Aquinas Quint Eyes Franklin

By WHIT JOHNSON

Aquinas Institute's Little Irish, wielding a shillelagh forged from greater height and depth and guided by accurate shooting, go after Franklin High of the city interscholastic league tomorrow evening, Saturday, Jan. 27, at R.I.T.'s Ritter-Clark gymnasium. Game time is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. with the preliminary getting under way at 7 p.m.

THE QUAKER-IRISH clash will be an acid test to determine the mythical No. 1 team in the city.

Franklin, last season's city champions, are trying desperately to better their 3 won, 3 loss record. One Quaker loss was at the hands of Edison Tech, which was drubbed by Aquinas, 70-37, the previous week. Last season Franklin topped Aquinas, 68-35, to avenge a staggering loss to the Irish in the previous year.

ED CALVARUSO
. . . Aquinas starter

The Irish, sporting an eight and three record for the season, have not tasted defeat at home this year. The first Aquinas loss was to league-leading Bishop Timon at Buffalo and the other two in the Christmas tournament at Schnectady.

Coach Ron Mack is not writing off the Quaker game as an easy win, however. His boys have had a two week layoff for mid-year examinations and are not expected to equal their superb performance against Hornell last Jan. 13. In that game Aquinas shot a torrid 60% to rack up an impressive 82-44 victory in Hornell.

MACK AGAIN will be banking on Gary Page and Jim Chatterton to fire up an offense that is almost impossible to beat. Chatterton leads his teammates in scoring with 192 points to date. The 6-foot-3 forward has accounted for 96 rebounds. Page, lightest man on the team, hit the target for 175 points.

In the preliminary game, Aquinas' jayvees play host to the Franklin jayvees. The junior Irish, with a 6-2 record, will count on 6-foot-3 Tom Pestorius to lead the offensive attack. He has accounted for 109 points thus far this season.

Tickets are available from members of the Aquinas Varsity Club or at the gate the night of the game.

Geneva — A Sports Day will be conducted by St. Stephen's Grammar School athletic teams in De Sales High Gym, Sunday, Jan. 28. Intramural basketball games will be played. Junior varsity and varsity teams will meet St. Francis of Auburn fives.

St. Andrew's Bows to Buffalo

St. Andrew's Seminary basketball team lost to Buffalo Preparatory Seminary 65-63 Sunday, Jan. 14. St. Andrew's cagemen Dave Curtin and Jim Gehl kept the Rochester school ahead until the final seconds when Buffalo forged ahead.

In a preliminary game, St. Andrew's junior team defeated Buffalo 36-23.

Fisher Faces Toronto Five

The St. John Fisher College Cardinals will meet a basketball team from St. Michael's College, Toronto, Saturday, Jan. 27, at 8:15 p.m. in the East Rochester Junior High School gymnasium. After the game Fisher students will entertain an anticipated Canadian delegation of 100 at a mixer in the college auditorium.

THE CARDINALS bring a 2-4 record into the game while St. Michael's has won 5 and lost only one game. The Canadian team's 11-member squad is composed of eight Americans and three Canadians. One of the players, freshman John Dwyer, is a Rochester resident and a 1961 graduate of McQuaid High School.

Bob Wanzer is coach of the St. John Fisher team and Bob Orange is the student coach of St. Michael's.

Later in the season the Cardinals will meet St. Michael's again in Toronto.

McQuaid 5 To Face Edison, Madison

By JESS HEWITT

Having put their best performances of the season back to back for runaway wins over Canisius and East last weekend, the basketball Knights of McQuaid Jesuit High will be aiming for another double when they travel to Edison Tech on Friday night and play host to Madison on Saturday.

McQuaid, which will be favored in both games this week, now has an 8-2 record after routing a formidable Canisius High of Buffalo quintet, 58-37, at McQuaid last Friday, and frustrating Rochester's city-league leader East High, 43-26, the following night at East.

THE KNIGHTS used a press-zone defense against Canisius to offset the visitors' height advantage, and their strategy worked almost to perfection. With John Mooney and Frank Zona ballhawking Canisius to distraction and Zona clicking for four early baskets, McQuaid grabbed a 16-6 lead at the quarter and refused to ease the pressure the rest of the way. Zona netted 23 points — a season high for the Knights — and Tony Criscuolo found the range in the second half to finish with 18 as the Buffalonians were handed one of their worst losses in years.

On Saturday night, before an overflow crowd at East, the Knights used much the same tactics against an East team that countered with a zone defense of its own. Zona was forced to sit out almost half the game with four personal fouls, but his replacement — Don Robinson — filled in nicely, and Criscuolo carried the scoring burden with 15 points. Junior Joe Genier added 9 for McQuaid while East's Wally Taggart led the losers with 11. McQuaid led, 20-13, at halftime and broke the game wide open with a 15-point third period.

Offensively, it was a game in which the Knights waited and worked for the good shot, as contrasted with their free-wheeling game against Canisius. Their economy paid off in a 14-for-28 shooting night. On defense, laurels went especially to Gerry Rohrer, the Knights' 6-2 senior forward, whose rebounding and shot-blocking performance has placed him back in a starting role this weekend.

McQuaid's Jayvees also had an all-winning weekend, topping Canisius, 39-34, and East, 44-38, with Pete Menihan and Chris Lindsay featuring on offense. The McQuaid freshman five also got into the act, raising its record to 8-0 with a 74-16 romp over Gates-Chili.
