Notre Dame Senior Wins $5,000 Grant

RICHARD DE BIELE, an 18-year-old senior of Notre Dame, is the recipient of the 1963 Remington Award $5,000 scholarship.

THE WINNER is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. DeBiele and the late Angelo C. Belotti. The award was made on the basis of scholastic achievement and financial need.

DeBiele is top man in his class of 176 seniors. He plans to study engineering at Cornell University.

The scholarship winner is president of the Math club, a regular staff writer and music

During the past year over 120 applications to make parish appeals were received at the Diocesan Mission Office at 50 Chestnut Street, according to Rev. John P. Duffy, diocesan director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith each year on the second last Sunday in October.

In recent weeks the one hundred fifty parishes in the Diocese were notified that one of these twenty-five groups had been assigned to appear generally the appeals are made in the summer months but they can be made as early as April or May, Father Duffy said.

"The mission cause and the urgency of its needs are presented to the people of the Diocese by priests who speak from personal experience and from a zeal that prompted them to dedicate their lives to mission work," Father Duffy stated.

In 1962 the sum of $28,357.75 was collected in the Diocese of Rochester for the causes sharing in the Missionary Cooperation Plan. This represents an increase of approximately $9,000 over the previous year, he reported.

PARTICIPANTS in the 1963 Diocesan Missionary Cooperation Plan are mission dioceses—India, Borneo, Liberia, Ghana, Formosa, the Caroline and Marshall Islands and the United States dioceses of Raleigh, Atlanta, Natchez and Salt Lake City.

Among other activities, he has been a member of the school band and a jazz dance combo, The Tempests; he has been a member of the German and Science Club, the National Honor Society and the Neutral Adoration Society and the Bodilly.

St. Patrick was cited as a hero worthy "of transcendent admiration" by Bishop Kearney speaking to 300 at the Knights of Equity St. Patrick's Day dinner at Hotel Sagamore on the saint's feast.

The huge nine-foot goldleaf cross that rose high above old St. Patrick's Cathedral was to be sent to St. Ann's Church, Hornell.

"Insidiously yet effectively, Communists are seeking to persuade American labor that our present economic system cannot be improved," B. Edward Schlesinger, spokesman, declared in his radio series Inside WHAM!

Tractor For Dampau Project Nears Deadline

A tractor for Dampau is a community project pushing toward an April 1 deadline in the towns of Ontario and Williamson. Goal of the project is to provide Daniel L. Leahy of St. Mary of the Lake parish, Ontario, with a $2500 tractor to clear jungle areas in South Vietnam for the village of Dampau.

YOUNG LEATHY is a member of International Voluntary Services (IVS), a forerunner of President Kennedy's Peace Corps. He is the son of Mr. and

Mr. E. W. Leahy of Williamson. Dampau is a village being cleared of Vietnamese jungles 100 miles northeast of Saigon. Its 4000 citizens are mountain people driven from their homes by Communist Viet Cong forces.

The refugees fled with nothing but their needs with them.

IVS task forces are at work with the refugees helping them to start a new life in the still-free nation of South Vietnam. Greatest need is mechanized farm equipment to clear the land and plant crops before mid-May when the rainy season starts.

Ontario and Williamson area members of Rotary, American Legion, Masons, Eastern Star, Volunteer Firemen, Wayne Central School faculty and students and several church groups have launched a fund drive for $2500, purchase price of a tractor in Southeast Asia.

Contributions may be sent to Clifford Smith, 392 S. Locust Rd., Ontario, treasurer of the project.
