Adams-Dailor Vows Heard

Mrs. Edward Fish was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Janet Bigham and Miss Diane O'Connell. Edward Fish was best man and ushers were James F. Sullivan Jr. and Dennis Hogan.

College Drama Group Ready Giraudoux Play

"The Enchanted," a comedy by Jean Giraudoux, will be presented at St. John Fisher College, Thursday and Friday, Nov. 30-Dec. 1 at 8:30 p.m. by the combined drama societies of Nazareth and St. John Fisher Colleges. But what most marks the dialogue of his plays is the depth of meaning that flashes like lightning through the pastel surface of the characters' light delicate humor and fantasy.

THE PLAY IS "a gentle comedy about the happiness of a town, written and acted for the happiness of its audience." A French village is disturbed by the presence of a ghost which haunts its mark, and the Inspector lays plans to have it shot.

The ghost cannot be legally tolerated; he has no identity card, he does not pay taxes, and furthermore he has no business existing at all. But a young girl has become a companion to the ghost and is falling in love with him. After two comic adventures, she performs their task, then the town has a real ghost on its hands. There follows a fine conflict.

The Town Supervisor tries to make the girl see what wild romances there can be in even a simple life. The ghost would like to take her back to his world so she can show the other dead the freedom and beauty she believes they should have. The playwright's lines are satiric and witty, his character portrayal vivid and striking.
