'Root of Freedom' Theme For Catholic Book Week

Villanova — (NC) — "Roots of Freedom: Faith and Knowledge" will be the theme of the 22nd annual Catholic Book Week, February 18 to 24, it was announced at Catholic Library Association headquarters.

The annual observance seeks to focus attention on "all good books" and to stimulate reading.

In connection with the week, book kits — including posters, annotated book lists for adults, young adults and children, and book marks — are distributed throughout the country.

Richard Will, executive secretary of the Catholic Library Association, estimated that some 300,000 copies of the reading lists of books recommended for Catholics would be distributed.

The observance is cosponsored with the library association by the Catholic Press Association, the National Council of

Third Order

Members of St. Patrick's Fraternity of the Third Order of St. Francis, Rochester, braved the icy highway Saturday evening, Jan. 6, to attend a party given by the Immaculate Heart Fraternity of the Third Order of St. Francis, Geneva. Capuchin Fathers, Brothers, and Seminarians were present.

The affair, signaling the Epiphany and the end of the Christmas season, also brought to a close the Immaculate Heart Fraternity's first year of existence; a year which saw membership in this Geneva Third Order of St. Francis increase from a pioneering dozen to the present totals of 83 novices and professed members, and 12 postulants.

At the December meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis, Immaculate Heart Fraternity, Geneva, seven novices were received. They are Mary Powell, who assumed the name Sister Mary Anthony; Joan Trainor, Sister Elizabeth; James Trainor, Brother Michael; Bernadine Hengst, Sister Theresa; Robert Corwin, Brother John; Edward W. Doane, Brother Andrew; Anne Loveland, Sister Francis Cabrini.

5th Branch Bank Mapped By Columbia

Application for Columbia Banking, Saving and Loan Association's fifth office was authorized at a special meeting of the directors.

If approved by the State Banking Department, this office will be erected in a new shopping plaza between University Avenue and East Avenue near Winton Road. On the University side of the Plaza, Columbia's projected branch will be marked by the familiar time-temperature clock.

In making the expansion announcement, Phillip M. Liebschutz, president, reported appointment of Frederick W. Green as vice president and supervisor of branches.

Verein Mass To Honor Father Staub

Members of the Catholic Central Union, the National Catholic Women's Union, and Youth Union will meet in Holy Redeemer Church to assist at the 11 a.m. o'clock Mass, as a tribute to the memory of Rev. Jacob F. Staub on Sunday, Jan. 21.

SINCE HIS death more than thirty-five years ago, the members meet annually to offer Mass for the repose of his soul. During his lifetime Father Staub was a leader in the organization, and an ardent supporter of its objectives — the promotion of Catholic Social Action.

The Steering Committee of the State Branch of the Catholic Central Union will meet in

Friday Luncheons Aid St. Nicholas Fund

The serving of pyrophys at weekly Friday luncheons at St. Nicholas Church, Elmira Heights as a special feature, started six years ago by Rev. Waldimir Dowhovich and has continued to date at a profit of $30,000.

WITH THE money they have been able to purchase church bells, a kitchen and a donation has been given to the church building fund. A recent gift to the church was a colored iconostas, highlighted in gold, which cost $13,000 and is used to divide the sanctuary and the nave.

A group of 30 women work on this project of making, cooking and serving pyrophys which are pastry shells filled with sweet potatoes, sauerkraut, sweet cabbage or cottage cheese.

Rev. Miroslav J. Myschysyn reports that their next goal will be for a new parish home.

Women Sponsor Shrine Director

Newark — Mrs. Selma De-Rycke, Pilgrim Promoter, 108 Elm St., Newark, has made arrangements for Rev. Jacques Rinfret, OMI, Director of Pilgrims at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Cape, Cap-de-la-Madeleine, Canada to present a film and lecture on the history of the Shrine.

The Rosary Altar Society of Newark, will be host to Father Rinfret, OMI, for the Third Order of St. Francis members and the public is invited to this presentation. The Third Order of St. Francis Geneva chapter, would be pleased if the Third Order members outside the Geneva area could attend.
