Aquinas Eyes Win Over Cleveland

By WHIT JOHNSON
 Just when Joe Repko, Aquinas Institute's head football coach, thought his varsity was living up to its potential, along came Linton High of Schenectady to change his mind.

The Lintons surprised the Irish, 20-0, in a hard fought contest.

The chief villain was Pat Riley, a 6-foot-3, 190-pound quarterback. Riley scored two touchdowns, kicked an extra point and, in general, lived up to his reputation as a triple threat man. He pierced the middle on trap plays almost at will.

UNTIL THE lacing by Schenectady, Aquinas had acquitted itself notably. In its opener, it topped Corning, 20-7. Then it romped over Bishop Fallon, 39-7, and crushed Jamestown, 43-0.

Repko and his aides, Basil Marcella and George DeLong, had envisioned at least a close game with Linton. Their players had been improving steadily.

But the Blue Devils, playing at home before a capacity crowd were determined to cause damage. Linton, billed in the sport press as the number one gridiron power in the eastern part of the state, considered themselves the top school in the state by defeating Aquinas.

Linton's coach, former Colgate quarterback Dick Lalla, admitted his boys were up "sky-high" for the game and that they played their best game of the season against Aquinas.

REPKO WAS able to console himself after the game with the realization that, on paper, Aquinas was no pushover. His boys made 7 first downs and picked up 168 yards while the rushing yardage of the winners was 191 yards. Schenectady now owns a string of 18 wins in 20 outings.

While Linton glides to the end of the season with easy ones, Aquinas begins the toughest part of its schedule, including two Pennsylvania teams and powerful St. Joseph's of Cleveland.

Cleveland rolls into Aquinas Memorial Stadium Sunday, Oct. 21, at 2 p.m. sporting a 4-1 record and a team reputed to be every bit as good as last year's.

This marks the fifth appearance of the Vikings and they have not yet tasted defeat from the hands of Aquinas. Last season Aquinas bowed, 25-0, to the ultra-strong, slick, powerhouse opponent.

First in the local scholastic rating and widely hailed for their miserly defense, St. Joseph's stock was considerably bolstered last Saturday with a 36-8 win over a substantial Chanel, Ohio, eleven.

Big gun for the visitors is Dave Herrick, 180-pound half-back, who has 8 touchdowns and a sparkling 450 yards gained to his credit.

JACK SHEA, the quarterback who did so well against Aquinas last year has been shifted to defensive half-back and 2nd quarterback.

In the quarterback slot is Junior Tom Schoon, a 5'11", 165-pound "boy wonder" who has completed over 50% of his passes, has thrown 7 touchdowns and scored 5 TD's rushing so far this season.

Cleveland, loser only to Erie Prep in a squeaker played in the mud, boasts a 217-pound line anchored by 230-pound, 6'1" Steve Troychak and 240-pound, 6'1" Larry Erwin. Erwin, a junior, beat out last season's starter, 225-pound Dick Lutsch, at left tackle.
