St. Joseph Nuns Conclave Slated

The Sisters of St. Joseph of the Rochester Diocese will hold their Seventh Annual Educational Conference at Nazareth Academy on Lake Ave. Thursday, Oct. 11, at 9 a.m. in the school auditorium.

Introducing the theme, the religious teacher, the Rev. Joseph P. Brennan will open the conference with a talk on "The Scriptural Formation of the Religious Teacher." The Rev. William Shannon, of Nazareth College Faculty will address principals and teachers of the elementary schools on "The Mass in the Life of the Religious Teacher." The Rev. Charles Curran will speak to the high school teachers on "Christian Morality: Not Laws But Love."

REV. MOTHER M. HELENE, general superior of the Sisters of St. Joseph and general chairman of the conference, will emphasize the role of the religious teacher in achieving excellence in education.

Besides general sessions, the conference will include departmental meetings for the high school group and sectional meetings according to grade level for the elementary school teachers.

Among the group speakers is Charles Mills, an author in residence at Nazareth College. Mills and his family have recently come to Rochester after a ten-year residence in Italy. Among his books are "The Choice" and "The Alexandrians." His topic for the conference will be "Modern American Writing."

Also from the Nazareth College faculty is Miss Elizabeth Fake, professor of Business Education, who will speak on "The Image of a Corporation." Miss Fake studied business organization and activities last summer at the Rochester Gas and Electric Company. Her talk will be based on this experience.

Dedication Rites Held In Dryden

Dryden — The recently completed Holy Cross Parish Center, Dryden, was dedicated on Thursday evening, Sept. 27. Monsignor Donald M. Cleary, representing Bishop Kearney, officiated at the dedicatory ceremonies. After the blessing of the building, a Mass of Thanksgiving was offered by the Rev. Thomas K. Cleary, pastor.

Present at the dedication were twenty-three priests, ministers associated with the local churches, parishioners and friends of Holy Cross Parish.

IN HIS ADDRESS to the group, Monsignor Cleary noted the command of Christ, "Going therefore teach ye all nations commanded you..." and pointed out that this new building was vibrant evidence of the Church's policy to fulfill this command.

He concluded, "As the years go by and thousands of boys and girls gather here for religious instruction, as loyal parishioners assemble in discussion groups and events making for parish spirit and unity, who can possibly evaluate the effect on individual souls, on the parish and the community?"

On Saturday morning a second Mass of Thanksgiving was offered at the Center for the children of the parish. To these young people, Father Thomas Cleary pointed out that this building was planned primarily to meet the need of their religious education. He stressed their obligation to use it for the purpose intended.

An Open House at the Parish Center was held on Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. Some two hundred people visited the building. The women of the parish acted as hostesses.

Coldwater Mass at 4 p.m.

An outdoor Mass, intended especially for Invalids and Shut-ins, will be celebrated at the Lourdes Shrine of Holy Ghost Church, 220 Coldwater Rd., Sunday, Oct. 7, at 4 p.m.

Opportunity will be given to receive the Sacraments in the cars.

Rev. Albert Geizer will celebrate of the Mass which, in case of inclement weather, will be celebrated in the church.

Lourdes Water is available at all times at this shrine. Graves in Holy Ghost Cemetery will be blessed after the Mass.

Auxiliary Donations Listed At St. Joseph's Hospital

Work was begun last week by the McLane Construction Co. for the new annex at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira.

At the same time, the Women's Auxiliary presented the hospital with gifts valued at $2,350. The donations were as follows:

Resuscitator and Aspirator—($500.00) — Donated by the Auxiliary and placed in the delivery room of St. Joseph's Hospital. This resuscitator is used primarily when newborn infants fail to respond immediately after birth.

DynaZoom Microscope — ($800.00) — Donated by Auxiliary and placed in the chemical laboratory is a continuously variable magnification up to almost 2,000 times the original size. Image grows right under your eyes. Designed to permit the most complete specimen examination ever hoped for.

In addition to the DynaZoom Microscope, the Auxiliary also donated a Shaker Bath and Tray to the laboratory department. This equipment is used in the Isotope department to keep specimens in constant regulated motion for hours at a time at a desired temperature. This machine is entirely automatic, thereby enabling the technician to perform other important laboratory tests during the automatic incubation period. ($510)

An Electrophoresis Cell was also donated by the Auxiliary and placed in the laboratory department to be used in connection with other equipment in performing blood tests for protein examinations and is very helpful to doctors in their diagnoses of specific types of diseases. ($225)

Nazareth Grads Assigned To Africa Peace Corps

The Nazareth College Alumnae Association recently announced plans for a branch in Nyasaland, Africa, to be opened when member Marie Sauer ('62) reports there for duty with the Peace Corps.

Marie, a history major, was the second June graduate to be "accepted for training and selected for service" by the Corps.

FROM HER HOME in Bloomfield, New Jersey, Marie will report to an American university (still to be designated) on September 26 for a training period that she hopes will include a stay at the Peace Corps training center in Puerto Rico. Upon arrival in Nyasaland Marie expects to teach English and history.

Beth Carey, a '62 graduate of the Mathematics department, is now in Cameroon. She will be in residence with one of the Corpswomen at the Catholic Women's Training College in Small Sappo, a ten minute drive from the capital, Buea.

Her summer was spent in training at Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, in such subjects as the geography, history and customs of the Cameroons, the British educational system, first aid and the manipulation and care of the Jeep.

The Peace Corps' Cameroon group Beth wrote "consists of four married couples, fifteen bachelors and seventeen maids — of which only Beth and two others are math majors. Besides her co-Corpsmen, Beth spoke enthusiastically of Dr. Fairchild, the program director, and Dr. Gebauer, a Baptist missionary who lived thirty years among

Squires Launch Fund Drive

Columbian Squires in this diocese are joining with others throughout the United States and Canada to raise in excess of $10,000 for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith during the month of October.

LOCAL SQUIRE units will sponsor individual fund-raising projects with the proceeds going to national office of The Society For The Propagation of the Faith in New York.

October was designated as "Mission Month" for the Squires by the Columbian Squires Division of the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council in New Haven, Connecticut.

The Columbian Squires is the junior organization of the K. of C. and has for its purpose the development of leadership in the ranks of Catholic boys of high school age.
