Deaf Man Perfects Midget Transistor Hearing Aid
If you can hear people talk and can't make out the words clearly then this will be your answer. An extremely small hearing aid using a tiny midget transistor has been perfected by a man who himself is hard of hearing and has been for over 10 years. With his new aid, even whispers are crystal clear and your closest friends will never know how you hear so perfectly.

He just saved $259.94 financing his new car!
He knew that he could borrow against his savings account at Rochester Savings Bank... any amount from $100 to the total balance. An Insured Personal Savings Loan of $2,000 saved him $259.94 compared to another way of borrowing. And his loan is covered by insurance (up to $4,000) at no cost to him. Best of all, his savings will stay intact, earning the highest bank interest rate in town. (And, as you can see, his wife heartily "endorsed" the entire transaction.)

Irving Berlin's Best Broadway
Irving Berlin's Best Broadway gives a highly commendable performance of Cole Porter songs in Brava Sleep. His warm and impressive voice lends to a fascinating performance of such tunes as I've Got You Under My Skin, Wanderban, Begin the Beguine, I Love You, So I Love, and I Get a Kick Out of You. Pleasant listening. (London)

The impressive baritone voice of Earl Wrightson gets able support from Lois Hunt and Mary Mayo in Columbia's release of Kiss Me Kate. A well-founded cast offers line vocals with excellent orchestration.

Sammy Davis Jr. Belts the Best of Broadway on a new release by Republic. Davis is at his best in an exciting performance of some first-rate tunes. His interpretation of I've Got a Lot of Loving to Do is a classic. By far his best record to date. Davis also adds a special touch to My Romance and Falling in Love With Love.

Modern folk songs receive unusual treatment from composer-lyricist Michael Brown in Atlantic's new recording. Selections include "The John Birch Society," "Lizzy Gordon," and "Lost in the Woods." (Impulse)

Law, The - C (Condemned)
Originally released in a dubbed and edited version entitled "Where the Hot Wind Blows" by MGM for family viewing.

Objection: This film carries a B rating because of "low moral tone; suggestive, costuming and situations." Mr. Levin's decision to reissue the film independently in a sub-titled and "uncut" version necessitates a change in classification to "C" for the reason that in its uncut version the film exhibits a constant emphasis upon grossly suggestive costuming and situations, and contains one sequence which is thinly disguised pornography.

Third Order Lists Movie
Ritaca - Third Order of St. Francis of Immaculate Conception Parish invites all interested persons to enjoy a movie depicting a Third Order and to hear a lecture on Third Order Spirituality by a Franciscan priest.

THE MEETING will be held in the church hall on North Geneva St. on Thursday, May 16, at 7:45 p.m. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.
