

S. A. Malone Rites Held At St. Mary's

Funeral Mass for Simon A. Malone, lawyer for about 40 years in Rochester and active layman was offered in St. Mary's Church, Tuesday, Dec. 19. Mr. Malone, 72, of 67 Wilmer St., died Saturday, Dec. 16, 1961 in St. Mary's Hospital after a brief illness.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James C. McAniff, V.G. assisted by the Rev. Francis Hester, deacon and the Rev. Robert MacNamara, subdeacon.

Mr. Malone, a native of Lima, was graduated from Genesee Wesleyan Seminary there, and from Fordham University's Liberal Arts College in 1912. He studied for the bar in law offices in Rochester.

He was a member of the Monroe County Bar Association, the Knights of Columbus, Laymen's Retreat League, the Moose and the Elks. He belonged to the Founders Club of McQuaid Jesuit High School and was for several years a trustee of St. Mary's Church.

He is survived by two sisters, Miss Sara R. and Miss Eleanor M. Malone, both of Rochester. Burial was in St. Rose's Cemetery, Lima where the blessing was given by Monsignor McAniff assisted by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Ball, V.P. and the Rev. L. John Hedges.

PHILIP NEIVERT

Drug Firm Names New President

The board of directors of the Daw Drug Company, Inc. elected the following officers: Mrs. Mary Bernstein, chairman of the board; Philip Neivert, president and general manager of all company operations.

Also elected were: Jack J. Feinglass, executive vice-president and director of administration; Phillip S. Panfil, vice president and director of buying and merchandising; Alan S. Weinberg, secretary, director of warehousing and assistant director of buying and merchandising; and Charles Goodman, treasurer and director of tobacco buying and merchandising.

On being discharged from the Army Air Corps in 1946, Neivert joined Daw Drug as a drug clerk. He graduated from Rochester Business Institute in 1947 with a degree in business administration and accounting.

In the past 15 years, Neivert has worked in most phases of the company operation and before being elected president was secretary and director of store operations and personnel. He and his wife Dolores reside at 70 Edgemore Road with their daughters Adrienne and Linda.

Tytler Murray

Security Trust Elects Two

J. Robert Murray and J. Raymond Tytler have been elected vice presidents of Security Trust Company, according to an announcement by J. Wallace Ely, president.

Murray, who has been assistant vice president, is a trust officer of the bank. Since joining Security in 1935, he has worked in the investment, accounting, audit and trust departments. He is a graduate of Aquinas Institute, Niagara University, and the Trust Development School at New York University.

Tytler, auditor for the bank, heads its audit department, in which he has worked since joining the bank in 1948.

He attended the American Institute of Banking, Rochester Institute of Technology and Rochester Business Institute.
