Bp. Kearney High Presents First Musicale

The combined glee clubs and band of Bishop Kearney High School presented a Spring Musicale recently in the school auditorium.

Accompanied by the band, the boys' and girls' glee clubs began the program with the National Anthem. Directed by Thomas Donahue, they then sang Arcadelt's "Ave Maria," "Tell Me Why," "Lavender Blue," and "Shortnin' Bread."

Sister Mary Paul, S.S.N.D., directed the girls' glee club in "O Bone Jesu" and "Cindy."

Under Donahue's direction, the boys' glee club rendered "Salve Regina" and "Vive l'Amour."

The band, organized and directed by John Jarvis, played among other selections, "United States Field Artillery March," by John P. Sousa; "Indian March" and "Our Own March," both by Howard Akers; and "Gridiron Pageant," by Erick Jon.

The first performance was given for the present student body and their parents and friends; the second was reserved for next year's freshman class and their parents.

Mercy Hospital Plans Cotillion

Auburn—The Jack Zeil Orchestra will play for the Seventh Annual Mercy Hospital Spring Cotillion on June 15 at the Springside Inn.

The orchestra, one of Central New York's leading dance bands, features Hugh Burritt, trumpet, and Jack Wright, vocalist and drums. The spring cotillion, now in its seventh year, is sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Mercy Hospital. Cotillion proceeds are used to purchase equipment and modernize hospital facilities. The theme of this year's Cotillion is "Pennies From Heaven," tieing in with its seventh, or copper, anniversary.

Annual Student Piano Festival At Memorial

Raymond Oballs, a student at McQuaid Jesuit High School, will be the soloist when 500 youngsters from 8 to 16 years of age participate in the second annual Piano Festival at the War Memorial Sunday, June 16 at 2:30 p.m.

Raymond Oballs

The number of participants this year will exceed by a good margin the 300 or so who appeared in the first of these events last year, when an audience of 3,000 sat in. The players are pupils of piano teachers in this area.

The children will play in recitals, in ensemble groups and finally all together.

Oballs is a student of Harold Weiss at the Eastman School. He came to this country with his parents from Lithuania in 1950 at the age of 4. He began piano studies at the Hochstein School in 1954, moved to the Eastman School to study with the late George MacNab. He expects to be graduated from the Preparatory Department next year.

Raymond lives at 38 Gilmore St.

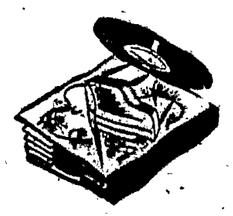
Disc Notes

From Paul Contestable



The first recording made on the brilliant new Aeolian Skinner Organ at Philharmonic Hall at Lincoln Center in New York has been released by Command Records. An extraordinarily vivid performance was recorded through the use of 35mm magnetic film to capture the full range of the organ from the lowest tones of sound to the full dynamic tones of the full organ. Truly, Virgil Fox Plays the Philharmonic [illegible] at Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, is a masterpiece of recording with sonic texture that is stunning in impact.

Included in the album are Bach's Passacaglia and Fugue in C Minor, Dieu Parmi Nous from La Nativite du Seigneur by Oliver Messiaen, and the Grande Piece Symphonique by Cesar Franck. Virgil Fox has truly mastered the organ with excellent registration, just as Command Records has mastered the recording of the vast array of sounds through its 35mm technique.

Every voice of the organ is amazingly clear with sound that ranges from brilliance and transparency to intensity and movement. Particularly stirring is the final movement of Franck's work.

Command technicians have accomplished an outstanding feat in this recording to capture the fullest and most balanced total sound of the six divisions of this organ. The stereo version of the record is particularly impressive.

Virgil Fox and Command Records have proved that organs must no longer remain hidden and forgotten in the back of a church. Today, organs can supplement orchestras, assume individual dimensions in solo recitals and boldly reaffirm sacred music in the manner of its original creation. And this recording has captured all the excitement and sound of a live performance. You must hear this record to believe it.

Tenor Richard Tucker receives excellent support from Skitch Henderson and his orchestra in his first recording of popular music. The Fabulous Voice of Richard Tucker. The Columbia record includes Tonight, Love Letters, With These Hands and Climb Ev'ry Mountain.

Frank Sinatra sings a fine selection of Music From Pictures and Plays in his usual excellent manner on the Reprise label. Songs include Laura, Tammy and Maria.
