

Raymond Weis Named Advertising Manager

Raymond Weis

Raymond P. Weis has been named advertising manager for General Dynamics Telecommunications Division in Rochester, according to a news release. For the last six years he has been assistant advertising manager by Fred Haupt, director of advertising, company exhibits, and participation at trade conventions, public relations. Weis has been with the company, formerly known as Stromberg-Carlson's Telephone Division for nine years, and is widely known in advertising and telecommunication industry circles. He has been active in the Rochester Ad Club, the Advertising Council, and other groups, as chairman of numerous committees and co-author of text materials widely used in advertising courses at the college level. As a hobby Weis has chosen dramatics, with a record of 376 performances in 61 plays with such organizations as the Rochester Community Players and similar little theater groups. He enjoys authoring plays and similar little theater groups. He has been associated with Stromberg-Carlson in 1953, was vice president of Hutchins Advertising Agency in Rochester. He has been active in the Rochester St. Herman's Benevolent Society, and attends Blessed Sacrament Church. Mr. and Mrs. Weis live at 142 Vassar St., Rochester. They have three children: Bernard, a color-dot checker with a Rochester lithographic firm; Eugene, who will be ordained to the priesthood next June; and a daughter, Sister M. Eugene, S.S.J.
