Catholic Women's Club
Sale To Benefit Blind

The Catholic Women's Club will sponsor the annual Christmas sale for the Association of the Blind on Monroe Ave. near Meigs Street on Wednesday, Nov. 29.

WHILE ARTICLES made by blind in their homes during the year are always on sale at the Association Building, the Christmas season provides an incentive for a special sale and many women's organizations share in sponsoring this worthwhile activity. Many attractive and useful articles are suitable for Christmas gifts and the purchaser not only solves some Christmas shopping problems but also has the satisfaction of taking part in a worthy charity.

Miss Marguerite Colgan is in charge of the sale. Assisting her will be: Mesdames Robert J. Benedict, John H. Burns, Carl E. Costello, Harry B. Crowley, William J. Dempsey, Rhoderick Dunn, William D. Gasser, John L. Keenan Melbourne J. Porter, Philip T. Scharf, Anthony Taddeo, James Taddeo and George B. Wheelahan and the Misses Alma C. Wahl, Helen Louise Whalen and Mary E. Wintish.

Free parking is available adjacent to the building at 438 Monroe Ave. Members and their friends are invited to stop in any time between ten in the morning and four in the afternoon, the hours of the sale.

3rd Platoon
Wins Cadet
School Test

Nazareth Hall Cadets held their annual Fall Inspection and Drill Competition in the school gymnasium on Thursday, Nov. 16.

The Cadets were evaluated in the inspection as to personal neatness, posture and uniform fit.

IN THE DRILL Competition which followed the inspection, the platoons were judged on their military bearing, marching delivery and execution of commands.

The Competition was won by the 3rd platoon and their leader, Cadet 1st Lieut. Chester Ventura accepted a trophy which will be displayed in their classroom until the next competition. Guest Officers included Capt. P. Callahan U.S.N., Major V. Ohanesian U.S.M.C., Lieut. J. Culbert U.S.N., Lieut. J. Lewis U.S.N. and Sgt. Edward Garr U.S.M.C.—Drill Master.

First Saturday Unit
