

Mooney High Fields Frosh Grid Team

Following an encouraging turnout of 130 candidates, Cardinal Mooney High School will field a big freshman football team. On the roster are such bright prospects as Pat Walsh, a 200 lb. guard, Carl Bates, a 200 lb. tackle, and Jim Muscov, a 6 ft., 160 lb. end. These boys have shown great potential on the front line.

The young Mooneymen show signs of having a successful first season. This first team of the new high school's history is looking forward anxiously to its first game on October 13, at Aquinas Memorial Stadium, when the Cardinals will clash with the Aquinas Frosh at 1:30 p.m.

Other interesting contests on the schedule are with McQuaid at McQuaid on Oct. 25 at 4 p.m., and with Bishop Kearney at Aquinas Memorial Stadium on November 4 at 1:30 p.m. The Bishop Kearney game will close the season for the Cardinals. This game will probably mark the start of an interesting rivalry between the two schools.

The Cardinal Mooney team is coached by Mr. Raymond Shreck who hails from New Haven, Conn. Mr. Shreck attended Notre Dame High School of West Haven, a school conducted by the Brothers of Holy Cross, and is a graduate of Georgetown University. He was awarded his Master of Science degree from Fairfield University.

Mooney's probable starting backfield is Ken Harrington at quarterback, Dan Bojara at fullback, and Mike Callahan and Dave Wegman as halfbacks. Other backs showing promise are Ted Ferrari, Dave L'Plant, Tim Lanpher, and Bill Walker. Defensively, Jerry Brien, Jim Astrella, John Merkle, and Frank Ligocki have shown promise of becoming fierce competitors.

Schenectady High Awaits Aquinas

Aquinas Institute's Little Irish, sparked by the spectacular running and defensive work of fullback Lou Spiotti and halfback Jerry Guerinot, trampled Jamestown, 43-0, last Friday night before 7,459 partisan fans at Aquinas Memorial Stadium.

Three touchdowns by Spiotti followed by single TD's by Guerinot, Kevin Barrett, Helmut Reimann and a safety by Terry DeFord came with stunning precision to break the Raiders' backs.

Spiotti electrified the spectators on the first play from scrimmage by racing 43 yards untouched for the game's first tally.

Reimann converted on five of the six touchdowns.

Aquinas' bruising defensive line thoroughly outclassed the Jamestown forwards. As a result, the Raiders never could get their attack moving. Quarterback Tom Johnson repeatedly was smacked down for big losses by Irish ends.

Tonight the Repekomen face a tough opponent in Linton High School of Schenectady. Making their first of two road trips this season, Aquinas will be looking for its fourth straight victory.

Linton downed New York Military Academy last week 48-0, and the game bids fair to provide the Irish with a real test of strength.

The unbeaten Lintons have had run up a total of 99 points in three games and have allowed only 13.

Newark Knights Plan Banquet

Newark — The Newark Council of the Knights of Columbus will host the radio address of Supreme Knight Luke E. Hart at their Columbus Day banquet to be held Saturday evening, Oct. 13, at the Old World Inn, Newark.

Along with their Supreme Knight, the local Knights will hear Rev. Joseph L. Hogan, Prefect of Studies at St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, according to James E. Earley, Grand Knight of the Newark Council.

Hart, who has been a member of the Supreme Board of Directors of the organization since 1918 and has held the office of Supreme Knight since 1953, initiated many of the society's major projects.
