

CYO In The News

FUN DAY

This Friday, the CYO will hold another of its annual Fun Days. The fun day is open to all elementary school members and their school age guests.

The program will last for 5 hours, starting at 10 a.m. and ending at 3:00 p.m. Games and apparatus in the gymnasium, water games and stunts in the pool, and roller skating in the auditorium, are on the program.

Admission is by ticket only. The tickets can be picked up at the CYO key desk, or by calling in for reservations. The price of the fun day is 70c for CYO members, and 85c for non-members or guests.

All youngsters attending are instructed to bring a lunch from home, shorts and sneakers for the gym, and a swim suit (cap for girls) for the pool. Milk is provided.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Water Safety and Swimming Department of the Catholic Youth Organization announced this week a new fall series of courses designed to enable Girl Scouts to earn their Swimming Merit Badge and Junior Life Saving Badge.

The next session begins on Monday, Dec. 10, for Beginning Swimmers, and for the Junior Life Saving Course; the second is on Friday for Beginning, Intermediate, and Swim Badges. Both classes are from 7:00 to 8:00 in the evening and are scheduled for ten weeks.

Scout leaders are urged to call their reservations in early for their troops in order to receive their preference of time. For further information call the C.Y.O., at BA. 6-2707.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Adler, 6440 Southwest 128th St., Miami, Fla. announced the engagement of their daughter Beth, a senior at Southwest Miami High School to Michael T. Grosodonia, a student at the University of Miami.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Grosodonia of 241 Oak Ridge Drive, Rochester, N. Y. No date has been set.

Auxiliary Head Honored

High School Students Report Activities

Spaghetti Supper

The Senior Class of St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing is sponsoring a Spaghetti Supper on Nov. 28 from 5 to 8 p.m. at St. Peter and Paul's School Hall.

Top Speaker

Aquinas Institute senior Thomas Mitrano, a member of Sacred Heart Cathedral parish, was chosen the most outstanding speaker at the National Forensic League's Student Congress held last week-end at Canisius High School in Buffalo.

Mitrano vied with top speaker James Kehon of Western New York high schools for the coveted trophy.

The Student Congress is moderated by the federal House of Representatives and is run under strict parliamentary procedure. The morning session was devoted to committee work and the drafting of resolutions, bills, and amendments; while the afternoon session was a full meeting of the House to vote upon the measures placed upon the agenda. It was in this session that Mitrano was chosen best orator.

Mitrano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitrano Jr. of 256 Albarmarle St. was also chosen to represent Western New York at the State Student Congress to be held in Albany in the spring.

Another Aquinas senior, James Kehon, won third place speaking honors at the Congress.

Gordon J. DeHond of the Aquinas faculty is moderator of the Aquinas Forensic Society, assisted by Mr. Norman H. Kolb, C.S.B.

Awarded Letters

Four Mercy seniors have been awarded Letters of Commendation for their high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test administered nation-wide last spring. They are Donna Klingler, Ruth Martin, Anne Murray and Judy Wahl.

John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, says, "About 28,700 students throughout the country are being awarded Letters of Commendation in recognition of their excellent performance on the qualifying test, although they did not reach the status of semi-finalists in the
