McQuaid High Counsellor At Institute

The Rev. Raymond J. Baidol, 67 of McQuaid Jesuit High School will be among 120 guidance counsellors from all Jesuit schools and colleges in the United States attending a Jesuit Guidance Association Guidance Institute August 7 to 13 in Boston College.

The Role of Professional Counselors in Jesuit Institutions will be the theme of the Institute.

Speakers will cover a broad field of topics, including the nature of Jesuit education and college guidance programs; current status of guidance in Jesuit education; future directions; and how Jesuit schools should take guidance programs and ethics into consideration.

Each day will begin with a general session. After that, there will be group sessions for high school and college guidance personnel.

New Brunswick — Rev. Raymond J. Baidol, S.J., 1880 Clinton Ave. South, Rochester, N.Y., Guidance Counsellor at McQuaid Jesuit High School, has completed four weeks of study at the Summer School of Alcohol Studies at Rutgers, New Jersey's State University.

The Summer School, now in its 21st year, is designed as a training program for persons who work with alcohol problems. It is a unit of the Rutgers Center of Alcohol Studies.

Nearly 40 experts in various aspects of alcohol studies lectured during morning sessions at the school. Each afternoon, participants engaged in structured discussions of aspects of the topic relating to their own work or interests.

Security Reports

Security Trust Company's Total Earnings for the first six months of 1963 were $3,000,000 over earnings for the comparable period a year ago. According to figures released today, Total Earnings for the first six months of 1963 came to $2,233,283, compared with $674,677 for the same period a year ago. Earnings per share increased $0.20 to $2.81 from $2.61 or net as of June 30 last year.

At the end of June, the bank's Total Capital Funds were up 20 percent to $19,249,705 from $16,000,241 a year ago. According to bank officials, this increase reflected, principally, sale and lease-back transactions involving the bank's present main office and a number of its branch offices.

Sacred Hearts' Fathers Have New Provincial

The Very Rev. Daniel J. McCarthy, S.S.C. is the new Provincial of the American Province of the Fathers of the Sacred Hearts. His appointment was made by the Superior General of the Congregation who resides in Rome.

(Our Lady of Victory Church, Pleasant St., Rochester is staffed by the Fathers of the Sacred Hearts.)

The new Provincial succeeds the Very Rev. William J. Condon, S.S.C. whose second term of office expired last April. The installation of Father McCarthy was held July 24 at the Provincial House, One Main Street in Pittsburgh.

For the last four years Father McCarthy has been a professor of Philosophy at St. Mary's College, Winona, Minn. Born in Braddock, Pa. January 20, 1913, the son of the late James McCarthy and the late Margaret (Goulding) McCarthy, he attended Providence College before entering the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts.

His major studies of Philosophy and theology were made in Washington at Sacred Heart Seminary and St. Joseph Seminary both affiliated with the Congregation. On Sept. 14, 1939, he pronounced his vows and entered the priesthood.

After teaching for a year at Sacred Heart Seminary in Wareham, Father McCarthy entered the U.S. Navy as a chaplain in 1944. In 1946 he attended Catholic University and obtained his Licentiate in Sacred Theology. He was a professor of Theology at Sacred Heart Seminary, Washington until 1950 when he again became a priest.

At the time he reached the grade of Commander. In 1956 he became Provincial of the American Province. He will have the responsibility of caring for the spiritual and temporal needs of the Province. There are 230 Fathers, Brothers and Seminarians. Community houses, Seminaries and parishes are in Massachusetts, New York, New Hampshire, District of Columbia, Ohio, Minnesota and California. Outside the country the Province includes two communities in county Monaghan, Ireland and foreign missions in Hawaii and Yamagata, Japan and Great and Little Abaco in the Bahamas.

Assigned Work In 'Skid Row'

Spokane, Wash. — (NC) — The Franciscan Brothers of Charity of Spokane, a diocesan institution, has been inaugurated here by Bishop Bernard J. Toppel of Spokane to work for the rehabilitation of men along "skid row."

THE BROTHERHOOD continues work begun in June, 1958, by Franciscan tertiary from Minneapolis, Minn. The work includes operating the House of Charity, which has served more than 500,000 meals, handled some 1,200 medical cases at its dispensary and opened its 60-bed dormitory, nightly to homeless men.

The Brothers also will supervise Mount St. Charles Rehabilitation, 30 miles from here, which was built and is maintained by transients seeking physical, psychological and spiritual rehabilitation.

Nucleus of the new Brotherhouse are Brothers Bonaventure Collins, Anthony Wood and Charles Adams.
