Father Genring grew up in Brooklyn where he attended St. John's Preparatory School and later enrolled in St. Joseph's College, the Apostolic College for the Vincentian Fathers in Princeton, N.J.

After college he entered the novitiate and seminary at the Vincentian headquarters in Philadelphis. He was ordained in May, 1930, and spent the next three years traveling through-out the United States in behalf of the China Missions, In 195 he sailed for the Orient and worked there until 1939, and upon his return to the United States he continued to work for the missions." At the outbreak of World War II Father Gehring was one of the first Vincentian Fathers
