McQuaid Tops Jeff, Franklin

A pair of wins, 54-46 over Jefferson and 76-49 over Franklin, put an end to McQuaid Jesuit High's 4-game losing streak last weekend and sent the Knights into the season's closing stages on the upswing.

They'll try to keep in the victory groove at home this Saturday against West of the City Scholastic League.

Next weekend, it will be Edison and East back to back and then Aquinas.

Only in the first quarter of last Friday's Jeff clash did the McQuaid attack really click, though a few minutes of rapid firing in the third period finally proved decisive. The Knights displayed some of their best form this season in whipping out to a 16-12 lead. Gerry McCabe hit for the first six points of the game and then an 8-point burst led by Sam Iannone with the score at 11-7 put the Knights solidly in command.

When Jeff forged back to within 6 points at the midway point, three baskets by Dick Spies and another pair by McCabe helped make it a comfortable 42-30 at the third-period break. And in the final quarter, it was Pete Menihan, filling in well for the absent Tony Leonardo, scoring 6 points to keep the pressure off.

McCabe, with 19 points and a rash of rebounds, led the game statistics, while Bob LaMagro topped Jeff with 15 points.

Terry Dunlavey, who had only 4 points on Friday, came up with 18 against Franklin on Saturday to back up McCabe's 22 as the Knights staged their biggest scoring splurge since December's win over Marshall.

Despite the one-sided final count, it was a close ball game for the first half. Franklin, a fast but wild-shooting outfit, hit early for 14 before McQuaid pulled out to a 10-point spree and a 19-14 lead at the quarter. McCabe and Spies were the big factors in that run, with Spies edging McQuaid ahead to stay on a 3-point play. When Franklin came up to a 25-24 count late in the half, Jan Yuley dropped in a 1-hander and McCabe a jumper to assure the Knights of their 32-30 halftime lead.

Genesee Valley Parochial Loop

Wayland—St. Joseph's School basketball team won their second game of the Genesee Valley Parochial League here last Thursday downing St. Agnes of Avon 33 to 21. St. Joseph's, led by Jim Schubnehll with 15 points and Jim Fahy with 13, overcame a 15 to 13 half time lead by St. Agnes to give Bob White's team the win.

St. Agnes will play host to St. Joseph's at Avon this Saturday, Feb. 16th.

In other GVPL play last week St. Patrick's of Mt. Morris beat St. Rose of Lima 58 to 23. St. Patrick's were drubbed by Blessed Sacrament in Rochester last week 61 to 32.

St. Stephen, Geneva defeated St. Michael, Newark, 53-26. Steve Fitzgerald and Ed Michaels had 14 points each and Mike Roulan, 13 points for St. Stephen's. Pete Doane was high for St. Michael with 10.

Coaches are reminded that all league games must be played prior to March 3 so that second place will be determined. The second places team from Auburn and the Central District will play at St. Mary's, Waterloo on March 3 to determine the team to play in Rochester.

Aquinas Tops Carmel, Bows to Notre Dame

By WHIT JACKSON

Last Friday Aquinas Institute had its biggest basketball victory of the year and then followed it up on Sunday afternoon with its biggest loss of the season.

Entertaining the Carmelites of Auburn in the first game of the week-end, Aquinas registered a convincing 98-37 triumph.

The outcome was never in doubt as the Irish had things their own way and controlled the ball most of the time, grabbing rebounds off both boards continually. Mt. Carmel played without the services of talented Dick Ruschak who played a big part in Carmel's 50-40 victory over Aquinas earlier in the season. Ruschak was sidelined with a troublesome leg.

Aquinas jumped to a 23-7 first period lead and stretched it to 49-12 at halftime. At the start of the final period the Irish held a 69-19 advantage.

John Hurley set the scoring pace for Aquinas with 15 counters, while Brain Murphy and Bill Abel chipped in with 14 apiece. Other scorers in double figures were Tom Pestorius with 13 and John McCarthy with 10. Brian Alger was the leading scorer for Mt. Carmel with 11 points.

FRANK WOSNICK

Aquinas won a 40-39 squeaker over the Carmel jaycees in a preliminary game. Bob Keegan paced the Irish scoring with 14 points.

In Utica the following Sunday City-champion Notre Dame High walloped Aquinas, 71-41, the worst loss in Ron Mack's coaching career.

Five starters in double-figures, a strong effort from the free throw line and a second half offensive collapse by Aquinas enabled Notre Dame to revenge an earlier defeat at the hands of Aquinas.

Notre Dame, which doesn't have to take a backseat to any high school team in the state, got a robust 22 points from powerful Tom Devins and 20 points from Erich Truax, a clever southpaw flinger who bucketed seven jumpers mainly from beyond the foul line.

John McCarthy mustered 12 points in a losing cause.

The luckless Irish also dropped the jaycee encounter, 63-56.

Tonight Aquinas travels to Buffalo to take on Bishop Fallon High School in a return match. The Irish defeated the Bison quint, 57-43, in an early season meet.

CYO In The News

VOLLEYBALL

Genesee Valley moved into first place in the Bank Volleyball League last week at the Catholic Youth Organization auditorium with victories over Lincoln Rochester Trust and State Farms.

Lincoln Rochester, although losing two games to Genesee stayed in second place with a 7 won, 6 loss record. First Federal holds third spot.

Rochester Savings is fourth in the standings with a 5-7 record, while State Farms is in fifth place with a record of 1-4.

LIFESAVING

The Water Safety and Swimming Department of the CYO has scheduled a Junior-Senior Lifesaving Course on Wednesday evenings beginning March 6, 1963, from 6:30 p.m. until 8 p.m. The course will run for ten weeks. Any girls interested may call Elizabeth Osborn at BA 5-2707.

BASKETBALL

CYO Basketball Lancers of the adult division extended their win streak 5 games, with a victory over the Telephone Company of the Industrial League, 94-68.

The scoring for the Lancers (with a 5 won, 1 loss record) was well spread out, with Larry Dey the high individual scorer with 26 points. Dey was backed up with Tom Cotton and Bill Lacuet both getting 16 points.

Krolak was high for the losers with 20 points.

A game was also played last week between the Robert Wegman Alumni and the Lancers, but a problem arose out of the scorers, the timers, and the referees, so the game was ruled no contest, and will be replayed completely at a later date.
