Marriage Talks At Nazareth

The campus unit of the National Federation of Catholic College Students and the Sodality of Our Lady will present a program entitled "Aspects of Marriage" at Nazareth College. It will consist of a series of four informal talks, on March 4, 11, 25 and April 1, from 7 to 9 p.m.

THE PROGRAM is designed primarily to meet the interest of juniors, sophomores and freshmen. Although senior year students study the sacrament of Matrimony in their Sacred Theology course, girls frequently marry before graduation, with the opportunity to receive formal instruction. These talks will also serve as a guide in dating.

Following each presentation, there will be an informal question and answer period. Tentative topics are "God's Plan in Love and Marriage," "The Physiology of Marriage," and "The Psychology of Marriage."

Rev. Kenneth Slattery, C.M. of Niagara University will conduct the exercises.

Timing of the retreat, a triduum preceding the Feast of the Annunciation is said to have special appeal because of the International Federation's singular devotion to Our Lady under the title of Mary, Mother of Mankind.

Those planning to attend are asked to return their reservations to Miss Helen Durnin, 343 Oxford St., Rochester 7, N.Y. on or before Feb. 22, a month in advance of the retreat.
