

Grail Official Listed At Annual Breakfast

Miss Therese Martin, director of the Grail International Student Center in New York City, will be the speaker at the Annual Communion and Breakfast of the Catholic Women's Club in the Sheraton Hotel on Sunday morning, Nov. 19 at 11 a.m.

THE PRESENCE OF nearly fifty thousand foreign students in the United States during the past year emphasizes the importance of the work being done under the leadership of Miss Martin at the International Student Center.

Here the foreign student is given help with his problems and whether they be financial, a matter of residence, or social in nature. The work is not restricted to Catholics alone.

The chief purpose of the Grail Movement is the preparation of women as lay apostles. The work with foreign students is one of its most important and far-reaching functions. Miss Martin will discuss the international aspect of the work and the topic, "The Laity and the International Scene."

Mrs. Thomas J. Craig is general chairman of the breakfast. Mrs. Charles G. Bailey is chairman of the Invitation Committee and Mrs. Melbourne J. Porter is in charge of hostesses.

Reservations are now being taken at the Catholic Women's Club.

Agnes Miller Mass Offered By Priest-Son

Auburn — Solemn Requiem Mass offered for Mrs. Agnes K. Miller on Monday, Oct. 30, by her son, the Rev. Robert J. Miller, in St. Alphonsus Church.

WIFE OF E. Harold Miller, 113 1/2 Osborne St., Mrs. Miller died Friday, Oct. 27, 1961.

Besides her husband and Father Miller, Mrs. Miller is survived by another son, Donald, and her mother, Mrs. Mattie Erhart, both of Auburn.

Father Miller, assistant pastor of Good Shepherd Church, Henrietta, was assisted at the Mass by the Rev. Elmer Schmidt, deacon, and the Rev. James O'Connell, Syracuse, sub-deacon.

Other officers of the Mass were Fathers William Brien, Richard Murphy, Robert Kanka, William Cosgrove and Walter Cushing. Present were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James D. Cuffney and thirty other priests of the Diocese.

Services at the grave in St. Joseph's Cemetery were conducted by Father Miller, assisted by the Rev. Francis Waterstraat.

Arrangements by E. A. Heleck and Son Funeral Home.
