Mission Days
"Midtown" is the theme of Mercy High's Mission Days to be held Friday and Saturday, Nov. 2 and 3.

Mercians will be helping twenty-five mission groups in twelve countries, including the Maryknoll Sisters in Pusan, the Benedictine Fathers in Africa and a Trinitarian Brother being educated for the priesthood.

A replica of the Midtown Plaza clock, representing the people and countries being aided, will be suspended in the gym during these days. The gym will also house various booths for the public, such as the stuffed animals, hats, houseware, religious articles, baked goods and the "dream pet" booths.

The bazaar will be open from 2-5 p.m. on Friday and from 7-11 p.m. both evenings.

In addition to the activities in the gym, Mercy is also presenting its annual Mission Play in the auditorium. This year it will be the comedy, "The Knave of Hearts," a fantasy of a king and his search for a queen for his kingdom. Showtime will be 7:30 p.m. both evenings and 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

Preceding the bazaar Friday afternoon, Maryknoll sister, Sister Maria del Rey, will speak to Mercians in the auditorium.

The performance, second since the comedy was first played in the National Catholic Theater Conference Drama Festival at Nazareth Academy last month, is a Good Counsel parish Sodality project to aid Father Edmundo Voleo, missionary in a communist-controlled area of Mexico.

In the cast will be Diane Aceto, Mary Sue Hoffman, Janice Smith, Ellen Zurker, and Pat Cammarata from St. Agnes, with Greg Gargan, Gene Welch, and Jim Gratten playing male roles. Undeclared
McQuaid's senior debate team of Tom Maier and Bryan DeLeo remained undeclared last Saturday by taking all four of their debates as the Jesuit school gained third place in the 18-school Jeffersonville High tournament.

Maier, of 158 Commodore Parkway, Brighton, and DeLeo, who lives down the street at 119, now have won all 10 of their debates on the negative side of the question Resolved: That the United States should promote a common market of Western Hemisphere nations. To cap his performance at Jeffersonville, DeLeo was named best negative speaker for the second straight tournament.

McQuaid's affirmative team in the debate, sophomore Jim Peters and Charles Pinzon, split their four contests, giving the school an overall 6-2 record. Bishop Colton High School of Buffalo won the tournament with a 7-1 mark.

In the "B" Division, McQuaid again showed an undeclared negative team in sophomores Mark Sullivan and Dick Rudy (4-0) and a 2-2 affirmative in Seniors Tom Sable and Jim Brodman. Sullivan was runner-up in the best negative speaker voting.

This Saturday will see the McQuaid contingent moving over to Buffalo for the Inter-State Debate and Oratory Tournament sponsored by Canisius High School.

Youngsters Spurred in Devotion

Father Joseph Bernier of the Blessed Sacrament Fathers of New York City, right, describes to sodality retreatants at the Cenacle Convent a program he inaugurated several years ago for young people to develop devotion to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The monthly Holy Hour program has been observed in Rochester for eleven years and at Sunday evening's devotion in St. Joseph's Church, youngsters filled the church and overflowed the vestibule and out onto Franklin St. Father Bernier visited local Catholic high schools last week to explain the Holy Hour program. From left listening to him are Mary Ellen Rodenhouse, Kathleen Fredmore, Marilyn Draxl, Gail Haefele and Father Michael Volpe, diocesan sodality director.

Mothers of St. Agnes students, as well as Timon Club members, are invited to attend and may wear costumes of the 1890-1930 period if they wish. The tea follows a nationality survey of the student body conducted by the Timon Club in conjunction with United Nations Week, October 21 to 28.

In the same vein, club members will see and hear about Spain today at 2:30 in the school auditorium. Sister Rose Alma, Dean of Residence at Nazareth College, will present a lecture and slides taken during the past summer, when Sister studied at the Escorial and toured Spain.

Career-conscious students of Nazareth Academy, looking to a future in science, nursing, or business, have been planning tours and visiting city council meetings.

Future Scientists of America and other students of chemistry and biology will visit the research laboratories of the Geneva Experimental Station Nov. 1 from 12:30 to 5:30. They will travel by chartered bus. This is one of a series of projects to acquaint students with the career opportunities in the scientific field.

The business law class attended a city council meeting at Town Hall this Tuesday from 8 to 11 p.m. The project was planned to acquaint the students with the working of the council so that they would be aware of the necessity for accepting responsibility in civic matters, to stimulate interest in the coming elections, and to observe the freedom guaranteed in the American way of life.
