THOMAS NIENTIMP

Jesuit Frosh Topple Mooney

McQuaid Jesuit High's freshman squad pulled away on foul shots in the final minute of play to hand Cardinal Mooney High a 54-44 loss at McQuaid last Friday.

Just as it had done the previous week against Bishop Kearney, McQuaid opened up a sizable lead over the first three periods, then ran into trouble with a full-court press. It was a 36-32 ball game when Mooney began the long climb back and with the shots dropping from long range, it was a 47-44 chiller before the Cards ran out of gas in the last minute.

McQuaid is now 12-2 for the season, while Cardinal Mooney is 5-4.

Honors Won By Students

Honors won by area students in colleges and universities are reported this week, by parents or by the schools.

Thomas I. Nientimp was named by St. Bonaventure University in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." He is active in St. Bonaventure University Rochester Club, the Official Organization and Winter Weekend committee. He played freshman basketball, varsity baseball in sophomore year, varsity golf in which he was team captain in junior and senior years and participated in intramurals for four years.

He is a member of the Student Senate and Delta [illegible] Chi Fraternity and was named to the Dean's List for the [illegible] semester.

A graduate of St. Augustine's School and McQuaid Jesuit High School, he is the son of Mr. Thomas F. Nientimp, 331 [illegible] Blvd., Rochester.

Miss Mary Lois Reidy, daughter of Dr. Felix J. Reidy, 6[illegible] Plymouth Ave., made the Dean's List at Newton (Mass.) College of the Sacred Heart. She is a senior at the college.

James Kennerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kennerson, 4[illegible] Lake Ave., made the Dean's List in Physical Education at Brockport State Teachers College. A graduate of Holy Cross School, he attended Aquinas Institute and Charlotte High School and Indiana University for two years before transferring to Brockport.

Notre Dame Tops Padua

Notre Dame continued its quest for the Diocesan title with a strong first-half performance and a 72-59 win over Padua High School last Saturday in Watkins Glen. It was the Jim Flynn-coached squad's eleventh win in 13 starts. The Irishmen used speed and sound quality on outside shots.

The Crusaders took early command, zipping to a 15-10 lead after the first period. At halftime they had a commanding 38-24 lead.

THE CASCADERS made a strong bid in the last half overcoming a 14-point deficit to bring the score up to a five-point difference within three minutes of the final quarter. Although Notre Dame was [illegible] [illegible]

Padua's Dan Springer carried off scoring honors in a losing cause with 21 points. Teammate Rich Kredrowicz accounted for 15.

Don Linsenelli and Jim Ra[illegible] were Notre Dame's high scorers with 18 and 12 points respectively.

The Crusaders also copped the JV prelim, 46-45.

IN OVID, the following night, Padua suffered its tenth defeat in 15 games, dropping a 57-45 decision to the Ovid Hornets.

It looked like all Padua at the start of the game. Springer, Mangini and Kredrowicz combined to give the Cascaders a 15-9 lead at the end of the first frame. Ovid was persistent and managed to tag behind 28-24 at the half.

Ovid outscored Padua, 11-3 in the third quarter and put the game away in the last stanza as Padua went to pieces. The Hornets intercepted many of the Cascaders' passes and buckets many shots from under the boards.

Dick [illegible] was high scorer for Padua with 19 points. The Hornet's well-balanced attack was led by Don DeGraw with 20 points and Dave Colella who accounted for 17.

McCurdy's Names Northgate Manager

Gilbert G. McCurdy, president of McCurdy & Company, Inc., announced the appointment of a new manager of McCurdy's Northgate store in the Town of Greece, Monday. He is Eugene F. Bilitucci, who has been with McCurdy's since 1953, and for the past year has been Assistant Divisional Merchandising Manager for sporting goods, toys, cameras, luggage, piece goods and art needlework.

Bilitucci

Bilitucci is a native of Canajoharie. Married, he and his wife and four sons live at 47 Westview Ter. They are members of St. Anne's Parish.

Bilitucci replaces Edward J. Miller, who managed McCurdy's Northgate since the opening in October, 1953. Mr. Miller will return to the McCurdy Midtown store as Merchandise Manager of Basic Stock and Unit Control Systems.

Announcing the appointment, McCurdy said: "McCurdy's Northgate was the first branch store in the Rochester area, and we are pleased with its progress since the very beginning. Gene Bilitucci has had a most successful merchandise career within our store, and we are confident his experience and ability will be helpful in continuing our [illegible] to customers in the Northgate area."

250 Youths At Holy Hour

Corning — Two hundred and fifty high school students attended the Catholic Youth Adoration program Sunday evening at St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Richard Hart of Geneva, who was to have spoken at the Holy Hour, was unable to attend, due to the weather and substituting as speaker was the Rev. Daniel Whelehan, assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church.

Georgetown Tournament Calls McQuaid Debaters

McQuaid seniors Thomas Maier and Bryan DeLeo, both of Commodore Parkway in Brighton, will be in Washington, D.C., this weekend to bid for the team championship in Georgetown University's annual high school debate tournament.

IN A FIELD of over fifty schools from as far away as Texas, the McQuaid duo will engage in six rounds on Friday and Saturday, looking to qualify for the final rounds on Sunday.

They will be called upon to debate both sides of the question Resolved: That the United States should promote a common market for the Western Hemisphere. Two months ago, Maier and DeLeo won the St. John's University tournament in a field of 35 schools. They'll have to match that performance and then some to take the honors at Georgetown.

McQuaid will also be represented in Saturday's tournament at Aquinas Institute where it took a second place last year. Four sophomores—Mark Sullivan and Dick Rudy for the affirmative and Charles Pisano and Jim Peters for the negative—will be McQuaid's entry, debating the common market question. Last Saturday, in the Novice League debates at Greece-Olympia High, that foursome compiled a 3-1 record to maintain their first-place position.

In freshman competition at Greece-Olympia, McQuaid frosh finished with a 1-3 mark. Stephen Rooney, James Logar, William Boden and Charles Maier were the Knight representatives.

Mission Aid For Ecuador

Bishop Richard Roesch of Concordia, Argentina, made the statement that for every Catholic priest in South America there are 100 Communist agents.

To counteract this influence the Catholic Kolping Society of America established at the request of Pope John XXIII a Kolping project in Ecuador. Official founding of the Kolping Society of Quito took place Jan. 17, 1963. Anthony Kramer of Buffalo went to Ecuador last fall to direct the project.

Since it is up to the Kolping Societies of North America to finance this undertaking, the Rochester Kolping Family will conduct a card party for the benefit of the Ecuador project on Feb. 22, 8 p.m. in Kreuzdorn's Restaurant, 2 Oakman St. There will be table prizes. Coffee and homemade kuchens will be served by the ladies auxiliary.

Women's Leader

Arlington, Va. — (NC) — Margaret Mealey, executive director of the National Council of Catholic Women, was honored here with the Christian Excellence Medal of Marymount College for exemplifying Christian excellence in private and public life.

Fr. William F. Nolan Receives K.C. Chalice

Bishop Kearney was guest of honor at the Lincoln Day dinner of Rochester General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, Tuesday at which the Rev. William F. Nolan was presented the Memorial Chalice of the Assembly.

The formal dinner was held in the Venus Room, Hotel Sheraton. Vincent L. Tofany was toastmaster.

The Bishop told of the inconsistency of the Supreme Court's decision forbidding prayer in public schools in New York State as compared to other Supreme Court decisions. The prayer, he explained, was composed by representatives of the three religious groups and agreed upon by them.

PRESENTATION of the Chalice to Father Nolan, Catholic Chaplain at U.S. Veterans' Center, Bath was made by Rev. John Sitges, faithful friar of the Assembly. Father Nolan who received the Chalice in the presence of his father, William T. Nolan said he knew many of those whose names were inscribed on it.

A Nazareth Hall Cadet pupil, David Iuppa, son of Dr. and Mrs. Nicholas Iuppa at the invitation of Bishop Kearney recited Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Guests of honor included Raymond L. Nary, master of the Fifth District and his marshall, Richard A. Scanlon. Program was opened by Faithful Navigator T. Kenneth Kavanaugh.

Faithful Captain Victor A. DeSimone was chairman.

2 Retreats For Women Scheduled At Cenacle

Two retreats for women are scheduled at the Cenacle Retreat House, 693 East Avenue, Rochester. The first is a mid-week retreat on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 27 and Thursday, Feb. 28. The second—for engaged and recently married girls, will be held the weekend of March 8-10.

ASH WEDNESDAY retreat will be conducted by the Very Rev. Theophane Murphy, S.A., rector of St. John's Atonement Friary in Montour Falls. This retreat opens Wednesday at 9 a.m. features noon-day Mass and closes Thursday at 3:30 p.m.

The weekend retreat for engaged and recently married women will have Rev. Gerald R. Dunn, Director of Family Life Bureau, for retreat master. This retreat opens Friday evening with dinner at 6 p.m., and closes Sunday afternoon.

Reservations for both retreats may be made at the Cenacle, BRowning 1-8755.

St. Stephen's Groups Plans Lenten Study

Geneva — Initial plans for setting up Lenten study clubs are being made according to Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, pastor. Topic for discussion this year will be "The Mass, Its Meaning and Purpose." Mrs. Eugene Murphy and Mrs. George Mills are cochairmen.

The undertaking — the study clubs will be a combined effort of the parish organizations. Members of the Rosary-Altar Society, the Holy Name Society, St. Stephen's Club and the Mother's Club are being solicited for registrations. However, membership in these societies is not necessary for attendance. Anyone interested in attending these discussion-study clubs is invited.

Meeting will begin on Monday, March 4 and continue every Monday through Friday until Friday, April 12. Sessions will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the St. Stephen's School classrooms.

The complete topic will be divided into five sections. One section will be discussed each week, with the same material covered each night by a different leader. In this way, absence from a particular meeting will be easily made up by merely attending that same discussion on another evening.

Those interested are requested to sign up for a definite night through the various parish organizations or by contacting Georgette Murphy, 789 1114 or Anne Mills 789 3570.

Discussion club leaders will be: Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Helen Fahy and the Messrs. Henry Sadkowski, George Mills, Bill Hadding, Bill McDonald, Fred Toole and Bill Crowley.

Conversion Record

Saigon — (NC) — The diocese of Qui-Nhon, which has just been divided by the creation of the northern section as the new diocese of Da-Nang, has had the largest number of conversions of any Vietnamese diocese.
