

'How The West Was Won' Set At Monroe Theatre

Boasting the greatest star cast ever assembled for a motion picture, the long-awaited Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer-Cinecra production, "How The West Was Won," has been set for an extended reserved seat engagement at the Monroe Theatre, 365 Monroe Ave., Rochester, starting Thursday, May 16 at 8:15 p.m.

The Monroe County American Legion is sponsoring the opening night with tickets on sale for $2.50 at all Legion posts and at the theatre.

With these stars in the major roles, Producer Bernard Smith aligned some of Hollywood's outstanding talent for the key cast members, including Brigid Bazin, David Brian, Walter Brennan, Andy Devine, Raymond Massey as Abraham Lincoln, a guest appearance by Henry (Harry) Morgan, Thelma Ritter, Mickey Shaughnessy and Russ Tamblyn.

Narrating the historical program that connects each of the five episodes is one of the all-time great stars of motion pictures, Spencer Tracy.

Pat Miller and Ellen Barrett. Concert performances are scheduled for Sunday at 3 p.m. and Monday at 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the box office for $1.

Disc Notes
From Paul Contestable

Guy Lombardo and His Royal Canadians have combined the special Lombardo touch with some fun songs to produce his latest album. Play a Happy Song. The titles alone will probably bring a smile. Includes "Where Did I, Amos Goes to" with "Friday-Saturday Night, Doo-Spiritual Love Its Flavor on the Bedpost Over-night, Lay Something on the Bar Besides Your Elbow, Don't Put a Tax on the Beautiful Girl, the Dummy Song and Sweet Violets. When you play this one you'll have to join in and sing along. Also "I'll Play it Many Times" and "Sweet Land where you live but a scanty 100 performed in 1944 but Decca has connected for a solid hit in re-releasing the original cast recording of 17 folk and folk-inspired numbers. Written by Walter Kerr, then Professor of Dramatics at Catholic University, the musical left year's program and the first new St. John's vocal group, the Barber Shoppers.

Fisher Glee Club Lists Concert

The St. John Fisher Glee Club will hold its ninth annual spring concert Sunday, May 12, at 8:15 p.m. in the college auditorium.

One of the highlights of the concert will be the first performance of a new St. John's vocal group, the Barber Shoppers.

Father Collins Set As Speaker

A Mass for Greater Communion and Breakfast will be held Sunday, May 6 at St. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira under the sponsorship of Immaculate Heart Society.

Breakfast will be served in the parish hall following 8:30 a.m. Mass by men of the Holy Name Society under the direction of Charles Forsgren.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. James P. Collins, chaplain at Elmira Reformatory.

All women and daughters of the parish and their friends are invited to the Mass and breakfast.

Mrs. Leon Cannon and Mrs. Leonard R. Lilley are in charge of the event.

RG&E Chorus To Present Music Review

The RG&E Mixed Chorus and Orchestra will present a "Musical Review" on Wednesday, May 8 at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium of Cardinal Mooney High School.

The musical group is being sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, C. 3822. A donation of $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children is being asked for the performance which is to be held at the Green-Coffey Building.

The complete chorus and orchestra is composed of students who are employed by and perform under the name of the RG&E. This will be the first of its kind in the new auditorium.

The musical organization has presented their talent throughout the United States and made numerous appearances on radio and TV.

Formerly under chairmanship of William Paulson, while tickets are being handled by co-chairman Edward E. Tickets may be obtained from either of the chairman or at the door.

Contact Council is under the direction of Grand Knight Paul Romberg.

Corning KC Leaders Cited

Corning State Warden Paul Tammaro and District Deputy T. V. Hanly, both of Corning, were re-nominated for their respective posts during the Knights of Columbus Mohawk Valley Conference meeting in the K of C Home on Cedar St. Fifteen delegates attended the session, which was conducted by Conference Chairman George Breitbeck of Boonville.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by members of Corning Lodge.

Mr. Breitbeck, president of the Mohawk Valley Conference, escorted the visiting ladies on a tour of local points of interest during the meeting.
