Babes In Church?

By MARY TINLEY DALY

Dear Mrs. Daly: days and nights surrounded by childish intrusions.

EVERYTHING there are two Masses, probably the father and mother, thoroughly enjoy all too often, though we did try to keep bothersome baby conduct to a minimum by sitting near an exit and taking along something to keep the baby amused until he or she was old enough to use a small child's missal with pictures of what the priest was doing. A Mass, even a low one, can be a tiring experience for a small child. Perhaps Benediction is a better introduction to church going. It is short, and children love the music, candles, the motion and the incense.

As for what you can do: I remember so well a neighbor of ours, long since gone to heaven, who volunteered now and then to stay with our children, "so you two can attend Mass together." How we loved her kindness and how the children loved her!

Come to think of it, these many years later, maybe our kids bothered her in church! M.T.D.

I have hinted to these neighbors, saying that it must be very hard to get babies up and dressed and fed and then take them out early in the morning. (We live in a small place where there are only two Masses.) However, since there are two Masses, I should think that the parents could take turns baby sitting with the children at home, and let the rest of us pray in peace.

These aren't the only two distractions — a lot of other young parents offend the same way — but I must say these are the worst. One time I was so annoyed I spoke to the priest about it but he's a jolly sort and he just laughed and said something about "Suffer the little children. . ."

That's all well and good but I'll bet our Lord didn't mean that they should disturb a whole congregation.

Did you take your children to church when they were small, Mrs. Daly? If you would write something about it in your column it might do some good, because the mother in question reads your column.

I really like this young couple and their children, believe it or not. The children aren't really bad, but to my way of thinking, THEY DON'T BELONG IN CHURCH.

Please don't use my name or even initials.

Dear Mrs. Name Withheld: Your complaint is not an uncommon one. I'm sure you are not un-Christian at all, just someone who does not like to be disturbed — and that is a state of mind that grows with age.

The saying that "God knew what He was doing when He gave children only to the young" is borne out in your attitude. Certainly the young parents seem adaptable enough to pray in spite of the interruptions, just as they manage their

IRAN: NOT ONE CATHOLIC IN 1,000!

BECAUSE OF PERSECUTION. FROM AZERBAIJAN, IN SOVIET RUSSIA, refuge families are fleeing today—because of the Soviet terror. . . . TEHRAN is only 150 miles from AZERBAIJAN. Hundreds of refugees, both Catholic and Muslim, have fled to TEHRAN in recent months for freedom. . . . ARCHBISHOP JOSEPH SHEKHA, the Catholic Eastern Rite Archbishop of ERNA, writes of about the problem. He writes: "There is no church for these refugees, no building whatsoever where Mass can be offered for them. There is no priest—not even a student—where the children can be taught the catechism." . . . The Archbishop needs a combined chapel-school, functional and inexpensive. Mass will be offered to the refugees in the Eastern Rite with which they are familiar. . . . However, the Archbishop has no money. . . . There are only 16,500 Catholics in all IRAN—or one out of every 1,000 persons. The Archbishop has only five priests—for an archdiocese that covers 400,000 square miles! Money is scarce, the average Catholics too poor to build another chapel-school. With $3,000 the Archbishop can begin to build. The Sisters who will staff the school will teach, in addition to the Catholic refugees, Nestorians (dissenting Christians), and Moslems. The good their teaching will do through the years is incalculable. . . . We ask you, please, to help. . . . Your $10 donation will help our Catholic refugees together—under the care of the Archbishop, the priests and Sisters. . . . Perhaps you'd like to be a "founder" of this school. Your $100 gift will buy more in IRAN than $1 will in the U.S.A. . . . Whatever you send—dollars, quarters, dollars—please send it now. Send it in the name of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. They were refugees, too!

GIVE SISTER A HAND!

For $2,500—what it costs for one classroom in the U.S.A.—we can build a Catholic school in many a mission country. Can you think of a finer memorial for your parents, family, loved one? . . . Sometimes, for tax purposes and their own convenience, donors stretch their payments over a period of time.—Write to us

For 4½ a day ($12.50 a month, $150 a year) you can train a Sister for the missions. SISTER PURISSIMA and SISTER ENERIT are preparing to become SISTERS OF THE DESERT in ALWAYE, INDIA. They need financial assistance, as well as your prayers. Would you like to "adopt" one of them? A Sister's training lasts two years, costs $150 a year, or $300 altogether.—Write to us.

For 3¢ a day ($1 a month) you can—by joining a MISSION CLUB—help regularly in our work of education. MARY'S BANK is the club which supports native Sisters. Our club, THE BASILIANS, supports Catholic mission schools. . . . Why not join both 16¢ a day, with daily prayers?

Dear Monsignor: Please enroll me in MARY'S BANK and/or THE BASILIANS.

Unable to help themselves, they need food, clothing, medicine, a place to sleep. Will you feed a REFUGEE FAMILY for ONE MONTH? It costs only $10. . . . As a token of our thanks, we'll send an Olive Wood Rosary from the Holy Land.

CAN YOU SPARE ONE BLANKET? THE BEDDING (tent-dwellers in South JORDAN) must have blankets, else they'll freeze to death. We can provide them at 88¢ each.
