Eagle Awards Given To St. Stephen's Scouts

Geneva — For the first time in 21 years, Troop 8, St. Stephen's Boy Scouts of America has given the Eagle Scout award. Three boys of Troop 8 attained the rank this year.

They are David and Daniel Marks, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marks of 784 Pre-Emption Rd., and Anthony Visco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Visco of 499 Castle St.

THE BADGES were awarded last week. The meeting was opened by Orlando D'Augustino, institutional representative for the troop. In a short talk he described the work and initiative needed to become an Eagle Scout.

Among the guests at the ceremony were Mayor Donald J. Eades, Dr. Verne Marshall, Finger Lakes Boy Scout Council president, and Ray Smith, council district executive.

Troop 8 was organized March 21, 1925. Its first Eagle Scout was Richard Everitt in 1928. In 1932 Bernard DeVaney received the honor and in 1941 John O'Malley, John Skinner and Alan Guard attained Eagle Scout rank.

Dave Marks joined Troop 8 in June of 1957 and worked his way up to junior assistant scoutmaster. Dan Marks joined in September of 1958. He now holds the rank of senior patrol leader and specializes in the instruction of the Morse code.

Tony Visco also joined the troop in 1958. He has been a patrol leader and is now an assistant senior patrol leader. He instructs younger scouts in various scouting crafts.

All three Eagle Scouts have earned more than the necessary 21 merit badges.

The troop's scoutmaster is Ray Marks and the assistant scoutmaster is Anthony Visco.

New Rochelle Alumnae Enjoy Mission Projects

Recent graduates of the College of New Rochelle are joining in the enthusiasm of older members of the Alumnae Chapter for their mission projects.

At monthly meetings a dozen or two members assemble at one of their homes totting portable sewing machines, old jewelry, greeting cards, religious magazines and articles, old sheets and clothing.

IN SMALL GROUPS, according to their talents, they pack magazines and articles finished at home for shipment to missionaries at home and abroad, cut up old neckties or a beaded bag to be made into rosaries, sew First Communion dresses, make surgical garments such as doctor's caps from the corners of fitted sheets. Perhaps a good piece of jewelry or a hand-knitted sweater is auctioned off for postage expenses.

Members make baby blankets or layettes between meetings.

Next meeting of the group, known as the "Rev. Edward F. Gareache, S.J. Memorial Blue Cross Circle," will be at the home of Mary Wells of Electric Ave. on Tuesday, Feb. 13.

Members of Sports Committee of Aquinas Institute, Thomas More Lecture Forum, publicity chairman of the Carmelite Monastery Fund Campaign, publicity committee St. John Fisher Campaign, Bishop's High School Fund, St. Thomas the Apostle Building Campaign, Chairman Men's Division, C.Y.O.
