by any team in the tournament.

of Buffalo. Cannon received a "Best Speaker" trophy in his division, with West meriting runner-up honors.

Speech Meeting

Sister M. Evelyn will attend the Executive Board Meeting of the New York State Speech Association which will be held in Albany from Nov. 2 to 4.

Sister is chairman of the English, Speech and Dramatics Department of St. Agnes.

Kim Marie West, first-grader at Guardian Angels School, gets a preview of the special children's Wish Well, turkey and baked goods; for children's treat at the St. Agnes High School Fall Festival. THE FESTIVAL will be held at St. Agnes from 7 to 11 on the evenings of Friday, Nov. 10 and Saturday, Nov. 11. For grown-ups there will be turkey and baked goods; for teenagers, stuffed animals, candy bars and cakes. The public is invited both nights.

Waldert Recommended by your Eye Physician for 49 years

Choice of a Fashion Editor...

Scintillating! That's the gay way frames are facing fashion and winning wide acceptance! Goggles are the dual, demure dress! Now the glasses that go to work and play are lively, lovely and gay. See them all at Waldert's three Fashion Centers.

Contact Waldert's for Contact Lenses

WALDERT GUILD OPTICIANS
84 EAST AVE. * 1380 MT. HOPE AVE. IRONDEQUOIT SHOPPING PLAZA

Open Thurs. till 9 P.M.

Three Waldert Stores Also in Essexburgh and Leicester

Mission Day

The annual Mission Days at Our Lady of Mercy High School will be held Friday and Saturday, Nov. 10 and 11, in the school gym.

Proceeds from Friday will go to over 35 mission units the world over while Saturday's returns will be given to the Mercy Motherhouse, according to Sister Mary Judith, mission moderator at Mercy.

Mission Day speaker will be Sister Mary Stanislaus of the Helpers of the Holy Souls order.

The bazaar booths, open from 7-11 p.m. in the evenings and from 3-5 p.m. Friday afternoon, will feature baked goods, dentifrice, stuffed animals, games, toys, jewelry, household articles, surprise packages and religious articles.

The Mission Show, "Brigadoon," a two-act musical, is scheduled for both nights at 7:30 p.m. and for a matinee Sunday at 2 p.m. Syl Novelli's orchestra will accompany the 60-member chorus.

As a prelude to Mission Days Friday, Nov. 3, will be observed as Mission Spiritual Sacrifice Day at Mercy. To beg God's blessing on missionaries and their work, the thousand-girl student body voted to offer up complete silence during the school day. That day students will also contribute some small article toward the Mission Day booths.

Organization of Mission Day activities is headed by senior Nancy Neary, C.S.M.C. president; junior Sue Schlaerth, vice-president; senior Diane Schneider, secretary; soph Mary Walsh, treasurer; and 27 home-room mission captains.

Seniors Mary Bond, Jean Gilman, Cathy Donohoe, Mary Ellen Flak, Laurie Shedd, and Maggie Madden.

Juniors Beth Mertzke, Mary Lou Weider, Betsy Baumer, Peggy Weston, Sue Masters, and Judy Strenzwick.

Sophs Mary Ellen Rodenhause, Donna Cox, Ann Marie Canali, Pat Fuller, Kathy Neary, Sue Turiano, and Kathy Walsh.

Freshmen Paula Klos, Mary McGrath, Joan Gerhardt, Chris Holland, Gail Courneen, Bernadine Dady, Diane Keenan and Vivian Tamburino.

Field Hockey

The undefeated Field Hockey Team of the Academy of the Sacred Heart took off for Albany where they were to play on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 31. Those comprising the team are Judith Reddington, captain, Susan Waalen, Adele and Mary Jo Gregory, Christine Shea, Sheila Mahoney, Linda Shea, Ellen Duffy, Karen Luppa, Mary the Ward and Charlene Bonrad. Substitutes are Joan Edwards, Mary Ann Welch, Joyce Green and Ann Hotchkiss. Mrs. Richard Reddington and Mrs. Frank Pledid will chaperone the group.

The game was to be played Wednesday morning. Following it, a victory dinner was served at the Kenwood School.

A similar visit to a "Sister School" will be made on Friday, Nov. 10th when the girls of the Middle School will play the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Buffalo. Eight mothers of the children will drive the auto-cade.

School Press Meet

Fifteen members of the school publications staffs: newspaper, magazine, and yearbook, at Nazareth Academy will attend the 24th annual convention of the Empire State School Press Association at Syracuse University today and tomorrow, Nov. 3 and 4.

They are: Frances Becker, Helen Bednarz, Theresa Blazys, Marie Castagnaro, Joanne De Pasquale, Claire De Rosa, Judith Edwards, and Janet Elyor.

Also Carol Grzymkowski, Marilyn Eeh, Ann Muldowney, Marcia Rains, Marilyn Sadler, Virginia Schlitzer, and Jo Ann Sokolski.

They will attend lectures and demonstrations that will help them with their high school publications. Professional journalists, teachers of journalism at Syracuse and high school advisors will speak on more than 20 facets of school journalism.

Marcia Rains of the Spectrum staff will speak on "Problems in Publishing a Literary Magazine." Marcia was co-editor of the Spectrum last year and is continuing in that position this year. Her talk will include information on the Writers Pool, a voluntary group interested in writing who contribute to the magazine.

Sister Marie Catherine, advisor to the Gabriel and secretary to the Empire State Press Association, will speak on "Making the Lead Sparkle" at the Saturday session.

Veronica Herne and Colleen Cleary, Nazareth Academy's representatives to the Rochester Association of the United Nations, will visit the headquarters in New York on Thursday, Nov. 2.

A plane has been chartered by the RAUN for its Junior Council delegates, two from each high school. They will leave early Thursday, reach the United Nations about 9:30 a.m. They will tour the building, have dinner in the delegates dining room and attend a session of the General Assembly or the Security Council.

Two hundred fifty-four students at McQuaid Jesuit High School have received honors for the first marking period.

Sixty-four of that number, including thirty sophomores, were awarded first honors, signifying an average of 90 with no mark below 85. The 190 second honor winners had averages of at least 85 with no mark below 75. In addition, one hundred twenty-three students received honorable mention for achieving averages of at least 80 with no mark below 75.

Leading the senior honors winners was Albert Wagner, 98 Washington Road, Pittsford. The top junior was Jan Yutzky of 56 Danbury Circle So., Brighton. Paul Caccamise of 117 Seventh St. was first in sophomore year, as well as in the entire school, with a 96.5 average. Peter Platt of 123 Milford Road was first in freshman year.

Two McQuaid students, Aldo Giustiana and David Ripton, were among 40 Rochester high school representatives to attend a United Nations meeting in New York City on Nov. 2. The meeting, a part of United Nations Week, was to familiarize high school students with the functions of the U.N.

The two McQuaid seniors head this year's U.N. committee at McQuaid, which includes Thomas Sear, Patrick Ripton, James Trybalski, Patrick Lancer, and Christopher Rice, under moderator Mr. William Frankhauser, S.J.

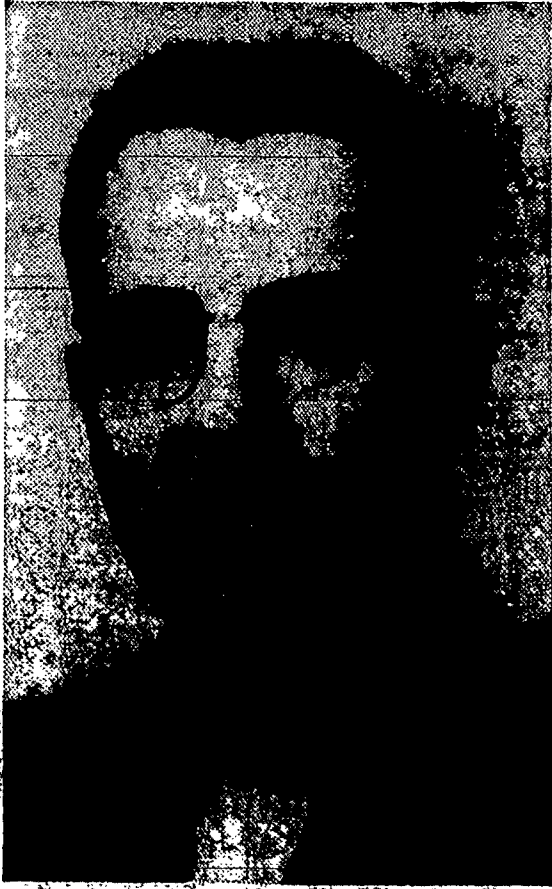

McQuaid debaters for the second consecutive week scored impressive victories in state-wide competition when they took 11 of 12 debates in the annual tournament at Jeffersonville last Saturday.

With 29 schools represented, McQuaid's "A" teams of Thomas Sear-John Valby and Brian Callahan-Wendell Bowerman won 5 of 6 debates to capture the third place trophy behind Xavierian of New York and Brooklyn Prep.

In the "B" division, McQuaid's teams of Thomas Cannon-James Brodman and Gerald Vost-Thomas Maier went undefeated in 6 debates, taking second place behind Canisius

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

For County Judge and Surrogate SENeca COUNTY

VOTE FOR JEROME B. E. WOLFF

5A - Republican

Polls Open at 6 A.M. and Close at 7 P.M.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Samuel C. Pilato and Family

ELECT SAMUEL C. PILATO, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNCILMAN, TOWN OF IRONDEQUOIT

- Residence, 195 Pinegrove Avenue, Irondequoit
- Graduate of Benjamin Franklin High School, University of St. Bonaventura, University of Buffalo, School of Law, 1942.
- Judge Advocate General, 3rd Air Force, 16th Infantry, Germany
- St. Thomas Parish and Holy Name Society, Knights of Columbus, Irondequoit
- Past County Commander Veterans of Foreign Wars
- Active in scores of civic, fraternal, religious and charitable organizations

Vote Republican, Row A all the way, and be assured of Good, Clean and Progressive Government in Irondequoit

Citizens Committee for Samuel C. Pilato
LOOK FOR PILATO, LEVER 10A

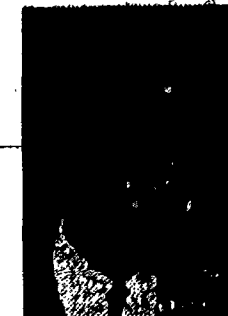

ELECT ALL

3

TO THE SCHOOL BOARD

J. Frank TRAYNOR

President, board of trustees, Rochester Public Library; trustee, N. Y. State Library Trustees Foundation; past president, Rochester Committee on Public Education; Member, N. Y. Citizens Committee for public schools; attorney; past president Monroe County Bar Association; Member of Commissioners Committee on New York State Public Libraries; served in U. S. Navy World War I.

J. Frank TRAYNOR

Elizabeth Q. McCrory

Former teacher, Oneida high school, 1956-59, faculty member, Brockport State Teachers College; participated in first state teaching by television experiment; member, PTA, School No. 24; Sunday school teacher, Third Presbyterian Church; married, two children.

Elizabeth A. McCRORY

John T. NOTHNAGLE

Married, father of eight children; successful businessman; prominent realtor; former chairman, Bishop's Committee for extension of Catholic Scouting; past President, numerous civic, fraternal, religious organizations; Vice President, Real Estate Board of Rochester.

John T. NOTHNAGLE

VOTE FOR

A NON-PARTISAN

RESPONSIBLE

CAPABLE

Board of Education

ELECT THOSE QUALIFIED FOR THE POSITION

VOTE ROW "A" ALL THE WAY