Hospital Staff Honors Doctor

DR. PERRY G. VAYO, right, was honored by the medical staff of St. Mary's Hospital for "distinguished service to the hospital and fellow physicians" at the 7th annual Clinic Day banquet on Oct. 18. Making the presentation is Dr. John H. Remington, chief of surgery, as Sister Winifred, administrator, looks on. Dr. Vayo is the fourth recipient of the award. Others were Dr. Benedict J. Duffy, the late Dr. Elmer W. O'Brien and Dr. Harvey A. Waffle. Dr. Vayo has been on the hospital and surgical staffs for 40 years, nine years on the medical board, and was secretary and treasurer of the hospital for four years. Tribute was also paid to Dr. Vayo for being "most helpful to young physicians and for his original contact with Georgetown Medical School resulting in the present affiliation."
