Mothers List May Meeting

Cornell — The April meeting of the St. Gerard Mothers' Circle was a joint meeting with the St. Ann's Mothers' Circle and was held at the home of Mrs. Louis J. Ferraro Jr.

The St. Ann's Circle members were both guests and hostesses at the meeting. Thirteen members attended.

Mrs. Gilbert B. Maloney, executive secretary of the Cornell Social Service Society, was guest speaker. She discussed several abandoned cases to illustrate the work of Social Service. Problems in various areas such as family relationships, physical and mental health and economic difficulties were outlined, together with the services offered for their relief by the Family Service, which is a member of the Cornell-Excelsior Post United Fund. A question period followed Mrs. Maloney's coverage of the topic.

The monthly agenda was also reviewed. Highlighting this study was a discussion of the Alford Marriage Pre-Cana Conference which have been held in Rochester. The Rev. Daniel Wheeland of St. Mary's Church, moderator of the St. Ann's Mothers' Circle, led this discussion.

It was announced that the next meeting of the St. Gerard Mothers' Circle will be May 8. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Thomas J. Corby and Mrs. John B. Higgins. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Francis J. Marusak, 208 W. Pathway St. The discussion topic will be "Travelogue and Shows of Interest in Our Area." The guest speaker will be announced at a later date.
