Disc Notes

From Paul Constantine

Coloring books have come back in style with the publication of adult coloring books tributes to everyone from President Kennedy on down. So it is only natural that a record would come out called My Musical Coloring Book. Color runs rampant in the songs titles such as Honky, Green Eyes, Mood Indigo, That Old Black Magic, Deep Purple, Golden Earrings, and Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White. Enoch Light and his orchestra present an impressive performance to some good old tunes. (Command)

Patriotic songs are presented in a most pleasing manner by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and the Philadelphia Orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy on their new release This Is My Country. Included are The Star-Spangled Banner, America, The Battle Hymn, Maple Leaf Forever, O Columbia and Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor. A stirring performance. (Columbia)

The New Christy Minstrels have zoomed to success in recent weeks, partly due to their terrific TV appearances on the Andy Williams Show, and partly due to their two hits, This Land Is Your Land and The Old Rock Candy Mountain. These two big sellers were included in their first album, titled strangely enough, The New Christy Minstrels. Now a second album, The New Christy Minstrels In Person, has been released by Columbia, containing many more Folk songs, some of which will surely follow the pace set by This Land Is Your Land.

A stirring performance is given by Leontyne Price and Richard Tucker in Madama Butterfly on the RCA label. Strong support is given by the RCA Italian Opera and Chorus with Erich Leinsdorf conducting. A warm and compelling performance with excellent utilization of stereo.

An exciting program is presented by Dick Dix and his Dixieland orchestra in The Sound of Magnificent Mississippi. Selections include Rainbow Time in Venice, Never On Sundays. (Audio Fidelity)

Capitol Records has gathered some of Frank Sinatra's best in a new release that is fine listening anytime. A top-notch performance is given to some top-notch words in Frank Sinatra Sings For Only The Lonely. Dancing on the Ceiling, Lover and Little Girl, and A Cottage For Sale are four of the many standout numbers. A perfect "mood" for that dance party you have planned.

Earth's mysteries, the Mars Affair, receives masterful treatment from Lockheed Aeronautics "Three Seasons" (Fantasy Glide) and the New York "Fifties Floats and Scenic Boulevard" number. Outstanding solo vocals by Harold L. Walters; "Sky Above and excellent chorus. Very Tender" a novelty for band by Thomas Fulton in stereo. (Columbia)

Guest conductor will be Dr. David Fuller; pianist, Jo Ann Weiss.

ORCHESTRA program will feature "Ballet Music" from La Gioconda-Ponchielli; "Ruby," Rosenfeld; "Moment Musical," Schubert; and "Serenade," from Mozart, and a flute solo, "Miss Marian Pastoral Fantasy," by Sousa. Mr. Louis Ugino will direct the band.

The Nazareth Dance Band, the Stardusters will perform two numbers: "I Could Have Danced All Night" from "My Fair Lady" by Lerner and Loewe; "From Polka" by Art Dedrick.

The Stardusters, 24 members of the Concert Band have been directed this year by Mary Rita Kennedy, a junior.
