Bishop Launches Drive

Bishop James E. Kearney terminated 25 years as Chief Shepherd of the Rochester Diocese last Saturday night, Nov. 10, in typical fashion—he was principal speaker at a fund drive committee dinner launching the newly-established St. John of Rochester parish.

More than 150 men attended the dinner, held in the Valley

Echo Inn, Browncroft Boulevard.

BISHOP KEARNEY described the gathering as "representing the story of 25 years' of efforts to spread the kingdom of God."

"It is particularly inspiring," he said, "that you will build a House for God which will honor the great Saint John Fisher, whose name will be eternally associated with Rochester." The 14th century saint was the martyred Bishop of Rochester, England.

"You are real pioneers," His Excellency told the men, "and the work you do in lighting another sanctuary lamp will aid in spreading God's grace throughout the community for generations to come."

Committeemen called on Catholics of the new parish on the following day. The Rev. John W. LeVeque, pastor, said results of the campaign were to be announced Nov. 15.

25 Years Ago

(From the files of Catholic Courier Journal, Nov. 18, 1937)

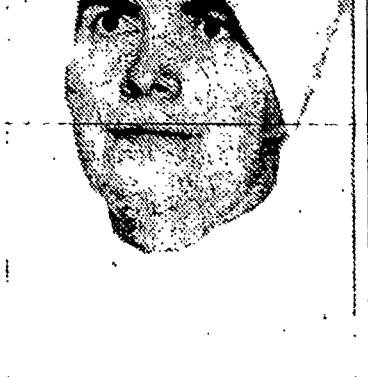

Bishop Kearney presided at the throne for the first time in Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral as Bishop of Rochester. His Excellency asked entrance into the Sanctuary of the hearts of the laity and that whenever they pray to the Divine Lord and the Blessed Lady, they have him in their prayers.

A pledge to take an active part and to interest others in doing the same in parochial life was made in response to an appeal by Bishop Kearney by the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women in convention at Hotel Seneca.

Sister M. Tarcisia, O.S.F., the former Agnes Scheid, sent an appeal from Jamaica for aid following total destruction by fire of the Sisters of St. Francis mission buildings on the island.

The new building will be financed by a self-liquidating loan from the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency. This project is part of a development plan formulated by Nazareth College officials at the time the college moved to its present location in East Avenue. A new library building was completed in 1958 and dormitory space was doubled in February, 1960.
