Lois M. Walz Rites Held

Funeral Mass for Lois M. Walz was offered in Blessed Sacrament Church by her brother-in-law, Rev. Frederick L. Walz, Saturday, Sept. 8.

Mrs. Walz, 46, of 56 Lansdale St., a teacher of summer classes at Rochester Museum for about five years died unexpectedly at Genesee Hospital, Sept. 5, 1962.

In attendance at the Requiem Mass were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas F. Connors and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George J. Schmitt with the Reverend Fathers Robert McFiggins, John Philipps, Joseph Maloney, Eugene McFarland, Henry Adamski, Frederick Bush and Eugene Weis.

Mrs. Walz was the wife of Albert Walz, manager of Trant's Inc., Catholic supply store.

She was a member of the Rosary and Altar Societies of Blessed Sacrament Church and the Mothers Circle of that Church. Active in the Seneca Zoological Society and the Rochester Museum of Arts and Science, she had taught nature and hand crafts to younger children.

Besides her husband, Albert, she is survived by one son, Michael; her mother, Mrs. Warren Matthews; one brother, Edward Matthews and several nieces.

Blessing at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery was given by Father Walz assisted by Father Philipps. Arrangements by Edward P. Wynne Funeral Home.

were cooks. Dr. David Nangle and Charles Geherin assisted in soliciting funds to finance the retreat.

DURING THE RETREAT, the boys were divided into groups under the supervision of a seminarian from St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester. The seminararians were John Quinn, Jr., Dennis Hoadley, Carlo Stribe, Joe Flanagan, Bruce Gillyoly, David Simon, Charles Latas, Michael Costello, and Raymond Wood.

The program consisted of conferences held at the Queen of Peace Chapel, two morning classes, explanation of the Ad Altare Dei program, movies, slides, and demonstrations, a Living Rosary, and Benediction at the end of the program.

Leadership Day

The Rev. Thomas Hektor, professor of English at St. Andrew's Seminary, spoke to student leaders assembled at St. Agnes High for the school's first Leadership Day, Sunday, Sept. 9. Father Hektor's address, climaxed an afternoon of group meetings and discussions aimed at planning and integrating the year's activities.

Student Council President, Nancy Cahill, called for reports from organization leaders and took up the theme of unity to express the year's goals. Student talks expressed the spiritual, scholastic, and social balance this leadership program hopes to instill in the entire student body.

Field Day

A school-wide get-acquainted program has been launched for the more than 1020 students of Our Lady of Mercy High School culminating in an all-day school picnic, popularly known as Field Day, slated for Friday, Sept. 21.

Initiating "Project Get Acquainted" are the Student Council officers headed by Andrea Volpe, SGA president, and the sophomore officers, led by Martha Keller, sophomore class president.

Sodality Officers

New officers for the Aquinas Institute sodality were announced today by Rev. John Ware, C.S.B., sodality moderator. Lawrence Le Maglie of St. Augustine parish was chosen prefect. He will be assisted by Robert Vigna, vice-prefect; Charles Coyle, secretary; and John McCarthy, treasurer.

Rev. John Sheehan, C.S.B. of the Aquinas faculty is assistant moderator.
