At Our House®

A Joy Forever?

Today came a big C.O.D. package to our house, day before pay day to complicate matters. Could this be the "few beauty aids" we had ordered? Going down the list, every item was correct and there, marching firmly at the bottom was our own signature, that same signature we must grudgingly repeat at the bottom of a check.

It had all seemed so easy at the time, weeks ago, when lovely young Mrs. Phillips sat in our living room with her jars of creams, her order blank, and her suggestions.

"We all have our problems as we get, well, get along," she smiled, tactfully avoiding the word "older."

"Yes," we agreed wholeheartedly, only wishing we had as few of these "problems" as the fresh-faced, suavely groomed Mrs. Phillips.

FIRST OF ALL, it seemed "we" needed a good cleansing cream. (The kind we had been using for years was "all right for a young skin.") Then, a "rich nourishing cream." Granted, falling under the spell of the 25-year-old Mrs. Phillips with her flawless complexion, we subconsciously envisioned a rejuvenated self.

By that time, still in the eye department, Mrs. Phillips worked her way into the "glamor touches that really make a woman alluring," namely eye shadow, mascara and eyebrow pencil.

"This is the exciting part!" Mrs. Phillips' own gray-green eyes sparkled, the mascaraed lashes fanned upward and outward, almost hiding the carefully blended eye shadow. "Now let's see what's just right for you."

Surreptitiously, we glanced at the price list. Whew! "Well," came the confession, "usually I use these just for special occasions, and then borrow my daughter Markie's."

A look of shocked horror crossed Mrs. Phillips' face. It was as though I had confessed to using Markie's toothbrush.

"You're not serious, Mrs. Daly!"

By the time Mrs. Phillips finished explaining the difference between eye makeup for red-haired (and young) Markie, and myself, the second page of the order blank was well on its way. It would have been finished, probably, if Mrs. Phillips had had her way in the hair department: going into realms of "glorious color."

"No color. Not today." We could remain with our Barbara Fritchie head until we tried out the other aids. We even stood out against waveset — to Mrs. Phillips' horror, admitting that we use beer to set our hair.

So, armed with these "few beauty aids" in the big box, and so ultra-expensive, we have learned our lesson, we hope, against getting carried away.

Perhaps we have even learned to PLAN Ahead.

MRS. FRANCIS CUDDY, JR. Cuddy-Jetty Nuptials Said

Auburn — Miss Claudette H. Jetty, daughter of Mrs. Claude Jetty, 101 Locust St., and the late Mr. Jetty, was married Oct. 20 to Francis C. Cuddy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Cuddy, 101 Locust St., in St. Mary's Church. The Rev. Paul Cuddy, uncle of the groom, officiated.

Mrs. Peter Sciortino was matron of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss C. Anne O'Brien, Miss Gloria Prytulak and Mrs. Michael J. Donovan.

Michael J. Donovan was best man and ushers were Bernard A. Leavitt, George E. Davis and James G. Cuddy.

The bride is a graduate of Nazareth College and the groom attended LeMoyne College.

Enrollment Over 600 At John Fisher College

St. John Fisher College enrollment has vaulted over the 600 mark for the first time in the college's eleven-year history and out-of-town students have increased by 20%, according to the latest figures released by the Rev. Joseph Dorsey, C.S.B., dean.

ACCORDING TO Father Dorsey's report, current enrollment is 621, an increase of 36 over last year's final total. The number of out-of-town students listed is 96, compared with last year's 76.

Father Dorsey also noted that this year's freshman class of 192 includes representatives of six states outside New York and

Culture Center Meeting Listed

A meeting to organize the fund drive for the National Cultural Center of Washington, D.C. has been set for Nov. 1 at 8 p.m. at the Manger Hotel.

The meeting will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. June M. Dickinson, and major speaker will be Mrs. Alison Ridley Evans of Boston.

Persons interested in the project and willing to work are invited, according to Mrs. Dickinson, who also pointed out that specific invitations to send delegations are being sent to 27 Chambers of Commerce in the 21 counties for which she is responsible as well as to service clubs, colleges, museum and library governing bodies, music and dramatic societies, and the like.

Dr. Howard Hanson assured Mrs. Dickinson of the wholehearted approval of the National Cultural Center by himself, personally, as well as the Eastman School of Music. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Baker have accepted Mrs. Dickinson's invitation to form a committee to carry out the various essentials of the Nov. 1 meeting.

LEBANON: A ROOF FOR ST. JOSEPH

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH in Joun, Lebanon, would sadden the heart of any good carpenter. It has no roof!... There it stands in a little village in the center of the Lebanon mountains, open to the sky and all the elements. Still ST. JOSEPH'S is a tribute to the great faith and hope of the Maronite Catholics of Joun... There are only 387 of them among Joun's 1921 inhabitants. They decided to build their own Church in honor of another builder, ST. JOSEPH... With many sacrifices they managed to dig the foundation and raise the surrounding walls. Fathers of large families did this with their own money, as little as they have of it... But their children must eat, so the roof has had to wait. $2,000 is the amount needed to finish the Church... They appeal to us for help: In return the parishioners of Joun will pray for you always... You will be remembered in many Masses under that much-needed roof. Will you send something—anything—for Joun today?

THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Our missionary priests in ERITREA and ETHIOPIA—as well as in INDIA, JORDAN, IRAQ, IRAN and EGYPT—will be pleased to offer the Masses you request. November is the month of the Poor Souls in Purgatory. Your offerings support our priests and enable them to help the poor.

WORLD OF CONTRASTS

IN A COUNTRY LIKE OURS, where food is usually so plentiful, it's hard to realize there are thousands of people suffering from hunger. THE PALESTINE REFUGEES, for instance. These are ARABS, some of them Catholics, who lost their homes and farms—sometimes even members of their families—as a result of war 14 years ago. Since 1948 they have lived as political exiles in refugee camps in the HOLY LAND. We can FEED A FAMILY of these PALESTINE REFUGEES for as little as $10 A MONTH. If you can imagine what it means to be hungry—as Our Lord was hungry—you will want, perhaps, to help FEED A FAMILY. As a token of our thanks for your gift of $10 we'll send you an OLIVE WOOD ROSARY from the Holy Land. The Rosary will remind you to pray for our refugees, too.

MARY'S BANK

"We see the Blessed Virgin as a lamp of living light Shining upon those in darkness: She enkindleth an unearthly light To lead all unto divine knowledge."

... Thus goes the beautiful AKATHISTOS HYMN in which Christians of the East praise the Theotokos or "God-bearer" as the Blessed Mother is known to them. Native young women in all our mission lands every year put on the garb of Mary to make her "lamp of living light" shine upon those in darkness. Won't you help one of these dedicate herself to her work "to lead all unto divine knowledge"? The two year novitiate training period costs $300. That's $150 a year. All we ask of the members of MARY'S BANK is $1 a month, and, of course, a daily prayer for this work.

Dear Monsignor Ryan:

Enclosed is $ toward the $300 it takes to train a Sister. I'll pay "my" Sister's expenses □ monthly ($12.50) □ once a year ($150) □ right now ($300).
