

e
ope

managing in New
ria repre-

a four Eng-
representa-
cited and
ought with
letters on
d peace and
in religious
also leaders
more.

I presented Pope told

a bring the
where, in the spirit of the
in families,
mission."

usage to the impelled by dearly and
of your East
of had come
presence, the support and

work for
from Country had many coun-
is our home-
message con-

pe that words
ever are not
come to ask
to how these united into
in 1910, as
the, we teach
reference for
result in a
the threat of
on for war?"

concluded by sideration by
establishment of
Peace Award
in the change, to in-
and trust—a
to all people
seeking the

one, the want
to visit Generals of the Churches and
organizations,
a stop at Mil-
and Paris to obtain "of the national strike

Many new schools have been dedicated by Bishop Casey during his ten years as Auxiliary to Bishop Kearney.

Cardinal Mooney, Rochester's fourth bishop, visited the city in 1957 to greet Bishop Kearney on his anniversary. His former secretary, Bishop Casey was on hand to welcome the Prince of the Church.

Bishop Casey's Tenth Anniversary

COURIER-JOURNAL
Friday, May 3, 1963

Bishop Casey will mark his tenth anniversary as a bishop in quite the same way as he has spent his ten years in the episcopate — caring for his parish and aiding Bishop Kearney in diocesan activities.

Sunday, May 4, will recall the same day ten years ago when Cardinal Spellman in solemn rites at Sacred Heart Cathedral consecrated the then Monsignor Lawrence B. Casey to be Auxiliary Bishop to Bishop Kearney.

His title as special assistant to the Bishop was not entirely new to Bishop Casey. Even then he had more than twenty years experience as a close collaborator with the spiritual shepherd of thousands of souls in the Rochester Diocese.

BISHOP CASEY was secretary to Bishop John Francis O'Hara, Rochester's fifth bishop from 1928 to 1937, then as secretary to Cardinal Mooney, Rochester's fourth bishop, from 1937 to 1948 when he was named pastor of Holy Cross Church, Rochester.

He was named rector of Sacred Heart Cathedral in 1953 and a year later was chosen for the bishop's rank.

Besides his duties as a parish pastor, Bishop Casey's rank gave him added respectability which have taken form in virtually every parish in the Diocese — to confer the sacrament of Confirmation, to bless a new school, to launch a fund drive, to sponsor social projects of the Laity and numerous other activities.

Those who know him well testify to his strict observance of a schedule he sets for himself from Mass at 8:30 a.m. to his night prayers close to midnight.

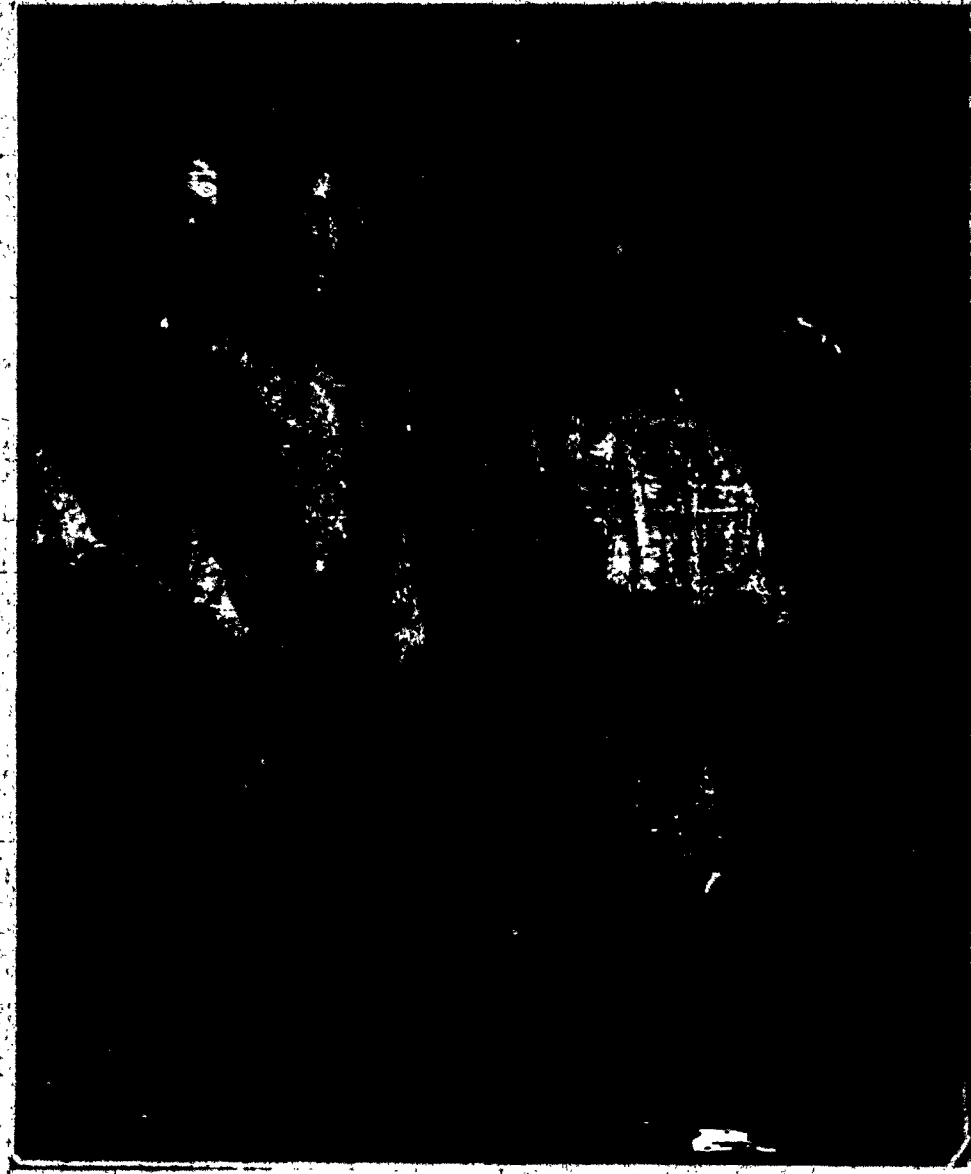

He is noted for his attention to details — asking which curate will lock the Cathedral's doors or personally to proof read a statement to be published in the press.

Certainly a high-point of his ten years in the episcopate was his attendance at the Vatican Council this past autumn. Like all the other 2,500 Catholic bishops in St. Peter's Basilica, he was stirred by the presence of Pope John XXIII. His talks about the Council to many groups reveal a deep per-

Consecration rite on May 5, 1953, brought Cardinal Spellman of New York to Rochester's Sacred Heart Cathedral.

School ceremonies (above) and solemn consecration rite (below) are typical of varied duties of Auxiliary Bishop.

Bishop Casey consecrated Sacred Heart Cathedral in 1953.

A Mending for a young mother.

Sibley's
ROCHESTER

Give Mother elegant knits with true Parisian chic

A lovely soft, peach-bloom blending of 84% rayon and 16% nylon in French knits to coordinate for summer — classically, simply elegant... and hand-washable, too. In-or-out tops; sizes 30-40. Skirt; sizes 10-20. Sibley's Blouse Boutique, Second Floor; Downtown only.

Jewelry neckline blouse with a dainty tea rose motif in white, pink or ice blue, $87 Same blouse (not shown) in solid white, pink, blue, $14 Slim knit skirt in white, black or navy, $28 V-neckline blouse in navy or black (all sizes except 32), $47 Scoop neckline blouse in navy, $44

SIBLEY'S, Rochester 4, N.Y.
Please send me the following French knit coordinates

| Item | Quantity | Size | Color | Price |
|------|----------|------|-------|-------|
|      |          |      |       |       |
|      |          |      |       |       |
|      |          |      |       |       |

NAME _____ Charge
ADDRESS _____ Check
CITY _____ ZONE _____ STATE _____

Please add 5% sales tax if delivered to Monroe County. Refund our free delivery routine, add $10 for handling and insurance for our items; $10 for each additional item.