Cornell Chaplain's Talk Featured At Guild Meet

Ithaca—Our Lady's Guild of Immaculate Conception parish, Ithaca, held its regular monthly meeting on Monday, Nov. 19. Following and Benediction in the church, more than 100 guests gathered at the Women's Community Building for a program featuring the Rev. Richard T. Torrey, Catholic Chaplain at Cornell University. Father Torrey discussed his trip to Lourdes last summer, and showed slides.

DURING THE business meeting, the Rev. John S. Maloney spoke briefly of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. Father Maloney also recommended that Our Lady's Guild designate a Communion Sunday. It was agreed that members of the Guild will receive Holy Communion in a body at the eight o'clock Mass on the first Sunday of each month, beginning Dec. 2. Mothers are asked to bring their daughters with them.

Mrs. Joseph Ganey of the Confraternity Committee of the Guild passed out slips for Christmas toys for needy children. Members are asked to return the slips, attached to suitable gift-wrapped toys, at the December meeting. The Home and School Committee of the Guild submitted a report on the successful open house they had sponsored at Immaculate Conception School on Nov. 14 and 15.

Our Lady's Guild will offer a special Mass on Saturday, Dec. 1, at 5:15 p.m. for the intention of Bishop Kearney, on the occasion of his Silver Jubilee.

Mrs. Harry Banfield was program chairman for the meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Gus Gennetti, Miss Jean Curtis and Miss Margaret McCann.

Slated In Ithaca Parish

Rev. John S. Maloney, administrator of Immaculate Conception Church, will speak at all the Masses on Sunday, Dec. 2nd, on the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, its spiritual formation, its importance in the life of Immaculate Conception parishioners, and its opportunity for genuine Catholic Action.

On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 2nd, there will be a special ceremony in Church at 5:15 p.m. at which those who wish may become enrolled in the Confraternity, either as active or associate members.

ACTIVE MEMBERS are those who work through the six divisions of the Confraternity, either as lay teachers, helpers, home visitors, parent-educators, religious discussion club members, or apostles of good will.

Associate members are those who cannot take an active part in the Confraternity program, but who wish to contribute toward its support either spiritually or financially.

Many parishioners are already enrolled in the Confraternity, carrying out the work it promotes, and receiving the spiritual benefits accompanying enrollment. A list of those already enrolled as members will be available for reference on Sunday for those who wish to consult it for information.

Under the direction of the Parish Executive Board, with Father Maloney as Director and Edward Schano as president of the six Chairmen of the Divisions work closely with the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart in carrying out the program of the Confraternity.

The Sunday Bulletins for the four weeks of November have contained special inserts explaining in detail the six divisions in which parishioners may participate. Anyone wishing further information about enrollment may call Sister Mar-

Notre Dame Highlights

By SHARON CLARK

In last week's column, there was an article about excellence in academic subjects with a comparison between that and sports' honors. In the athletic world, the reward from the school is a letter. But an even more deserving award is a position on the All-City Team. Some players from Notre Dame's football squad have been placed on this team.

First team: Seniors, James Ramlich, James Meehan; sophomore, Michael Malone; second team: Senior Frank Stamilio, junior Michael Johnston.

NOTRE DAME is glad to end this year's football season on such a point. This season proved to be a very winning year. Hopes are high that these victories will be carried over to the basketball spotlight.

Today, the ninth period played host to a Pep Assembly in honor of the basketball season. Varsity and Junior Varsity players were introduced to the school and hopes of a strong school backing are high. The cheerleaders offered some encouragement in the form of cheers. Notre Dame officially opens the basketball season on this Sunday, December 2. The Crusaders will meet the boys from Aquinas in a match at the Notre Dame gym.

The rewards of Mission Day will keep on growing even though it is all over. Mission captains in the honorooms are writing letters to their patrons telling them of the arrival of money earned from the Mission Day effort.

The tryouts for the American Legion Oratoricals were held this past week in the English classes. The names of those finalists will be posted as soon as possible.

Funeral Mass Offered For Sister Marcella, 101

Funeral Mass for Sister Mary Marcella (Fitz Patrick) was offered by the Rev. John D. Dillon in the Sisters of Mercy Motherhouse Chapel, Marcella, 101 years of age, died in the Sisters of Mercy Infirmary, Sunday, Nov. 18, 1962 after 77 years of religious life.

Several generations of Rochesterians will have childhood memories of receiving a freshly baked cookie and an equally warm spiritual exhortation, vibrant with Irish fervor and wit, from Sister Marcella who served God in local convent kitchens for 70 years.

BORN IN County Cork, Ireland, in 1861, Sister Marcella came to the Rochester Sisters of Mercy from Auburn in 1885. She spent 30 years in charge of the bakery at Old Saint Mary's, formerly the Sisters of Mercy Motherhouse. She worked in the convent kitchen at Saint Andrew's for 25 years and at Holy Cross for 7 years.

When assigned to the Motherhouse for her retirement in 1947, she reported daily to the convent kitchen for eight years until she was crippled by a stroke. Bedridden for the past seven years, she has been busy with her prayer life, alert, and interested in everyone and everything until the end.

Sister Marcella's death marks the end of an era in the history of the Sisters of Mercy, since she is the last of the community who entered as a lay sister, in the days when there was a distinction between "choir" and "lay" members. This custom has not existed since 1854.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

The rich are becoming richer, the poor are becoming poorer. While one country has enough money to spend $2,700,000 on an atomic submarine, another country reports an increased sale of candles, indicating the low standards of living of its people. Indeed, if a procession of the poor and hungry of the world began at our front door and traveled the circumference of the earth, they would encircle it not five times but 25 times! Hunger is a greater threat to the peace of the world than the atomic bomb.

The psychological law which seems to be operating is that the world is now divided into two camps: those who lack everything and those who want everything. Among those who lack may be grouped 17 out of 21 of the poorest countries, which contain one-half of the world's population. Yet these poor countries have only nine per cent of the world's total income. On the other hand are the 19 richest countries in the world, with 16 per cent of the world's population and 60 per cent of the world's income!

People who have are never satisfied with what they have — they want! And what they want is a false infinite — not money that will buy things, but money simply because it takes the place of God. There are many in the Western world who want money more than the starving want bread!

From a spiritual point of view, no man ever loses his soul because he is rich, just as no man ever saves his soul because he is poor. In the parable of Luke, we read: "There was a certain rich man once . . . clothed in purple and gold and feasted sumptuously every day. And there was a beggar called Lazarus, who lay at his gate covered with sores, wishing that he could be fed from the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table, but none was ready to give them to him; the very dogs came and licked his sores." The cups of both were filled to the brim — one with almost every good thing, the other with almost every earthly sorrow. The difference was that the poor man lacked that which was earthly, the rich man lacked that which was heavenly! It was in the power of the rich man to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, send the Gospel to other lands, but the did nothing with it.

The great tragedy of becoming rich is that man is apt to make himself the center of existence; then wealth does not mean larger liberality in giving, but increased luxury in personal expenditures. The great value of wealth is that it enables one to create intercessors for his soul, who, like defense attorneys, will plead for him on the day of judgment. We give you a chance to win such intercessors now — $5,600 is needed to build a chapel at Isolo in Kenya. Help build this chapel, and many others like it throughout the Missions, and you will be building up your own case in heaven! Thank you!

GOD LOVE YOU TO M.C. for $1 "I promised God a dollar if we won our homecoming game. We won, so here is my offering to His Missions." . . . to G.S. for $10 "Here are the contents of my mission bank for the poor." . . . to Mr. and Mrs. H.F.K. for $7.56 "We would like to reinvest the enclosed dividend check in the most important business of all—the business of saving souls."
