German Stamp Says Thanks

Bonn — (RNS) — The West German government will issue Feb. 9 a commemorative stamp to honor American religious and voluntary agencies for aid to the country's needy and refugees since World War II. The 20 cent stamp will feature a group of American religious and charitable agencies — and CARITAS, and will show a typical gift package being given to a needy widow and child.

MY FAMILY IS ...
BIGGER THAN YOURS!
Yes, young man if your a member of a Courier reader family that's a pretty positive statement that is well backed up. The 1962 Courier readership survey shows that the average size of the Courier reader family is larger than local and the national family averages. 22% of the families have between 8 and 9 members. Big families mean more food more clothing more of every need ... that your mother and dad buy from Courier advertisers. They know it pays in real savings.
