

Atom Experts' Role for Peace

Vienna — (NC) — An Austrian cardinal has told the world's atomic energy experts that their conference here can help to overcome obstacles to world peace.

Franciskus Cardinal Koenig, Archbishop of Vienna, addressed delegates to the sixth general conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency at a Mass he offered in St. Stephen's cathedral here.

The Cardinal, speaking in English, mentioned three obstacles to world peace: mistrust among nations, exaggerated nationalism and a lack of charity.

The meeting (Sept. 18 to 28) opened with the election of Dr. Robert P. Baffour, vice chancellor of Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology in Accra, Ghana, a Catholic, as president of the conference.

The Vatican was represented at the conference by its permanent delegates to the IAEA, Father Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., president of Notre Dame University, and Frank M. Folson, former president of the Radio Corporation of America.

Blind Scouts Cancel Out Word Can't

Youngstown — (NC) — Fourteen members of Girl Scout Troop No. 259 plan a trip to a local fire engine house. Only four actually will see the red engines, gleaming chrome and brass. The other 10 girls are blind.

Mrs. Edward C. Sullivan of St. Cyril and Methodius parish organized the troop nearly three years ago. She's the mother of eight children, ranging from 13 years to four months in age. One of her daughters is partially blind.

"The Parents Council of Visually Handicapped Children sponsors the troop," she said. "It's the first blind girls' troop in this area. There are only a dozen such troops in the country. The four sighted members are sisters to blind scouts."

She said when the troop was organized "people told us your girls can't do this or that, but we decided they could." Members of Troop 259 aren't pampered. They stay overnight at Girl Scout camps; hike through local parks; participate in parades; visit industrial plants and other points of interest; make Easter baskets for "less fortunate" children at local hospitals; and participate in Christmas carol singing at homes for the aged.

Forty Hours devotion will open in St. Mary's church, Elmira on Sunday at the 12:15 noon Mass.

Evening services on Sunday and Monday evenings will be held at 7:45. Noon closing will take place on Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. with a Solemn Mass and procession.

An Atonement Father from Montour Falls will conduct the services.

Proclaims Catholic Youth Week

Clerics Named To Be Advisers

Washington — (RNS) — A panel of nationally known experts in the field of housing problems of the aged, including clergymen of three major religious bodies, has been appointed by Dr. Robert C. Weaver, administrator of the U.S. Housing and Home Finance Agency, to serve as a permanent Advisory Committee on Housing for Senior Citizens.

Mr. Weaver will serve as chairman of the committee, with Sidney Spector, assistant administrator of the housing agency in charge of Housing for Senior Citizens, serving as vice-chairman.

Among those appointed to the panel was Msgr. William P. Suedkamp, secretary for Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Detroit, spiritual director of the Christ Child Society of Detroit, and chairman of the board of directors of the Martin Kundig Center for the Aged in Detroit. Msgr. Suedkamp holds a master's degree in social work from the Catholic University of America.

Fight TB In Korea

Paenyang — (NC) — A team of five doctors and 15 medical students from the Catholic Medical College in Seoul is campaigning to eliminate unhygienic practices which are conducive to tuberculosis on this remote island, 21 miles from Inchon and just off communist-held North Korea.

The medical task force, which started operations last year, has made a socio-hygienic survey, whose results have been published in a 123-page booklet.

Over 3,200 of the island's inhabitants were X-rayed last year when it was discovered that more than 16 per cent of them had tuberculosis. This is four times greater than the national average.

Windshield Plea for Priest

Frankfurt — (RNS) — More than 250,000 West German motorists have responded to an appeal to place emergency plaques in their cars identifying them as Roman Catholics and requesting the assistance of a priest in the event of grave injury.

Initiator of the so-called "SOS Action" is Father Johannes Leppich, S.J., leader of the German Street Apostolate Movement.

He has urged all Catholics to place a small plaque in the right lower corner of the rear window which, according to a study here, remains undamaged in 80 per cent of accidents.

Clergy Protect Torture Of Animals in Labs

Washington — (RNS) — A statement which declared in part: "The use of animals in research is a practice of such variety and complexity that one can neither condemn it nor approve it unless some careful distinctions are first laid down."

Signed individually by a number of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal, Roman Catholic, and Methodist Churches, and by religious editors and theologians, the statement was given to the House Subcommittee on Safety and Health headed by Rep. Kenneth A. Roberts (D-Ala.).

The committee was holding hearings on federal legislation designed to impose controls on use of laboratory animals in government-sponsored research.

Islam Union Proposed

Karachi — (NC) — A commonwealth of Muslim nations has been proposed repeatedly by Tunku Abdul Rahman, Prime Minister of Malaya, during his extended visit to Pakistan.

His conception of this commonwealth is "devoid of any political content" he is reported to have said. According to one newspaper, he explained that there are "a lot of problems facing Muslim nations besides political affairs. For instance, Islamic laws needed reform to make them up to date."

In a press conference in Karachi, he talked of his idea of a Muslim commonwealth, which, he said, aimed at nothing more than the getting together of Muslim countries for the purpose of arriving at agreement on religious issues.

Orthodox Bishop At Council

Vatican City — (RNS) — Bishop Cassian, rector of St. Sergius Orthodox Theological Academy in Paris, has arrived here to attend the Second Vatican Council as a Guest of the Secretariat (for Promoting Christian Unity), the Vatican radio reported.

Bishop Cassian is a member of the Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church, which does not recognize the Moscow Patriarchate of the Russian Orthodox Church.

War With Reds Far From Over

New York — (RNS) — America, through preoccupation with a possible thermonuclear war with Russia, may lose the fight against communism in underdeveloped lands, a Jesuit political expert warned here.

This was the gist of an opening address by Father George H. Dunne, S.J., assistant to the president of Georgetown University for international affairs, before delegates to the 35th annual conference of the Catholic Association for International Peace.

Father Dunne, who has been engaged in training Peace Corps members at the university in Washington, D. C., stressed that there would be no winner in a thermonuclear war with the Soviet Union "for which we feverishly prepare to the tune of 50 billion dollars a year."

Father Dunne went on to note that there is another war, "although not war in a technical or legalistic sense," in which America is actively engaged and which is being fought in Latin America, Africa and large parts of Asia.

This battle against political, social and economic injustices in underdeveloped countries "will very probably determine the fate of the world for hundreds of years to come," the Jesuit asserted.

"It is my contention," he stressed, "that our preoccupation with the war which may never come, unless mankind is doomed to its own destruction, makes us insufficiently sensitive to what is at stake in the other war in which we are already involved."

Asserting that the Communists expect one day to rule the world, Father Dunne questioned the assumption that warfare is the method by which the Communists plan to conquer the world.

Revolution, not war, is the historical weapon for the advancement of world communism, the Jesuit pointed out. Under Communist ideology, he went on, war is traditionally considered as the fatal sick a "BONUS" too!

PLUS

It's a fact... a recent reader survey shows that 175,500 individuals read the Courier each week. This figure includes 136,500 readers over 18 years of age and 39,000 readers under 18. The plus comes from the Courier readers who pass on their copy of the Courier to others (32% pass on gives a bonus of at least 12,500 weekly Courier readers.) Incidentally the 136,500 readers comprise 17% of the total population of the 12 county area.
