McQuaid Five Nipped In Opener 39-38

By JESS HEWITT
The thin line between victory and defeat in McQuaid Jesuit High's season-opening 39-38 basketball loss to Spencerport on Thanksgiving Eve wasn't actually thin at all. Not unless they're cutting down on the width of foul lines these days.

That's where the Knights saw themselves outscored, 23-6, as they dropped their first game under coach Ken Jones before an overflow crowd at the McQuaid gym.

SPENCERPORT, with three bus loads of fans shouting encouragement, took full advantage of McQuaid's freshly-minted zone defense to pile up its winning margin. McQuaid, though outscoring the Rangers, 16-8, in field goals, had difficulty defending in close against the visitors' probing offense and paid dearly for it. Spencerport was far from sharp in converting its inside goal attempts, but the pressure exerted on the Knights in the process yielded 34 free throws.

Twenty-three were cashed in, including 7 in the last five minutes, when the Rangers broke away from a 32-all deadlock.

McQuaid, which had trailed ever since Spencerport wiped out John Wolff's opening basket advantage, finally drew even, 32-32, on Dick Upday's foul shot at the 5-minute mark, but that was the last point the Knights scored for over 3 1/2 minutes.

In the interim, Spencerport's Bob Vandermaillie had sunk a pair of fouls to start the Rangers' string of 7, and McQuaid appeared well-beaten, 39-32, with less than 90 seconds remaining.

That's when the Knights staged a rally that all but pulled the game out of the fire. Upday's 2 foul shots and a basket by Dick Spies closed the gap to 39-36 with 30 seconds left, and an interception set Spies up for a layup that made it 39-38 with 15 seconds remaining.

Still another interception and an apparent McQuaid goal with 2 seconds left had the crowd in pandemonium, but a violation ruled out the Merrivell finish, and Spencerport went home with its second 1-point verdict over McQuaid in 3 years.

VANDERMAILLIE'S 11 points took scoring honors in the typically ragged opener. For McQuaid, Upday and Sam Iannone were high, with 7 apiece. And, though his scoring statistics don't merit mention, Spencerport's Lyle Kitt was probably the biggest thorn in McQuaid's side all night.

Kitt was the engineer who moved the ball outside to set up the Rangers' moves against the McQuaid zone. It was mainly he who kept the Knights' defense from turning the tide toward the end.

In the J.V. opener, it was a different story altogether as Jim Van Allen's McQuaid squad, undefeated in 17 games as freshmen last season, picked right up with a 72-16 triumph over Spencerport.

McQUAID'S freshmen will swing into action under coach M. Waters' 219, T. Bernard 211, W. Scheidt 201.

CLAYTON J. OLIVER, 281 Walzford Road, Irondequoit, was welcomed into the club, becoming its thirtieth member. C. Thomas Eagle, sales promotion manager, and Richard Greinke, vice-president of Art-Craft, will be dinner guests.

The Pioneer Club was organized last year. Its officers are Leo R. Glechauf, president; Conrad J. Seitz, first vice-president; Mrs. Marion M. Todd, second vice-president; Miss Loretta M. Royal, secretary-treasurer, and George J. Yost, advisor.

Members of the club receive a $500 check for 25 years service and become eligible for four weeks' vacation with pay annually.

Aquinas Wins; Auburn 5 Next

By WHIT JOHNSON
A jayvee game will precede tonight's encounter in Auburn.

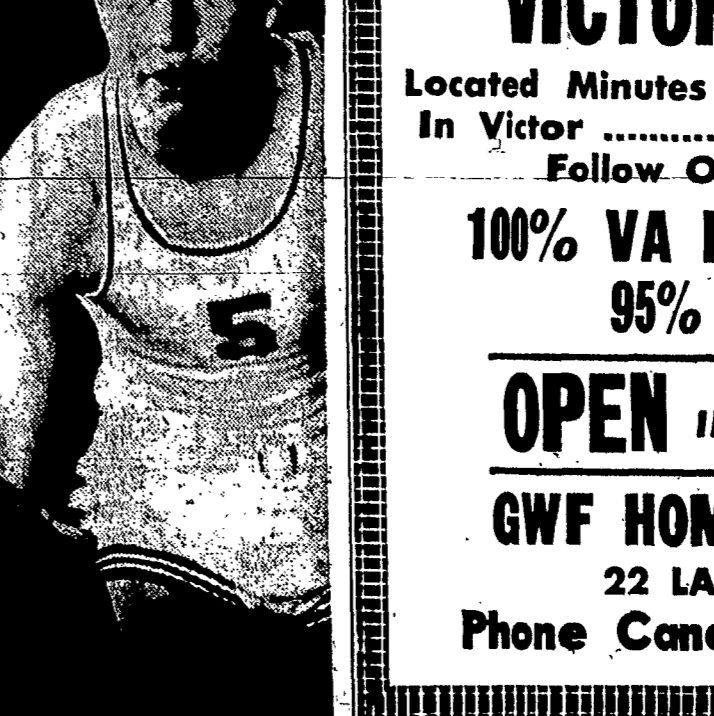

First home game for Coach Ron Mack's charges will be against Bishop Fallon High School of Buffalo on Dec. 11.

Co-captains John McCarthy and Brian Murphy sparked the Irish attack with 12 and 10 points respectively. Bob Schwab, in the role of playmaker, set up the pass patterns and accounted for 8 points.

Both teams started slowly with Penn Yan outscoring Aquinas 10-6 in the first quarter. The Little Irish picked up the scoring tempo with a 18-point second period and fronted at the half 24-15. Murphy was at his best during this 8-minute span with 6 points.

TEN OF the 14-man Aquinas squad broke into the scoring column. Jim Meagher, who has been bothered by a pulled leg muscle from football season, did not dress for the game but is expected to be ready for action this weekend.

In the preliminary game the Aquinas jayvees defeated the Penn Yan jayvees, 67-50. Bob Roney netted 20 points for the Irish to lead all scorers and also led his teammates in rebounds, grabbing 8. This was the initial victory for Coach Leo Aman of the Aquinas faculty who was recently appointed junior varsity coach.

Tonight Aquinas travels to Auburn to meet Mt. Carmel in the first of two games scheduled for the week-end. On Sunday afternoon the Irish will meet Notre Dame High School in Elmira.
